Chester Bridge Closing Seen By 1970

Engineers Say Cables Weaker

Tri-state area drivers today were faced with stringent new regulations on the use of the weakened Chester Bridge along with one-lane traffic in a year and closing of the span in 1970.

The Ohio Highway Department at Columbus Wednesday announced inspectors have reported "serious" deterioration of a cable on the Ohio side of the bridge.

Highway officials said they plan to follow the recommendation of Modjeski & Masters, Harrisburg engineering firm, that intervals between vehicles be extended to a minimum of 45 feet.

The 5,000-pound weight limitation on the span, ordered Jan. 23 following an original inspection by the Harrisburg concern, will continue. The restriction was designed to keep buses and trucks off the span.

Max Ross, deputy director of operations for the Ohio Highway Department, reported the new check on the bridge had disclosed serious deterioration of a cable at the Ohio anchorage.

Ross said the 45-foot minimum space limit requirement will be posted at the bridge "within several days."

The engineering firm also said within one year, traffic will have to be limited to one lane, and within two years the bridge will have to be closed to all traffic.

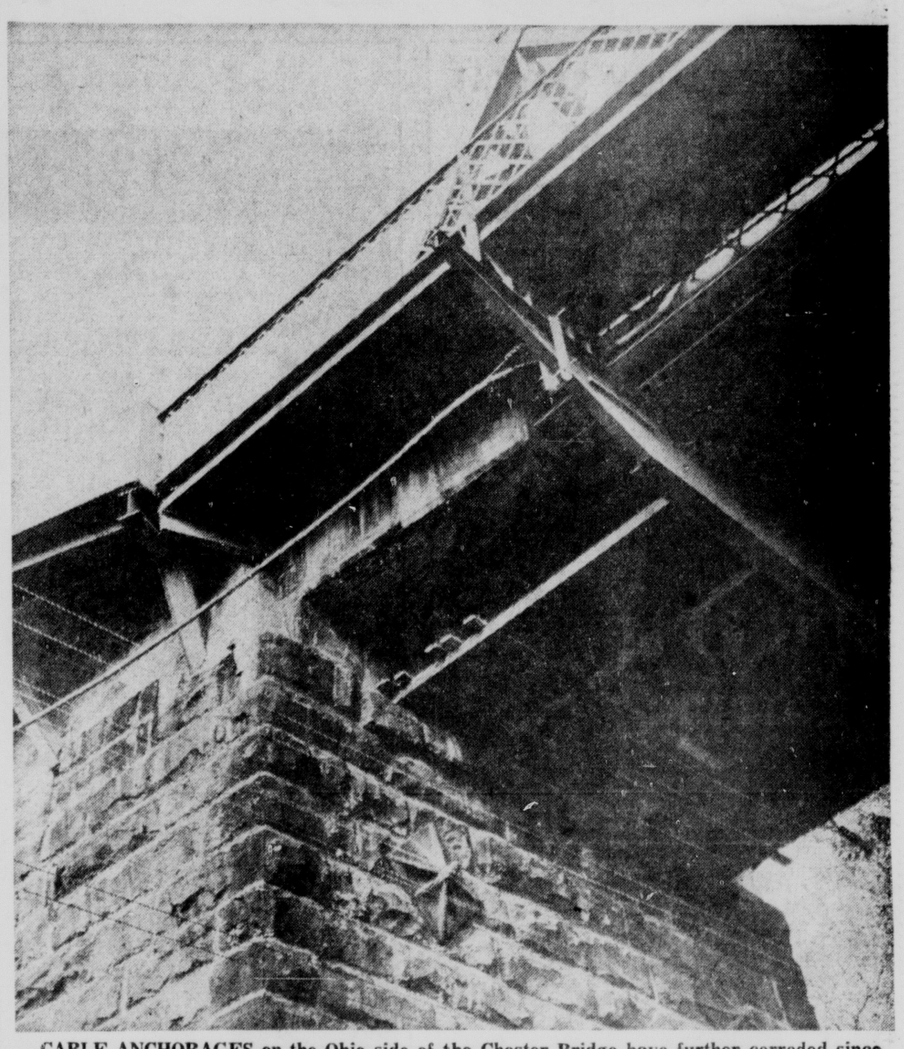
Other Bridges Studied

Ross also said highway department engineers are studying the condition of the Ft. Steuben Bridge at Steubenville and expect to recommend spacing of trucks using that span.

The Chester Bridge, Ft. Steuben Bridge and Pomeroy Bridge, the three Ohio River spans owned by Ohio, were inspected under a $40,000 program authorized in December 1967 following the collapse of the Silver Bridge Dec. 15 in which some 40 lives were lost.

At present, the North Hancock County Development Organization is the area group through which efforts are being directed to encourage fast action on a new bridge.

Since West Virginia's jurisdiction extends to the river's edge on the Ohio side, prime responsibility for a new bridge rests with that state.



CABLE ANCHORAGES on the Ohio side of the Chester Bridge have further corroded since last winter's inspection by an engineering firm, bringing new traffic restrictions on the span and recommendations the bridge be closed in two years.

A former East Liverpool youth was fatally injured early today when the compact car he was driving rammed a disabled steel truck near Salem.

Ronald J. Greathouse, 19, of New Cumberland RD 2 died shortly before arrival at Salem City Hospital. He was Columbiana County's 23rd traffic fatality of the year.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Greathouse was northbound on Route 45, about three miles south of Salem, when his auto struck the rear of a disabled steel truck operated by Joseph Daniel Allen, 28, of 1045 Edgewood Ave., East Liverpool. The accident occurred at 5:55.

Allen had placed flares and safety equipment around the truck, officers said.

The youth, who suffered lower internal injuries and shock, died about five minutes after he was admitted, Dr. William Kolozsi, Columbiana County coroner, said.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by the Arner Chapel in Chester.

Greathouse is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Greathouse of 1623 St. George St.; his widow, Darlene, and a 3-month-old daughter.

Final Countdown Begins For Apollo Flight Friday

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — With green lights flashing for all aspects of the flight, the final countdown begins today for Friday's scheduled launching of the three Apollo 7 astronauts on an 11-day space journey.

The 300-man launch crew planned to start the critical final hours of the count by feeding electrical power to the 224-foot-tall Saturn 1B rocket.

As the launch team prepared the rocket and the Apollo 7 spaceship, Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr., Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele and civilian astronaut Walter Cunningham expected to relax after a morning meeting in their quarters with key project officials.

The space trio is to ride the pulsating power of the Saturn 1B into orbit at 11 a.m. Friday on a critical mission that could put the United States back on course toward its goal of a manned lunar landing next year.

If Apollo 7 demonstrates that the spaceship can function long enough for a half-million-mile round trip to the moon, the Apollo 8 crew may attempt to orbit the moon in December. The 363-foot-tall Saturn 5 rocket for that mission rolled to its launch pad Wednesday for about 40 days of prelaunch checks. The Apollo 8 commander will be Air Force Col. Frank Borman.

Schirra, Cunningham and Eisele practiced Wednesday in a spacecraft simulator. Schirra sneaked away for an afternoon of dove hunting with friends, while Eisele and Cunningham rested in their quarters, reportedly reviewing the flight plan and keeping track of the World Series game on television.

Cunningham visited Wednesday night with his wife, Lo Ella, and two children, who flew here from their home in Houston, Tex., to watch the launching. The wives of the other two crewmen plan to view the blastoff on television at their Houston homes.

When the launch crew starts the final count, the clock will read 14 hours 15 minutes and counting. When it reaches 6 hours, there will be an automatic hold of six hours for any necessary catchup work and to allow the main force of the launch team to get some sleep.

Paul Donnelly, launch operations manager for the Kennedy Space Center, reported Wednesday that preparations for Apollo 7 "are about the cleanest I've seen"—better than on any of the previous 16 U.S. man-in-space flights and the 16 unmanned flights that have been conducted with the Saturn 1B and Saturn 5 rockets.

Major milestones after the terminal countdown begins include serving the power-producing fuel cells with liquid hydrogen and liquid oxygen, checking

B52s Hit Enemy Sites Near Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Air Force B52 bombers blasted enemy base camps threatening Saigon with heavy raids Wednesday and today, boosting to more than 700 the number of missions flown in the past four months in defense of the capital.

The B52 campaign to blunt an enemy attack on Saigon has become one of the biggest and costliest of the war—perhaps costing $250 million since June 1.

The eight-jet Stratofortresses have dropped more than 125,000 tons of explosives in 735 missions against base camps, infiltration corridors and other targets in the outlying provinces of Saigon. Each mission averages about six bombers each carrying 30 tons of bombs at an average cost of $2,000 a ton.

In the latest strikes, the B52s mounted seven missions against enemy troop concentrations, long-time base camps, bunker complexes and infiltration routes along the approaches northwest and northeast of Saigon.

The closest raids to Saigon were 24 to 31 miles northwest of the capital.

Peace Chance Seen Despite Lag In Talks

PARIS (AP) — Some U.S. officials say privately an early breakthrough toward a Vietnam peace still is possible despite the deadlocked talks here on ending the war.

Their optimism has them to the point of discussing the idea of a package deal in which conflicting American and North Vietnamese terms for a bomb halt would be reconciled.

Arguments advanced by informants who say a breakthrough still is on the cards emerged after the 25th session of the conference Wednesday.

Taken together these arguments suggest the North Vietnamese, for the first time, are revealing a readiness to yield some ground.

The first argument:

— Hanoi regards with some dismay the prospect of Richard M. Nixon being elected President Nov. 5. This, according to sources, appears to be the only conclusion to be drawn from North Vietnamese Ambassador Xuan Thuy's statement that "President Johnson . . still has enough time and power" to open the way to peace by ordering a halt now to the bombing of North Vietnam.

The second argument:

— Hanoi is being hurt militarily under the combined pressure and the increasing firepower of allied forces in South Vietnam. Ever-younger troops, sources said, are being pushed out of North Vietnam's eroded training bases into Southern battlefields. The rate of infiltration from the Norh is said to be falling.

The third argument:

— The men from Hanoi always display impeccable manner and all the courtesies during their meetings with the Americans. But Wednesday something approaching friendliness if not actual warmth toward the Americans was reported. This could mean a little—or a lot.

4-Day Trip Set About Oct. 15

Wallace Sending LeMay To Viet For Look At War

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Retired Air Force Gen. Curtis E. LeMay is going to Vietnam to take a first hand look at the war for presidential candidate George C. Wallace, The Associated Press has learned.

Tentative plans call for Wallace's running mate to make a four-day trip to Vietnam about Oct. 15, reporting back in time for an Oct. 20 nationwide television address by the former Alabama governor.

Sources close to Wallace said he planned to announce the trip at a speech today at Vandenburgh County Courthouse here.

LeMay, meanwhile, was campaigning in Florida.

The trip by LeMay, former Air Force chief of staff and head of the Strategic Air Command, recalls the trip to Korea by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952.

The difference is, however, that Eisenhower, a five-star general who led allied forces to victory in Europe in World War II, pledged to go if elected and then made the trip before taking office.

Wallace has pledged to end the Vietnam war with conventional weapons if the Paris peace talks fail and LeMay has said he agrees.

LeMay, who will be accompanied by three Alabama aides of Wallace, has been a hardliner on Vietnam all along.

When he was picked a week ago to take second place on the Wallace ticket, he revived the dormant issue of nuclear weapons by saying "there are many occasions when it would be most efficient to" use them.

He added at the time that he didn't think it was necessary to use them in Vietnam.

In an AP interview just before leaving for his Florida campaign swing, LeMay said no situation exists in Vietnam or any place else now where nuclear weapons would be appropriate. But he added that "there is some place where you're going

Other high level government spokesmen and sources had told newsmen that the alert was because of an attempted coup that failed.

A government spokesman read a presidential communique to newsmen at a regular afternoon press briefing. It said: "During the past two days there have been many false rumors spread by the Communists or uninformed people saying that ARVN (Army of the Republic of Vietnam) troops are on alert to defend against a rebellion and, second, that a number of people have been arrested.

Breakthrough Seen To Free Pueblo Crew

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — U.S. and North Korean negotiators met at Panmunjom today for the second straight day and a substantial breakthrough was in the making on the release of the crew of the USS Pueblo, intelligence sources said.

U.S. officials refused to comment on the report.

At the same time, the South Korean newspaper Kyunghyang Shinmun quoted informed sources as saying the 82 Pueblo crewmen, held in North Korea since the ship's capture Jan. 23, may be released shortly.

The paper added that the Panmunjom meeting was attended for the first time by Lennart Finmark, a Swede who is a member of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission of the Korean armistice.

The private talk Wednesday was the 23rd at Panmunjom on the Pueblo.

The last confirmed private talk was held Sept. 30.

Kyunghyang also said Maj. Gen. Gilbert Woodward, U.S. representative at the private talks, personally has toured a U.S. military hospital near Seoul and the Osan U.S. air base to inspect preparations for receiving the Pueblo crew.

The paper said Woodward made the inspection after he returned from the Wednesday meeting at Panmunjom.

Senate GOP Will Work Against TV Debate Bill

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Democratic leadership decided today to bow to a Republican sit-out and abandon the fight to permit free television and radio time for joint appearances of major presidential candidates.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen, without mentioning a filibuster, says Senate Republicans wlil use "the means at our command" to block passage of the equal time bill that survived historic locked-door debate in the House.

Dirksen indicated in an interview after the 27½ hour House debate on the measure ended Wednesday that numerous amendments may be offered to the bill permitting a radio-television confrontation by the major presidential candidates without requiring equal time for minor aspirants.

Shortly after the 280 to 35 House vote of approval, the Columbia Broadcasting System offered GOP nominee Richard M. Nixon, Democratic nominee Hubert H. Humphrey and third party candidate George C. Wallace, and their runningmates, one hour of prime time on each of the next four Sundays.

The National Broadcasting Co. asked the three to arrange meetings with network officials to agree on a time and format acceptable to all.

But Dirksen made it clear Senate Republicans have no intention of letting the bill become law in its present form, if they can stall it in the waning days of a session where a quorum to conduct business is rapidly disappearing.

"We are going to resist this with the means at our command," Dirksen said.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana made the House-passed bill the pending business at a session today called two hours earlier than the usual noon meeting time.

Observing that he expected "considerable discussion' by the minority, he added:

"I hope the Republicans will do their best to see that we get home before the polls close on Nov. 5."

Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., said that the adournment of Congress might be delayed

Peru Regime Seizes American Oil Complex

LIMA, Peru (AP) — Peru's revolutionary military government took over a $200-million American-owned oil field complex Wednesday in a move that could delay recognition of the new regime by the United States and other Latin American governments.

The action against International Petroleum Corp., a subsidiary of Standard Oil of New Jersey, also could slow foreign investment which Peru needs.

President Juan Velasco Alvarado announced the seizure by the armed forces of the country's major petroleum complex in a speech broadcast to the nation shortly after noon.

Dirksen indicated in an interview after the 27½ hour House debate on the measure ended Wednesday that numerous amendments may be offered to the bill permitting a radio-television confrontation by the major presidential candidates without requiring equal time for minor aspirants.

Shortly after the 280 to 35 House vote of approval, the Columbia Broadcasting System offered GOP nominee Richard M. Nixon, Democratic nominee Hubert H. Humphrey and third party candidate George C. Wallace, and their runningmates, one hour of prime time on each of the next four Sundays.

The National Broadcasting Co. asked the three to arrange meetings with network officials to agree on a time and format acceptable to all.

But Dirksen made it clear Senate Republicans have no intention of letting the bill become law in its present form, if they can stall it in the waning days of a session where a quorum to conduct business is rapidly disappearing.

"We are going to resist this with the means at our command," Dirksen said.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana made the House-passed bill the pending business at a session today called two hours earlier than the usual noon meeting time.

Observing that he expected "considerable discussion' by the minority, he added:

"I hope the Republicans will do their best to see that we get home before the polls close on Nov. 5."

Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., said that the adournment of Congress might be delayed

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. Sarah Arnott

Mrs. Sarah Alice Barrett Arnott, 56, of 531 Harrison St., Newell, a finisher at the Homer Laughlin China Co., died this morning at 7:07 at City Hospital, where she had been a patient for five weeks. She had been ailing for two years.

Mrs. Arnott was born June 24, 1912, in Newell, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett. She had resided in Newell her lifetime. She was a member of the Auxiliary of the East Liverpool Moose Lodge and the Auxiliary of the New Cumberland VFW.

She leaves two sons, Robert A. Arnott of Mentor, Ohio, and Glenn L. Arnott of Weirton; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Haynes of Newell; a brother, Robert Barrett of Chester, and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Chester Arner Funeral Chapel by the Rev. George Hazlett of the Glendale Church of the Nazarene.

Burial will be in the Shadow Lawn Memory Gardens, Newell.

Friends may call at the chapel tonight after 7 and Friday afternoon and night.

Gordon W. Morrow

Gordon Webster Morrow, 69, director of racing at Scarboro Downs in Maine, died Wednesday at 6:12 p.m. at City Hospital, where he had been admitted early Wednesday morning for emergency surgery.

Mr. Morrow, who at one time was a racing official at Waterford Park, was visiting James Edwards, owner of the park, when he became ill.

He was born Aug. 25, 1899, at Indian Mound, Tenn., son of the late Thomas C. Morrow and Callie Morrow. He also had served as a racing official at Charles Town and Wheeling. He was past national president of the Society of North American Racing Officials.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Aylene Ethridge Morrow, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Charles W. (Janice) Smith of Pawtucket, R. I., one granddaughter and two great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at the McAloon Funeral Home at Pawtucket, with burial in the Swan Point Cemetery at Providence, R. I.

The Dawson Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Mrs. Hattie Blanton

TORONTO—Services for Mrs. Hattie Virginia Davis Blanton of 309 Court St., who died Wednesday, will be held Saturday at the Stanley M. Turel Funeral Home here.

The Rev. Leona Rogers of the Fosterville Methodist Church will officiate.

Burial will be in Toronto Union Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home today from 7 to 9 and Friday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Various Actions Taken By Group

SALINEVILLE — The Southern Local Band Boosters completed plans for serving the DCSA banquet at a meeting Tuesday night at the school.

Mrs. Wanda Pisarsky and Mrs. Ruby Newhouse are co-chairmen of the event.

Also approved was the purchase of a musical production score by Oscar Gartrell, band director.

Since there is no vocal music program, the band directors, Gartrell and Michael Bloor, will supervise the production, with presentation planned in the spring.

Purchase of a limer for the practice field also was okayed.

The next meeting will be Nov. 12.

Columbus Post Office Set For Dedication

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The city's ultramodern post office, which opened last month, will be dedicated at ceremonies Sunday, with Frederick E. Batrus, an assistant U.S. postmaster general, as featured speaker.

Ohio's U.S. senators, Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young, also are expected to attend, along with Franklin County Congressmen Samuel Devine and Chalmeers P. Wylie.

Palestine PTO Plans Visitation At Schools

EAST PALESTINE — The Parent - Teacher Organization will sponsor a series of open house visitations at the city schools and at Unity and Negley starting Oct. 21.

Voters of the school district will ballot on renewals of 2.6-mill and 2.4-mill levies in a combined 5-mill proposal Nov. 5.

TV Debate

by the argument over the measure.

There were indications, however, that the Democrats may be willing to let the bill die after they have attempted to drive home the point that Nixon doesn't want a debate.

Nixon has said he would debate Humphrey but would not join in a "cricus" in which Wallace was invited to participate. Humphrey and Wallace both have said they would debate.

The bill now before the Senate differs from an earlier version it passed in that it considers Nixon, Humphrey and Wallace all as major candidates. The earlier Senate version would merely have suspended the law, permitting networks to invite whom they want.

Sen. Fred Harris, D-Okla., one of Humphrey's advisers, said he had been told the Republicans plan to use obstructionist tactics to prevent action on the House measure.

Humphrey made a personal call on House Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., urging passage of the bill while that chamber was tied up in knots with repeated Republican demands for roll calls.

Republicans denied that they were trying to prevent passage, saying they were driving for action on stymied election reform and congressional reorganization legislation.

Absentee Ballots Exceed '64 Level As Job Continues

Requests for absentee ballots for the Nov. 5 general election are running ahead of the level shown at the same time in the last presidential election in 1964, Miss Rebecca Resnick, director of elections at the County Election Board, commented today.

The board has augmented its staff to help handle the rush of applications for ballots. It said 391 applications have been received to date for civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots. The civilian tickets became available last Monday.

Meanwhile, 598 ballots have been issued so far under Ohio's "soldier voting" law, which permits absentee voting by service personnel and their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U.S.

The civilian ballots may be issued until 4 p.m. Oct. 31. To be counted at the polls on election day, they must be back in the board's hands by noon Nov. 1. "Soldier ballots" may be issued until noon on Nov. 2. They may be returned to the board as late as noon on election day and still be counted at the polls.

Hookstown Considers Hiring Police Officer

HOOKSTOWN — The possibility of hiring a parttime police officer for the borough was discussed by Council at a meeting Wednesday night.

At present, protection is provided by the State Police and County officers. However, the increase of traffic from the Shippingport Bridge and growing population are considered reasons for requiring additional police service.

Bills totaling $68 were paid. James Anderson, president, was in charge. The November meeting date will be announced.

Services Set For Corporal

Services for Cpl. William L. McLaughlin, 20, son of Mrs. Harold (Faye) Garner of Hookstown, will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Chester.

Fr. Robert Hickey, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Mill Creek Hill Cemetery, Hookstown.

Cpl. McLaughlin was killed Oct. 3 while serving in Vietnam.

Friends may call after 7 tonight and Friday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 10 at the Welch Funeral Home, Hookstown, where the Rosary will be recited Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Canadian Group Will Be Guests Of Lisbon Troop

LISBON — Thirty Canadian Boy Scouts and six adult leaders will be guests this weekend of Lisbon Troop 92 ("The Action Troop"), sponsored by the United Methodist Church.

They will leave Scarborough, Toronto, Friday night. Scoutmaster Dean Senanefes of Troop 92 will meet the motorcade at 7 a.m. Saturday at North Lima.

The Canadians will camp at Camp McKinley on the Logstown Rd. Senanefes said Troop 92 will take the visitors to area historical sites Saturday and, after church Sunday, to Camp Twin Spruce on Leesville Lake.

Senanefes and John Frame, group leader of the Canadians, met in the summer of 1967 when Troop 92 spent the night at Camp Crooked Creek in Toronto.

Frame visited Lisbon a month ago to arrange the trip, which coincides with Canada's Thanksgiving — the second Monday in October.

East End Group May Join CTA; Backs 2 Issues

The possibility of joining the Citizens For Total Action organization was discussed during a meeting of an East End civic group Wednesday night at the IOOF Hall on Pennsylvania Ave.

The community improvement goals of the CTA and the new organization were reviewed and a motion made to formally join the CTA. Action is expected at the next meeting Oct. 23.

Bert Willison, market operator and chairman of the council and school committees of the new group, reported he had conferred with Atty. Earl Row of Cleveland, leader in the CTA, relative to civic matters and zoning.

The possibility of retaining an attorney to represent the group in seeking revisions of some zoning regulations to permit business changes was discussed.

James Shipley of Salem reviewed Issues No. 1 and 2 which will be on the Nov. 6 ballot. The group endorsed the issues, one of which would permit the legislature to issue bonds for state improvements and the other of which would provide property tax relief for residents 65 and older.

Two Bids Received

EAST PALESTINE — Two bids were received for a new tractor for the City Park Wednesday by the Park Commission. A spokesman said the bids will be opened at a meeting Monday.

3 Negroes Arrested In Pittsburgh Murder

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Police said today they have arrested three Negro teen-agers and charged them with the murder of a white grocer that may have touched off a series of racial troubles.

Russell L. Sewell, 18, of the Oakland section, and Roger DeVaughn, and Homer Dennison, both 17 and both from the largely Negro Homewood - Brushton area, were arrested late Wednesday night and early today, authorities said.

Car Of Local Driver Struck In Hit-Skip

The car of an East Liverpool motorist was struck in a hit-skip mishap Wednesday.

Ohio Highway Patrol officers at Lisbon said William E. Foden, 22, of 234 W. 3rd St. was driving north on Route 7, south of Rogers, at 11:30 a.m. when his car was hit by the truck in a "passing" incident.

Foden was not hurt.

The possibility of joining the Citizens For Total Action organization was discussed during a meeting of an East End civic group Wednesday night at the IOOF Hall on Pennsylvania Ave.

The community improvement goals of the CTA and the new organization were reviewed and a motion made to formally join the CTA. Action is expected at the next meeting Oct. 23.

Bert Willison, market operator and chairman of the council and school committees of the new group, reported he had conferred with Atty. Earl Row of Cleveland, leader in the CTA, relative to civic matters and zoning.

The possibility of retaining an attorney to represent the group in seeking revisions of some zoning regulations to permit business changes was discussed.

James Shipley of Salem reviewed Issues No. 1 and 2 which will be on the Nov. 6 ballot. The group endorsed the issues, one of which would permit the legislature to issue bonds for state improvements and the other of which would provide property tax relief for residents 65 and older.

3 Negroes Arrested In Pittsburgh Murder

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Police said today they have arrested three Negro teen-agers and charged them with the murder of a white grocer that may have touched off a series of racial troubles.

Russell L. Sewell, 18, of the Oakland section, and Roger DeVaughn, and Homer Dennison, both 17 and both from the largely Negro Homewood - Brushton area, were arrested late Wednesday night and early today, authorities said.

'As Soon As Possible'

Anyone who thought time is not important in getting a new Ohio River span built to replace the rapidly deteriorating Chester Bridge should realize the error of such unfounded hope.

The warning from bridge inspectors that the Chester Bridge should be closed in two years due to its unsafe condition only reinforces the urgent recommendation early this year that a replacement be built "as soon as possible."

An engineering firm retained by West Virginia to do a preliminary survey for a new span is half way through its work, and it is essential that the report be prepared on time - - or expedited - - and that immediate attention be given to implementing the plans for starting the construction project.

The traffic strangulation of the current bridge restriction is increasingly detrimental to the economy of our area, and closing of the span could mean loss of existing business and jobs and re-location of large numbers of residents.

We urge district industrial and business leaders, government authorities and officials of West Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania to act now in a cooperative effort to replace the aging bridge which is clearly a public hazard and a threat to the immediate tri-state district's development.

Operation Workshop

Communication and sincere efforts toward understanding are the key factors in solving the problems of civil equality which exist in many communities across this nation.

The human relations workshops scheduled at Midland Saturday offers a tremendous opportunity for all citizens to take a fresh look at the various areas of concern, to view all sides of the issues and to consider means of achieving common goals of benefit to the total community.

Full participation is vital, and so is recognition of diversity of attitudes and a willngness to learn and to adapt. The Midland workshop could set an example for honest and direct action the rest of the nation might follow.

The Public And The Press

Newspaper men and women take great pride in their work and in the role which the newspaper plays in each community.

Most, however, are somewhat reticent about calling public attention to themselves and their paper, and only during National Newspaper Week, self - consciously remind their readers not so much of what, for example, The Review is doing, but what newspapers in general are in the structure of a representative democracy.

Ohio Gov. James Rhodes has described this obligation of the press and the public in a statement issued earlier this month:

"What is public opinion?

"It is, among other things, the strongest countervailing influence against the oligarchal tendency which exists in any democracy, and particularly one which is structured as a federal republic.

"What is public opinion made of?

"Public opinion, singular, is composed of a general consensus on range and priority of value preferences.

"What is a value preference?

"A value preference is an emotional response to a set of real or presumed facts, plus the sum total of one's exictence.

"Given the foregoing questions and answers, we are also given insight into the importance of a free and unfettered press, and the universality of the importance of that "preferred freedom." Press freedom is everybody's freedom.

"It is of basic importance that our political system accomplish the adjustments which must be made periodically within the policy process which is rooted in representative government. Thus, it is of immense importance that public opinion be formed on the basis of real, and not presumed facts.

"Public Opinion, which Walter Lippman once described as the pictures which people have in their heads, is supposed to be the major societal tool for shaping public policy, for the politics of public administration is problem-solving in an effort to meet human wants.

"One need go no further to emphasize the importance of National Newspaper Week. And one need offer no more eloquent argument for the vital importance to this democracy that our citizens receive real, and not presumed facts. Newspapers utilize that preferred freedom which has enabled our federal republic to adjust to the politics of the times, and thus to survive.

"Newspapers strive to presest us with facts unfettered by presumption and uncolored by aggrandizement or preference. We must always keep it that way."

Slower Than A Snail

The Czechoslovakia takeover by the Soviet Union in late August and subsequent actions and statements by the Russians are keeping the international scene in turmoil.

Eastern European countries are fearful the Soviet Union will launch additional invasions.

THE U.S. ELECTION campaign has been affected by the invasion and threats tossed toward West Germany.

Ratification of the Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty, years in the making and a step toward nuclear power control, has been imperiled.

The record defense appropriation approvel in Congress no doubt was influenced by uncertainty inspired by Russia's more belligerent military posture.

There have been some heated exchanges in the United Nations over the invasion that will make it more difficult for decisions to be reached on other pressing problems.

Czech government officials have requested the United States not bring the issue up in the U.N. for fear it would weaken their bargaining position with Moscow.

Talks are under way concerning the withdrawal of Russian troops. The Czechs hope to get rid of as many of the Soviet soldiers as they can even though they have agreed to a sizable permanent force on their soil.

RUSSIA'S INTENT along this line also is being questioned. Military sources report that an estimated 10 to 13 Soviet divisions participated in the invasion but more have moved in since and the troop level presently is estimated at 20 to 21 divisions.

Suspicious troop movement and reckless statements by the Soviet government is widening the breach in international relations opened up originally by the assault on Czechoslovakia.

Until Russia utilizes restraint on word and deed, the trek toward solution of world problems will be slower than a snail's pace because of fear and uncertainty.

Requiem For A Muscle Man

It has gone virtually unnoticed that his Brotherhood, the Teamsters, which nominally he still leads from his penitentiary cell, the other day quietly endorsed Hubert Humphrey for the presidency.

Victor Riesel

The Brotherhood's elders talked desultorily in Chicago the other day for some four hours, and then wrote themselves a resolution urging the unions 1.9 million members "to seriously consider the candidacy of Vice President Humphrey."

This has not yet been officially communicated to the rank and file. There has been less trumpeting of this cause than of the Teamsters' battle to keep Barry Goldwater out of the Senate.

No one in the leadership really cares. Few have any place to go, as long as Jimmy Hoffa remains general president — which won't be for long.

The other brethren are less concerned with electing a president of the U.S. than with ridding themselves of their own president, who now is succeeding only in sinking them into new quagmires of trouble.

EXCEPT FOR THE SOFT shoe shuffling of Hoffa's attorney to and from the Supreme Court with appeal after appeal, all was quiet until the shots which cut down Bob Kennedy.

Within a few hours, some of "Jimmy's" friends were offering $100,000 to anyone who would come forth, now that the haunter was dead, and proffer evidence that Hoffa really is innocent.

There were no takers. But that should not have surprised Hoffa. There were also no takers of the previous million dollar offer.

Instead, the Justice Department's Criminal Division and new grand juries began a series of probes into efforts to bribe witnesses. Some of those "friends" with all that cash may find themselves in Hoffa's imprisoned government-in-exile.

When the cash — which reflected Hoffa's basic sense of jugularism, namely, that you can buy anyone anywhere — remained frozen, Hoffa hit on a new tactic.

His "friends" began making the Senate rounds, seeking aid to pressure the White House and the Bureau of Prisons to get the bantam shifted from the cold winters of Lewisburg (Pa.) pentitentiary to a model prison farm in sunny Florida. There were no takers.

HOFFA CONTINUED TO stuff mattresses and take communal showers, during which he shuddered as though he were being doused with sulphuric acid. And he awaited the results of his appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago.

This was his last hope for reprieve from his five-year sentence (which will follow two four-year terms he's now serving) for conspiring to defraud the Teamsters' central states' pension fund of $1.7 million and for mishandling $20 million.

On Aug. 15, the court rejected his appeal. He began pressuring his old lieutenants to get tough. They didn't. They've had it.

They learned from some of the best judicial brains in Washington that the Supreme Court, unless it broke all tradition, would not reverse itself on a case it had once considered, then had remanded to a District Court, which then again had ruled against Hoffa, which in turn had been supported by a Federal Court of Appeals.

Nonetheless, on Sept. 26, Hoffa again appealed to the Supreme Court. But the Teamsters' high command had decided that, for Jimmy Hoffa, the ball game was over.

THEY ARE IN alliance with Walter Reuther. This means that he will lend them the rhetoric and sociological imagery they need.

Their general counsel, Ed Bennett Williams, for some time now an intimate of President Johnson, will guide them quite expertly and brilliantly out of the legal swamp into which they followed "Jimmy."

If they're going to get tough, they'll slug it out with air pollution, central city problems and the difficulties of strangulated traffic.

On the political front — Hoffa or no Hoffa — they're decided not to get tough with anyone. In Chicago, they let it be known that they had fully considered the virtues of "all three major candidates."

They're not picking on George Wallace. One of the elders reckoned the Alabaman will get 30 or 40 per cent of the teamsters' vote. They're not picking on Dick Nixon. They're perfect gamblers. So they never take a chance. They decided to let bygones be bygones with the national Democratic Party. So, quietly, they endorsed Hubert Humphrey.

And then they let word go out that the last strike has been called on James Riddle Hoffa. He'll be in prison until 1974, at least.

Bombing Halt Not The Answer

Most people don't realize it, but if the United States announced that it would "unconditionally halt the bombing," this would not mean peace in Vietnam. There has been so much talk about the importance of stopping the bombing that the real objectives of North Vietnam have been lost sight of in America.

Secretary of State Rusk has declared that President Johnson would be willing to order a complete cessation of the bombing if it were a step toward peace, but that there is no reason to believe that it would be.

He has called attention to the fact that since March 31 the bombing of four-fifths of North Vietnam, where 90 per cent of the people live, has been halted, while "there is not one square mile in South Vietnam that is free from bombing." Hanoi has not moved any closer to peace.

JUST WHY are the North Vietnamese pursuing this kind of game? They are hoping that the United States and its allies will not only give up bombing the rest of North Vietnam, but will agree to allow the Communist insurgents in South Vietnam to assume a major role in the government at Saigon, thus preparing the way for a takeover by the Communist leaders in Hanoi.

But even with a complete halt in the bombing and a concession to permit the "National Liberation Front" — the political arm of the Viet Cong — to participate in the government of South Vietnam, peace would not be achieved.

For North Vietnam has demanded that the United States and its allies withdraw their troops and leave South Vietnam to be governed by a coalition — which, of course, means domination by the Communists of North Vietnam.

Part of the explanation of why the North Vietnamese are holding out so inflexibly was given by Secretary Rusk on the program "Issues and Answers" over the ABC television network Sunday. He said:

"I think the North Vietnamese watch public discussion in this country very closely. They, from time to time, quote to us the most obscure statements made by somebody in this country. They put great weight on the demonstrators and the signs of dissent in this country. . .

"If we heard that 50,000 demonstrators were marching around the headquarters in Hanoi calling for peace, we would say the war is over. Now when they hear that 50,000 demonstrators a few months ago were out in front of the Pentagon in Washington, they can be misled, you see.

So a part of our problem is to be sure that they understand the basis on which the United States makes decisions, so they do not misunderstand or miscalculate or come to the conclusion that somehow the United States is going to abandon Southeast Asia — because we are not going to abandon Southeast Asia, whoever is elected in November, and Hanoi should understand that and get down to the serious business of making peace."

Mr. Rusk doesn't feel that there is any really substantial difference in objectives between the major political parties in the United States on the subject of the Vietnam War. He made it clear also that he doesn't believe the foreign policy of the United States has been "a partisan affair." He declared:

"I have now had an opportunity to meet with hundreds of committees of Congress and subcommittees in executive session. Not once in my eight years have I seen differences on foreign policy questions divide on party lines."

ANALYSIS OF the position of the Hanoi government has been made in news dispatches from time to time throughout Southeast Asia as well as Europe. The general feeling abroad is that North Vietnam is obdurate about making peace because of a belief that the United States sooner or later will abandon the war in Southeast Asia and passively allow South Vietnam to come under the control of the Communists.

The Hanoi government is constantly encouraged by Moscow, which has been supplying billions of dollars worth of armament to North Vietnam. As the Soviet government now is preoccupied in Eastern Europe with Czechoslovakia, pressure on the Kremlin to change its attitude in Vietnam might offer some ray of hope for peace.

But there is no evidence as yet of any serious effort on the part of the North Vietnamese government even to begin actual negotiations in Paris or elsewhere.

Requiem For A Muscle Man

WASHINGTON — This is a requiem for the forgotten bantam, Jimmy Hoffa, who once gave the world 24 hours to get out.

It has gone virtually unnoticed that his Brotherhood, the Teamsters, which nominally he still leads from his penitentiary cell, the other day quietly endorsed Hubert Humphrey for the presidency.

Victor Riesel

The Brotherhood's elders talked desultorily in Chicago the other day for some four hours, and then wrote themselves a resolution urging the unions 1.9 million members "to seriously consider the candidacy of Vice President Humphrey."

This has not yet been officially communicated to the rank and file. There has been less trumpeting of this cause than of the Teamsters' battle to keep Barry Goldwater out of the Senate.

No one in the leadership really cares. Few have any place to go, as long as Jimmy Hoffa remains general president — which won't be for long.

The other brethren are less concerned with electing a president of the U.S. than with ridding themselves of their own president, who now is succeeding only in sinking them into new quagmires of trouble.

EXCEPT FOR THE SOFT shoe shuffling of Hoffa's attorney to and from the Supreme Court with appeal after appeal, all was quiet until the shots which cut down Bob Kennedy.

Within a few hours, some of "Jimmy's" friends were offering $100,000 to anyone who would come forth, now that the haunter was dead, and proffer evidence that Hoffa really is innocent.

There were no takers. But that should not have surprised Hoffa. There were also no takers of the previous million dollar offer.

Instead, the Justice Department's Criminal Division and new grand juries began a series of probes into efforts to bribe witnesses. Some of those "friends" with all that cash may find themselves in Hoffa's imprisoned government-in-exile.

When the cash — which reflected Hoffa's basic sense of jugularism, namely, that you can buy anyone anywhere — remained frozen, Hoffa hit on a new tactic.

His "friends" began making the Senate rounds, seeking aid to pressure the White House and the Bureau of Prisons to get the bantam shifted from the cold winters of Lewisburg (Pa.) pentitentiary to a model prison farm in sunny Florida. There were no takers.

HOFFA CONTINUED TO stuff mattresses and take communal showers, during which he shuddered as though he were being doused with sulphuric acid. And he awaited the results of his appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago.

This was his last hope for reprieve from his five-year sentence (which will follow two four-year terms he's now serving) for conspiring to defraud the Teamsters' central states' pension fund of $1.7 million and for mishandling $20 million.

On Aug. 15, the court rejected his appeal. He began pressuring his old lieutenants to get tough. They didn't. They've had it.

They learned from some of the best judicial brains in Washington that the Supreme Court, unless it broke all tradition, would not reverse itself on a case it had once considered, then had remanded to a District Court, which then again had ruled against Hoffa, which in turn had been supported by a Federal Court of Appeals.

Nonetheless, on Sept. 26, Hoffa again appealed to the Supreme Court. But the Teamsters' high command had decided that, for Jimmy Hoffa, the ball game was over.

THEY ARE IN alliance with Walter Reuther. This means that he will lend them the rhetoric and sociological imagery they need.

Their general counsel, Ed Bennett Williams, for some time now an intimate of President Johnson, will guide them quite expertly and brilliantly out of the legal swamp into which they followed "Jimmy."

If they're going to get tough, they'll slug it out with air pollution, central city problems and the difficulties of strangulated traffic.

On the political front — Hoffa or no Hoffa — they're decided not to get tough with anyone. In Chicago, they let it be known that they had fully considered the virtues of "all three major candidates."

They're not picking on George Wallace. One of the elders reckoned the Alabaman will get 30 or 40 per cent of the teamsters' vote. They're not picking on Dick Nixon. They're perfect gamblers. So they never take a chance. They decided to let bygones be bygones with the national Democratic Party. So, quietly, they endorsed Hubert Humphrey.

And then they let word go out that the last strike has been called on James Riddle Hoffa. He'll be in prison until 1974, at least.

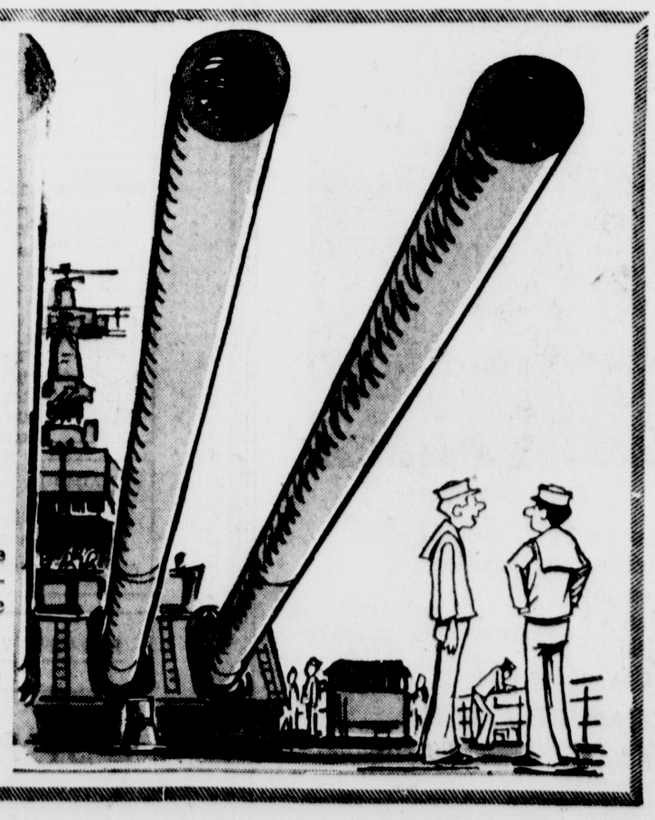
Berry's World

"Now that we've got the New Jersey back in action maybe we'll stop the bombing!"



DAVID LAWRENCE

Bombing Halt Not The Answer

Most people don't realize it, but if the United States announced that it would "unconditionally halt the bombing," this would not mean peace in Vietnam. There has been so much talk about the importance of stopping the bombing that the real objectives of North Vietnam have been lost sight of in America.

Secretary of State Rusk has declared that President Johnson would be willing to order a complete cessation of the bombing if it were a step toward peace, but that there is no reason to believe that it would be.

He has called attention to the fact that since March 31 the bombing of four-fifths of North Vietnam, where 90 per cent of the people live, has been halted, while "there is not one square mile in South Vietnam that is free from bombing." Hanoi has not moved any closer to peace.

JUST WHY are the North Vietnamese pursuing this kind of game? They are hoping that the United States and its allies will not only give up bombing the rest of North Vietnam, but will agree to allow the Communist insurgents in South Vietnam to assume a major role in the government at Saigon, thus preparing the way for a takeover by the Communist leaders in Hanoi.

But even with a complete halt in the bombing and a concession to permit the "National Liberation Front" — the political arm of the Viet Cong — to participate in the government of South Vietnam, peace would not be achieved.

For North Vietnam has demanded that the United States and its allies withdraw their troops and leave South Vietnam to be governed by a coalition — which, of course, means domination by the Communists of North Vietnam.

Part of the explanation of why the North Vietnamese are holding out so inflexibly was given by Secretary Rusk on the program "Issues and Answers" over the ABC television network Sunday. He said:

"I think the North Vietnamese watch public discussion in this country very closely. They, from time to time, quote to us the most obscure statements made by somebody in this country. They put great weight on the demonstrators and the signs of dissent in this country. . .

"If we heard that 50,000 demonstrators were marching around the headquarters in Hanoi calling for peace, we would say the war is over. Now when they hear that 50,000 demonstrators a few months ago were out in front of the Pentagon in Washington, they can be misled, you see.

So a part of our problem is to be sure that they understand the basis on which the United States makes decisions, so they do not misunderstand or miscalculate or come to the conclusion that somehow the United States is going to abandon Southeast Asia — because we are not going to abandon Southeast Asia, whoever is elected in November, and Hanoi should understand that and get down to the serious business of making peace."

Mr. Rusk doesn't feel that there is any really substantial difference in objectives between the major political parties in the United States on the subject of the Vietnam War. He made it clear also that he doesn't believe the foreign policy of the United States has been "a partisan affair." He declared:

"I have now had an opportunity to meet with hundreds of committees of Congress and subcommittees in executive session. Not once in my eight years have I seen differences on foreign policy questions divide on party lines."

ANALYSIS OF the position of the Hanoi government has been made in news dispatches from time to time throughout Southeast Asia as well as Europe. The general feeling abroad is that North Vietnam is obdurate about making peace because of a belief that the United States sooner or later will abandon the war in Southeast Asia and passively allow South Vietnam to come under the control of the Communists.

The Hanoi government is constantly encouraged by Moscow, which has been supplying billions of dollars worth of armament to North Vietnam. As the Soviet government now is preoccupied in Eastern Europe with Czechoslovakia, pressure on the Kremlin to change its attitude in Vietnam might offer some ray of hope for peace.

But there is no evidence as yet of any serious effort on the part of the North Vietnamese government even to begin actual negotiations in Paris or elsewhere.

Ford To Hire 2,200 At Cleveland Plant

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) Ford Motor Co. plans to hire 2,200 new employes here, many of them unskilled.

Ford has an $80 million expansion under way a its No. 2 engine plant in Brook Park and expects to be finished by next July.

Vincent P. Masi, manager of the two company engine plants, said Wednesday 1,800 of the new employes will be unskilled workers.

The No. 2 engine plant now has 1,082 employes and produces truck engines. Masi said Ford plans to start hiring shortly after Jan. 1.

Betty Furness Set To Support HHH

CINCINNATI (AP) — Betty Furness says she will campaign for Democratic presidential candidate Hubert Humphrey until the Nov. 5 election—but she's not so certain whether she will remain as advisor on consumer affairs if asked to do so by the next administration.

Asked about her political sentiments at a news conference here Wednesday, she said she would stump for Humphrey until election time, concentrating "on people in the suburbs who are undecided and wavering."

Chester Club Plans Supper

Committees for the annual pancake supper were announced when the Chester Kiwanis Club met Tuesday night in City Hall.

William Bishop, chairman, named: Clifford Comm, chairman, Ronald Pschier and James Jordon, reception; Lee Adams, chairman, Lloyd Mansfield, and Paul Finley, tickets and publicity; Russ Davis, chairman, William Werkheiser and Comm, food; Albert Kell; chairman; John Boyd, and Charles Ridenour, grill.

Thomas Ridge, chairman, and Boyd, tickes at the door; Richard Pillo, chairman, and Carl Ciccarelli, silverware; Eugene Seeley, chairman, Ray Stevens, Thayer Allison, Pete Arner and Pillo, cooking; Denver Carder, chairman, Mansfield, Arner and Ciccarelli, kitchen.

Pschier, chairman, Adams and Ridenour, waiters; Davis chairman, Albert Fineman and Robert Cooley, tables and chairs; Eugene Boyce, chairman, and Boyd, dishes, and Kell, chairman, coffee.

Bishop said that club members whose names do not appear on the lists will serve on all committees. The supper will be held Nov. 13-14 at City Hall. Firemen is co-chairman.

Cooley, president, said fruit cakes may be picked up at Werkheiser's Hardware or by calling any member for free delivery. Those residents who haven't placed an order or would like additional cakes may contact a club member.

A progress report was given on the gum ball machines which will be installed in the Chester, Newell and New Manchester areas by the club. Proceeds will be used for projects for youth in the communities.

Seeley, secretary - treasurer, gave a brief review of the revisions and amendments to the Kiwanis Club constitution, effective during the next fiscal year. The revisions were approved.

Clayton Lutton was a guest. Attending from the Oak Glen High School Key Club were Mike Abrams and Jim Dent, who said their club will induct 17 new members this week. Members of the Kiwanis Club will attend.

A total of 31 denominations of pure nickel coins was in circulation in 17 countries at the end of 1967, and 228 denominations of cupro - nickel coins were in circulation in 79 countries.

NATO Defense Chiefs Begin Secret Talks

BONN, Germany (AP) — Defense chiefs of seven NATO countries began secret two-day consultations today on the role of nuclear weapons in the defense of the West.

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization's nuclear planning group, also known as the McNamara Committee after former Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, was meeting under maximum security conditions.

The U.S., British, West German, Italian, Danish, Belgian and Greek delegations to the semiannual session were believed to be hearing details of a series of studies compiled since they conferred in April in the Hague.

Four More Ohioans Claimed In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four more Ohioans died in the Vietnam War the Defense Department reported Wednesday.

Killed in action were: Army Pfc. Gary G. LaChapelle of Toledo, Army Pfc. Jeffery L. Beard of Fremont and Marine Pfc. John E. Gibson of Cleveland.

Army Spec. 4 Timothy D. Sines of Columbus died in hostile action. He had previously been listed as missing.

Between 1947 and 1964 there were 8,763 Unidentified Flying Objects sighted by the United States Air Force.

Unurh Says LBJ Has Misled People On Progress Of War

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Democratic leader Jesse M. Unruh, the Humphrey campaign's honorary vice chairman in California, said today President Johnson has "consistently and categorically misled the American people about the progress of the war" in Vietnam.

Unruh, who was California presidential campaign chairman for the late New York Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, said "no government can survive if it is built on a pyramid of falsehoods and deception.

"More than signing pieces of legislaton, more than appointment of individuals to high governmental positions, more than anything else—the greatest responsibility of a president is to keep faith with the people," Unruh said.

His remarks were prepared for a rally at Los Angeles State College on the third day of his statewide tour on behalf of Democratic State Assembly candidates.

He said the nation was "told we were winning the war when in fact we were stalemated. We were told the Viet Cong was in desperate straits when in fact the enemy was stronger than ever.

"And we were told the Saigon government had rid itself of corruption when in fact it was as corrupt as it had ever been."

Unruh said there is "little confidence in our government's position" at the Paris peace talks and added that "the first priority item" for a next president "should be a pledge to tell the truth to the American people."

Nowhere in the advance excerpts of his remarks given to newsmen was there a mention of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

After Kennedy's assassination, Unruh backed Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's drive for the Democratic presidential nomination. He switched to Humphrey after the national convention.

Unruh's aim in criticizing Johnson, his aides said, was to convince Californians that the Democratic party in their state doesn't support all of the policies of the national Democratic party.

In that way, they said, he hopes to help Democratic assembly candidates win in a state where recent public opinion polls show Humphrey trailing Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon.

'River Pirate' Blamed After Theft Of Craft

A North Side man complained to police today that a "river pirate" stole his boat from a private dock on the Ohio Tuesday or Wednesday.

Dale D. Keddie of 829 Orchard Grove Ave. told officers the thief took his 15-foot "Sea Ray" craft, which is tan with a white cowl, and is powered by a 65-horsepower outboard motor. The boat disappeared between 5 p.m. Tuesday at 10 p.m. Wednesday, he said.

Another outboard pleasure craft was reported taken over the weekend from a dock near the foot of Broadway, but it was found within a few minutes at the Chester City Park, across the river.

Crucible Sets Action

Problem Of Fly Ash Aired Before Midland Council

A report on steps being taken to correct the nuisance of fly ash in the air was presented Midland Council by George Ford, director of community relations for the Crucible Steel Corp., Midland Division, during a meeting Wednesday night.

Complaints were registered at the meeting last month. Ford said much is being done in both short and long range plans to correct the situation. The fly ash that appeared recently and drew so many complaints was bad because of atmospheric conditions, Ford said.

The air was stagnant and there was no wind for uniform dispersal, but in the future Crucible will check the weather conditions more carefully, he said.

Ford also said a new boiler is being installed that will help correct the condition. It will be placed in operation in November and should eliminate the black smoke more efficiently than the older facilities.

Councliman William Shovlin requested the borough secretary write to the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, asking for repairs to pot holes in the Beaver Creek Bridge before winter.

In the absence of Joseph Hibbard, who was to report on the use of the HiSpot canteen for scouting purposes, Ray Presutti, councilman, said the request still is bieng studied and a report will be presented at the next meeting. Council wants to make use of the rooms to provide recreation for Midland youth all year around.

RICHARD BACH, consulting engineer of the Michael Baker Co., said he has prepared preliminary specifications for a new dog pound to meet state specifications. The approximate cost will be $540 if the borough employees do the labor. The borough was informed by the state recently, if the pound was not updated, the state would not pay a rebate on dogs that are destroyed. This amounts to about $600 a year. Council gave approval to begin the project, which will include cement floors, light, heat and an exercise area.

MAYOR Eli Corak reported on the governor's conference on solid waste he attended at Harrisburg. He said there is still much debate on which system—incinerator or land fill—is best to dispose of garbage and trash. He cited several important projects coming in the near future such as the new elementary school and the work that must be done on the 72 - inch sewer repairs. He said the borough will use county, state and federal help in solving the disposal problem.

Corak again reminded the officials of the Human Relations Workshop and asked they attend.

Bills totaling $9,000 were paid. Council President William Vinovich Sr. was absent. Presutti presided.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate confirmed Wednesday President Johnson's nomination of Lee D. Hartman to serve as postmaster of Troy, Ohio.

HHH Urges McCarthy To Support Him

AssociatedPress Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey has made a new appeal for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's support, warning that otherwise the senator's "impossible dream" might "turn into a quite possible nightmare of George Corley Wallace or Richard Milhous Nixon.

Speaking to a dinner of New York's Liberal party, which is backing him for president, Humphrey said Wednesday night that the president to be chosen in less than four weeks "probably will not be" Wallace, but "could be" Nixon.

Then, using the words that became a keynote of McCarthy's unsuccessful quest for the Democratic presidential nomination, Humphrey said, "I myself have pursued the impossible dreams. I pursued them before and I'm possibly pursuing one again.

"But," he continued in evident reference to his fellow Minnesotan's continued refusal to support him. "I hope that last year's dreamers will take up today's realities, lest their impossible dreams turn into a quite possible nightmare of George Corley Wallace or Richard Milhous Nixon."

Just before the vice president arrived at the Americana, the midtown hotel where he spoke, 21 anti - Humphrey demonstrators ware arrested and five injured, along with five policemen, when officers attempted to disperse a crowd of about 800 protesters.

One mounted patrolman was hospitalized in serious condition with a back injury after he reportedly was pulled from his horse to the pavement. Some demonstrators contended he fell off his horse.

Earlier, talking to reporters after a flight here from Boston, Humphrey said he still hopes McCarthy will support him, but "I'm not prone to meeting conditions." The senator said Tuesday night the Democratic party should take a stand for a coalition government for South Vietnam, for reform of the draft and restructuring of the party.

After a morning of closed meetings today, devoted to efforts to raise additional funds for his financially hard-pressed campaign, Humphrey rides down lower Broadway for a traditional ticker-tape greeting before speaking in the heart of New York's financial district.

115 Attend Meeting Of Personnel Group

Some 115 attended a dinner meeting of the Beaver Valley Personnel Association Wednesday night at the Crucible Steel Co. management club in Industry.

Dean Hayes of Duquesne University spoke on "How to Supervise What You Manage." Dr. Eric Winslow of Case Institute will speak at the next meeting Nov. 13 at the Holiday Inn near the Beaver Valley Exit of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Nixon Claims U.S. Operates Crime School

MOLINE, Ill. (P) —Richard M. Nixon said today the United States is operating "a crime university" graduating more than 200,000 hardened criminals a year.

In a speech prepared for a rally at a municipal field house, the Republican presidential candidate promised, if elected, "new leadership will break the vicious cycle that snares a first offender into a lifetime of crime."

As possible approaches to reversing what he saw as a trend among former prison inmates, Nixon suggested that "job training work-release programs and half-way houses can correct men's lives and prevent future crimes from being committed."

In the Los Angeles area Wednesday, Nixon encountered a few score hecklers among several thousand backers.

The Republican candidate ignored the harassment for the most part. But the din of 20 or so hecklers in a Santa Monica auditorium prompted him to depart from his speech to urge his backers to "sock it to 'em."

Nixon obviously intended that the antiwar, anti-Nixon, demonstrators be outshouted—which they were at each stop. There was no violence other than some tearing down of rival signboards.

Problem Of Fly Ash Aired Before Midland Council

A report on steps being taken to correct the nuisance of fly ash in the air was presented Midland Council by George Ford, director of community relations for the Crucible Steel Corp., Midland Division, during a meeting Wednesday night.

Complaints were registered at the meeting last month. Ford said much is being done in both short and long range plans to correct the situation. The fly ash that appeared recently and drew so many complaints was bad because of atmospheric conditions, Ford said.

The air was stagnant and there was no wind for uniform dispersal, but in the future Crucible will check the weather conditions more carefully, he said.

Ford also said a new boiler is being installed that will help correct the condition. It will be placed in operation in November and should eliminate the black smoke more efficiently than the older facilities.

Her fiance was graduated in 1965 from Oak Glen High School and served two years in the Army. He is an employe of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

The open church wedding will take place Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the Boyce Methodist Church, with the Rev. Paul George officiating.

An open reception will follow at Hall Auditorium. No formal invitations will be issued.

Bonnie Jean Blackmore, Earl William Diddle Wed

Special music highlighted the wedding of Miss Bonnie Jean Blackmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burdell Blackmore of Smiths Ferry, and Earl William Diddle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Diddle of 805 Cadmus St., Sept. 21 at non in the Smiths Ferry United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Marjorie Stover sang "My Own True Love," the theme for the movie "Gone With The Wind." Miss Blackmore was named for "Bonnie Blue," a member of the movie cast.

The Rev. William E. Cromer officiated for the double - ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms, ferns and candelabra. Satin bows marked the family pews. Jeff Capehart played a half-hour of organ music.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of Alencon lace fashined with a detachable Watteau train. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline, outlined with seed pearls and long pointed sleeves. Bouffant tiers of lace formed the skirt.

Her butterfly veil of silk illusion was attached to a petal-bow headpiece. She wore a three - strand crystal necklace, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis. The traditions were observed.

Mrs. Carol Nunemaker of Columbus, matron of honor, wore a full - length gown of Nile green crepe styled with a scoop neckline and short sleeves.

Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Blackmore, niece of the bride, and Miss Janet Rinehart, niece of the bridegroom. They appeared in full - length gowns fashioned with emerald green velvet bodices and Nile green crepe skirts.

Elaine Ann Blackmore and David John Blackmore, niece and nephew of the bride, were flower girl and ringbearer. She wore a maize floor-length gown and carried a basket of rose petals.

The mother of the bride chose a poudre blue lace dress with matching accessories and pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dark blue dress with matching hat and white carnation corsage.

A RECEPTION for 175 followed at the Willows Motel in Industry, where a buffet luncheon was served. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white daisies and gladioli. Green and gold streamers offered a frontal effect.

For her honeymoon trip to Florida, the bride wore a two-tone beige and coffee brown dress and coat ensemble with coffee color accessories and corsage of white roses.

The bride, a graduate of Midland High School and Ohio Valley Business College, is employed as executive secretary at Globe Refractories, Inc. Her husband was graduated from East Liverpool High School and served two years in the Navy. He is an installer with the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

The rehearsal luncheon was held at the home of the bridegroom's brother and sister - in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Diddle of Oakmont.

The bride was feted with prenuptial showers by Mrs. Stover, a co-worker at Globe Refractories, Mrs. Jack Eisenhart, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Gladys Blackmore, sister-in-law of the bride.

A Reminder

In an effort to maintain a standard of fresh news in The Review, a two-week limit is placed on the use of photographs of brides.

Principals in weddings are urged to provide an account of the ceremonies and the photograph no later than 10 days after the event. Notify the wedding photographer of this requirement, along with the need for a black and white photograph for newspaper use.

Caravans Are Planned By County GOP Group

COLUMBIANA — Columbiana County Republicans are planning a candidates' caravan through the western half of the county next Monday.

Leading the all-day journey to 12 communities will be Dr. James Sutherland of Martins Ferry, candidate for 18th District congressman, who spoke at a bonfire rally here Wednesday evening behind Theron's Country Store.

Approximately 100 attended the fair sponsored by the County Young Republicans Club. All the candidates were introduced. Joe Hoffman of Columbiana led group singing. Theron furnished cider and doughnuts.

Ford McQuilkin, county GOP chairman, discussed plans for the "Salute-to-Ike" dinner at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at Beaver Local High School. Rep. John M. Ashbrook of Johnstown (17th District) will be guest speaker.

Fayson Miller of Salem, chairman for the caravan, said the eastern half of the county will be covered the following Monday, Oct. 21. All GOP candidates are invited to join Dr. Sutherland on both trips.

Miller said Monday's tour will begin at Salineville about 9:30 a.m. and end at Salem in the evening. The caravan will visit Summitville, Kensington, Hanoverton, Lynchburg, East Rochester, Bayard, Homeworth, Route 62 and County Rd. 401, just east of Alliance, Westville, North Georgetown and Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cox and daughter Bonnie and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dowdell and family attended the annual antique festival at Millersburg.

Road Matters Aired

Ross Strohm, Industry road foreman, and members of Council discussed problems presented by road employes when the Council road committee met Wednesday night. A report will be presented by the committee at the next meeting of Council Nov. 6.

Recreation Council Active

U.F. Aids Area Playlots

The East Liverpool Recreation Council provides supervised play and recreation for hundreds of children of the area.

Jane DeLong, above was among 25 playlot directors employed the past summer by the non-profit voluntary Council which serves Chester, Newell, Calcutta and East Liverpool.

Facilities and equipment for the 16 playgrounds are provided by various governmental agencies and groups. Average daily attendance is 493 youngsters.

Supervisors plan a wide range of programs, including baseball, softball, basketball, doll shows, pet shows, races, talent contests, hikes, wiener roasts, style shows and the annual Thompson Park swim and picnic.

Regional supervisors of the recreation program plan interplayground competitive games each summer. Winter sports such as ice skating and sled riding have been added to the list of supervised sports the past few years.

Planned recreation means training, development of skills and keeping children of all ages off busy streets and occupied in meaningful activities under the supervision of college students who benefit from the program through their exposure to teaching methods.

Inmate Who Walked Off Detail Captured

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—George Lawson, a Lucas County Jail inmate who walked away Tuesday from a kitchen detail and escaped, was captured Wednesday.

Police found Lawson, who was serving a jail term for assault and battery, hiding is the attic of his Toledo home.

Another Meeting Set On Southern Vacancy

SALINEVILLE — Members of the Southern Local board of education were unable to reach an agreement Wednesday night on an appointment to fill a vacancy on the board.

A special meeting has been called for Tuesday at 8 p.m. in another effort to complete action on the position.

Applications for the post have been received from James Roberts of Salineville, Glenn W. Duck of Wellsville RD 1 and John Ehlenbach of Salineville.

Three members attended last night's meeting.

Dominic Sabatino of Summitville moved that Roberts be appointed. When a second was not forthcoming from John Ewing, one of the three board members present, Philip Maher, president, relinquished his chair temporarily to second the motion. Ewing voted "no," however.

Ewing then nominated Duck, pointing out that he had run for the board in the last election and resides in the same area as Charles Allison, who resigned earlier after moving out of the school district.

There was no second to Ewing's motion.

Fred Johnson, another board member who was unable to be present last night, is expected to attend next Tuesday's meeting, raising hopes that the three needed votes will be received for an appointment.

If a decision is not reached soon, the county board can, by state law, fill the vacancy.

In other business, Rebecca Sue Hall of East Liverpool RD was hired as sixth-grade teacher at Wayne Elementary and Mrs. Margaret Dunlap of Wellsville RD 1 as a part-time helper at the No. 16 cafeteria. Daniel Barth of Salineville was hired as a substitute bus driver.

The board approved payment to Debbie Corsello, who has assisted in the cafeteria at No. 16 School. She had served on a volunteer basis before leaving for college.

Supt. Leek reported that the roof over the side entrance to the Franklin Elementary building had been sagging from the weight of the fire escape and is being repaired.

The policy for non - certified personnel was approved by the board. Also approved was the purchase of a calculator for the clerk.

Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect, will be asked to meet with the board at the special session to go over plans for additional rooms to the high school.

Other business scheduled at the special meeting in addition to the bond issue and the board member appointment will be hiring of a custodian at Wayne School, the request of the bus drivers for a meeting with the Board Transportation Committee and the reclassification of two cooks' helpers to that of cooks.

Tuberculin Test Given At Lisbon

LISBON — The Columbiana County Tuberculosis Clinic gave Heaf tuberculin tests last week to 644 pupils in Grades 1, 3, 5, 8, 10 and 12 of the local schools.

Marian Tucker and Betty Wenderoth, clinic nurses, were in charge, assisted by volunteer helpers and Virginia Kessler, school nurse.

A first-grade girl was the only reactor when nurses read the tests Friday. They emphasized a reaction means that the person has the TB germ, but does not mean he or she has active tuberculosis.

The child will be placed on medication and her family and neighborhood contacts investigated for the source of infection.

Nurses learned the child was a playmate of a girl, now a second-grader, who showed a positive reaction in last year's screening program. They said it is likely both youngsters were infected by a common adult source.

The TB clinic gives the tuberculin skin tests in all the school systems.

Shooting Deaths Seen Murder And Suicide

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police said the shooting deaths Wednesday of a man and a woman outside a North Side apartment house were apparently murder and suicide.

Shirley Ann Welch, 22, ran from the apartment house and was shot on the lawn, officers said, and James K. Colbourn, 29, then stood over the body and shot himslf in the head.

Hospital Discharges Transplant Patient

"They've given me a new life here and I'm going to make the most of it," said the 46-year-old former boxing promoter.

Anolik, Pennsylvania's first heart transplant patient was discharged Wednesday, 39 days after receiving the heart of an auto crash victim.

Caravans Are Planned By County GOP Group

COLUMBIANA — Columbiana County Republicans are planning a candidates' caravan through the western half of the county next Monday.

Leading the all-day journey to 12 communities will be Dr. James Sutherland of Martins Ferry, candidate for 18th District congressman, who spoke at a bonfire rally here Wednesday evening behind Theron's Country Store.

Approximately 100 attended the fair sponsored by the County Young Republicans Club. All the candidates were introduced. Joe Hoffman of Columbiana led group singing. Theron furnished cider and doughnuts.

Ford McQuilkin, county GOP chairman, discussed plans for the "Salute-to-Ike" dinner at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at Beaver Local High School. Rep. John M. Ashbrook of Johnstown (17th District) will be guest speaker.

Fayson Miller of Salem, chairman for the caravan, said the eastern half of the county will be covered the following Monday, Oct. 21. All GOP candidates are invited to join Dr. Sutherland on both trips.

Miller said Monday's tour will begin at Salineville about 9:30 a.m. and end at Salem in the evening. The caravan will visit Summitville, Kensington, Hanoverton, Lynchburg, East Rochester, Bayard, Homeworth, Route 62 and County Rd. 401, just east of Alliance, Westville, North Georgetown and Damascus.

If Election Goes To House

Plan To Freeze Wallace Out 'Dead,' Udall Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — A plan to freeze out George C. Wallace if the presidential election goes to the House of Representatives is dead, one of its prime backers says.

Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., says top advisors to Hubert H. Humphrey and Richard M. Nixon shied away from seeking pledges by House candidates to support the presidential candidate with the highest popular vote, no matter what party.

"The big Nixon lead in the polls makes this sort of academic now anyway," Udall said in an interview.

He and then-Rep. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., proposed the pledge plan two months ago.

The timing coincided with the emergence of Wallace's third party movement as a major force which might prevent any candidate from getting the required majority of Electoral College votes.

In such a situation the House chooses the president with each state delegation casting one vote.

There are no guidelines as to how House members should vote in their state caucus, Udall said, and nothing to prevent them from voting for a candidate even though he might have gotten fewer popular votes than any other nominee.

Udall said 100 of the estimated 800 candidates for House seats have promised to support the presidential candidate pulling the most popular votes.

"It's been the old problem of trying to repair the roof when the sun's shining," Udall commented about the failure to convince more people to make the pledge.

He said House leaders of both parties opposed the plan. But even more telling, Udall said, was the hemming and hawing by advisors to Humphrey and Nixon.

"The Nixon people say, for instance, there are 18 delegations where a switch of seats could change the state's vote in any House vote for a President. With a Nixon landslide they expect to win those seats so they say why bother about a pledge plan," Udall said.

Humphrey's advisors also know Democrats may still control the House so they shy away from any commitment which might tie their hands in putting their candidate in the White House, he said.

Don Roberts Gives Talk At PTA Event

Donald Roberts of the County Mental Health Clinic in Lisbon was a guest speaker at the meeting of the Westgate Parent - Teacher Association Tuesday night in the school cafeteria. He was introduced by Mrs. Linda Johnson.

Thomas Dixon, principal, announced that additional mothers are needed to assist the lower grades in the cafeteria.

The association decided not to present an attendance award, but to use the money instead in projects that will benefit all rooms.

Knute Weigand, playground representative, reported on summer activities, including equipment that was purchased.

Mrs. Ann Riedel distributed leaflets relative to the home study course now being presented.

Mrs. Vera Smith presided. Lunch was served by the first- and second-grade mothers.

Chamber Selects New Secretary At Midland Meeting

Wain's term will begin in January. He is a retired foreman at the Crucible Steel Co. Midland Division, executive secretary of the United Fund board and a member of the Midland Lions Club.

Ed Bishoff, retail division chairman, reported on a "Harvest Day Sale" to be held Oct. 21-23. Cider and doughnuts will be served by merchants taking part.

Sid Reizner and Earl Rankin were appointed a nominating committee to present a slate of 12 directors in December. Six will be elected.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas parade. Anthony Martell, vice president, was in charge. The next meeting will be Nov. 6.

Mt. Nebo Granges In Joint Meeting

Participating were Mrs. Ella Sebrell, Mrs. Charles Sebrell and Mrs. Maude Driscoll, who read papers on "Coffee," "Vegetables" and "Poisons," respectively. The program also included group singing, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Driscoll, a stunt, ribbon hunt and a word game.

Carl Bailey, master, conducted the business meeting. Five applications for members were referred to the investigating committee. Lunch was served 31.

As Saxbe, Gilligan Keep Plugging

Nixon Is 'Tops' Today On Ohio Political Scene

By The Associated Press

But the state's candidates, such as U.S. Senate aspirants William B. Saxbe and John J. Gilligan, keep plugging away.

Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, will speak at a rally tonight at the University of Akron. Earlier, he plans a meeting in Akron with former Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton for a report on Scranton's fact-finding tour of Europe.

Saxbe, the GOP's Senate candidate, spoke Wednesday night in Columbus at the Franklin County Republican's campaign kickoff dinner.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, in introducing his attorney general, said, "If I had to appoint a man to the U.S. Senate tonight—one who understands the problems and has the ability for getting the job done for all the people, it would be Bill Saxbe."

Saxbe told the 2,300 persons at the dinner, "We need your help to tell the people they have an opportunity to vote for a change."

Another speaker, U.S. Rep. Chalmers P. Wylie of Columbus, said the chance for a GOP victory is threatened less by Humphrey and George C. Wallace "than it is by ourselves . . . overconfident and complacent Republicans."

Saxbe's schedule today called for visits to Lima and Toledo.

Gilligan, in a speech in Cleveland Wednesday, said, "The federal government has the means to channel more money into education — without increasing taxes."

He said the government owns land rich with oil shale that could be leased to oil companies for development.

Gilligan also said problems usually associated with cities, such as poor transportation and rising crime rates, are growing in the suburbs."

He predicted the deterioration of the suburbs if "we devote all our efforts to the cities without meeting the growing needs of our total metropolitan areas."

Gilligan campaigns today in Columbus and Cleveland.

State Democratic Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady said Wednesday night at a fund-raising dinner in Urbana sponsored by Champaign County Democrats that Nixon "is not the kind of man Americans want to lead them forward."

He said Nixon is trying to create a new image with "phony Madison Avenue public relations."

Humphrey's son Robert said at a news conference in Warren Wednesday night that his father has always "had his own ideas on Vietnam and is now in a position to speak out."

"I know he feels strongly about a systematic and calculated phasing out of the U.S. involvement in Vietnam," he added.

Stokes Sets Up $17 Million Law Enforcement Program

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Mayor Carl B. Stokes, troubled by racial unrest in Cleveland, announced Wednesday a $17 million program to improve law enforcement.

The Negro mayor also relieved Police Chief Michael J. Blackwell, 68, and gave the $22,125-a-year post to Deputy Inspector Patrick L. Gerity, 49.

Blackwell, who was appointed police chief when Stokes took office last November, turned down an offer to become a consultant to the police department and said he would rather go back to being an inspector.

Stokes told a news conference he would ask City Council for funds to overhaul the police communications system and to establish a modern command center to coordinate police response to crime calls.

He said he would fully detail the program later but the immediate aim was to correct the "internal breakdown of police morale and discipline."

Relations between members of the 2,200-man police department and City Hall became strained after the July 23 sniper incident when 10 persons, including three white policemen, were killed after a group of black nationalists opened fire on police.

Stokes withdrew white police and National Guardsmen from the Glenville area the night after the shootings. Black community leaders and Negro policemen patrolled the streets.

Although Stokes' decision was later praised by some persons as having prevented more bloodshed, the Fraternal Order of Police strongly criticized the mayor's actions.

The order demanded the resignation of Safety Director Joseph F. McManamon. A resolution calling for Blackwell's resignation was dropped in view of the police chief's age.

There were reports that patrolmen were broadcasting derogatory remarks about Stokes over the police radio and refusing to answer calls to Negro areas.

Auction Record Set For Painting

NEW YORK (AP) — It took only five minutes of bidding at the Parke-Bernet Galleries Wednesday night to set a world auction record of $1,550,000 for an Impressionist painting.

That price was paid by the Norton Simon Foundation of Fullerton, Calif., for "Le Pont des Arts, Paris," an early work of Pierre Auguste Renoir, painted about 100 years ago.

Simon, a Los Angeles industrialist, was not present. The bidding was done in his behalf by Stephen Hahn, a New York dealer, started at $250,000. Nearly all succeeding bids were in jumps of $50,000.

The previous auction record for an Impressionist work was $1,411,200 paid by the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, at Christie's in London last December for Claude Monet's "La Terrasse a Sainte Adresse."

Clock On Courthouse Slated For Auction

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The courthouse clock goes on the auction block Saturday in what county commissioners are billing as one of the biggest auctions in Richland County history.

The clock, from the tower atop the old four - story courthouse, and courtroom furniture are among the items to be auctioned off to help raise money for demolition costs. The courthouse property will become a parking plaza.

Equipment from the old county children's home will also be sold. Both buildings have been replaced by new buildings this year.

5-Man Police Force Back After Pay Raise

CAREY, Ohio (AP) — This five-man police force was back on duty Wednesday night following a decision by City Council to grant a pay raise effective Nov. 2.

The policemen had called in sick Tuesday morning and Wednesday morning.

Humphrey's Worth Placed At $281,423

Humphrey's total assets are $377,867, his office said Wednesday in disclosing his financial standing at his request. But his liabilities total $96,444.

The liabilities include $83,714 in mortgages, a $6,589 bank loan and $6,141 in miscellaneous debits, the financial statement said.

It listed assets of $166,246 in a trust fund established when he became vice president, an $88,360 home in Washington and a $45,780 home in Waverly, Minn.

The statement said Humphrey also has paid $32,622 into the U.S. Civil Service Retirement Fund; has $18,548 in cash; owns cars and boats worth $4,625 and household goods and personal effects worth $19,750 and has life insurance with a cash surrender value of $1,936.

Installation Held At Grange Event

LISBON — Officers were installed for both the subordinate and Junior groups during the week's coverdish meeting of the Lisbon Grange.

There were 58 members and children present.

The tables were decorated with fall fruits and the new silverware recently purchased by the Women's Activity Committee was used.

The arrangement and decorations were prepared by Mrs. James Bowles, Mrs. John Snyder and Mrs. Roy Tolley.

The installation ceremony was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crosser, assisted by Blaine Crosser and Larry Bates.

It was decided to hold the annual Halloween party for Grangers and guests on Oct. 26 at 7:30 at the grange hall. Jim Lawrence, Jim Bowles and Bob Bailey Sr. were appointed in charge of arrangements for the masquerade. Refreshments will be served.

Local Man Asks For Probation In Car Theft Case

LISBON — Thomas Hampson, 21, of Lincoln Ave., East Liverpool, pleaded guilty to a charge of auto theft Tuesday in Common Pleas Court and asked Judge Raymond S. Buzzard for probation.

The judge directed Probation Officer Richard Rose to conduct an investigation and report.

Hampson had pleaded not guilty Sept. 30 at arraignment and was scheduled for trial next Monday. He was accused of the June 30 theft of a 1964 sedan owned by William R. Moore of 728 Green St., East Liverpool.

The conestoga wagon is well known but some others that closely resembled it are the "Chattanooga," "Carson" and the "Studebaker" wagons.

If Election Goes To House

Plan To Freeze Wallace Out 'Dead,' Udall Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — A plan to freeze out George C. Wallace if the presidential election goes to the House of Representatives is dead, one of its prime backers says.

Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., says top advisors to Hubert H. Humphrey and Richard M. Nixon shied away from seeking pledges by House candidates to support the presidential candidate with the highest popular vote, no matter what party.

"The big Nixon lead in the polls makes this sort of academic now anyway," Udall said in an interview.

He and then-Rep. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., proposed the pledge plan two months ago.

The timing coincided with the emergence of Wallace's third party movement as a major force which might prevent any candidate from getting the required majority of Electoral College votes.

In such a situation the House chooses the president with each state delegation casting one vote.

There are no guidelines as to how House members should vote in their state caucus, Udall said, and nothing to prevent them from voting for a candidate even though he might have gotten fewer popular votes than any other nominee.

Udall said 100 of the estimated 800 candidates for House seats have promised to support the presidential candidate pulling the most popular votes.

"It's been the old problem of trying to repair the roof when the sun's shining," Udall commented about the failure to convince more people to make the pledge.

He said House leaders of both parties opposed the plan. But even more telling, Udall said, was the hemming and hawing by advisors to Humphrey and Nixon.

"The Nixon people say, for instance, there are 18 delegations where a switch of seats could change the state's vote in any House vote for a President. With a Nixon landslide they expect to win those seats so they say why bother about a pledge plan," Udall said.

Humphrey's advisors also know Democrats may still control the House so they shy away from any commitment which might tie their hands in putting their candidate in the White House, he said.

Heart Attack Fatal

CHICAGO (AP) — Edgar Clayton Corry, 56, executive vice president for operations of North American Car Corp., died Wednesday of a heart attack. Corry was national commander of AMVETS in 1947 and 1948.

Don Roberts Gives Talk At PTA Event

Donald Roberts of the County Mental Health Clinic in Lisbon was a guest speaker at the meeting of the Westgate Parent - Teacher Association Tuesday night in the school cafeteria. He was introduced by Mrs. Linda Johnson.

Thomas Dixon, principal, announced that additional mothers are needed to assist the lower grades in the cafeteria.

The association decided not to present an attendance award, but to use the money instead in projects that will benefit all rooms.

Knute Weigand, playground representative, reported on summer activities, including equipment that was purchased.

Mrs. Ann Riedel distributed leaflets relative to the home study course now being presented.

Mrs. Vera Smith presided. Lunch was served by the first- and second-grade mothers.

Chamber Selects New Secretary At Midland Meeting

Wain's term will begin in January. He is a retired foreman at the Crucible Steel Co. Midland Division, executive secretary of the United Fund board and a member of the Midland Lions Club.

Ed Bishoff, retail division chairman, reported on a "Harvest Day Sale" to be held Oct. 21-23. Cider and doughnuts will be served by merchants taking part.

Sid Reizner and Earl Rankin were appointed a nominating committee to present a slate of 12 directors in December. Six will be elected.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas parade. Anthony Martell, vice president, was in charge. The next meeting will be Nov. 6.

Mt. Nebo Granges In Joint Meeting

Participating were Mrs. Ella Sebrell, Mrs. Charles Sebrell and Mrs. Maude Driscoll, who read papers on "Coffee," "Vegetables" and "Poisons," respectively. The program also included group singing, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Driscoll, a stunt, ribbon hunt and a word game.

Carl Bailey, master, conducted the business meeting. Five applications for members were referred to the investigating committee. Lunch was served 31.

As Saxbe, Gilligan Keep Plugging

Nixon Is 'Tops' Today On Ohio Political Scene

By The Associated Press

But the state's candidates, such as U.S. Senate aspirants William B. Saxbe and John J. Gilligan, keep plugging away.

Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, will speak at a rally tonight at the University of Akron. Earlier, he plans a meeting in Akron with former Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton for a report on Scranton's fact-finding tour of Europe.

Saxbe, the GOP's Senate candidate, spoke Wednesday night in Columbus at the Franklin County Republican's campaign kickoff dinner.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, in introducing his attorney general, said, "If I had to appoint a man to the U.S. Senate tonight—one who understands the problems and has the ability for getting the job done for all the people, it would be Bill Saxbe."

Saxbe told the 2,800 persons at the dinner, "We need your help to tell the people they have an opportunity to vote for a change."

Another speaker, U.S. Rep. Chalmers P. Wylie of Columbus, said the chance for a GOP victory is threatened less by Humphrey and George C. Wallace "than it is by ourselves . . . overconfident and complacent Republicans."

Saxbe's schedule today called for visits to Lima and Toledo.

Gilligan, in a speech in Cleveland Wednesday, said, "The federal government has the means to channel more money into education — without increasing taxes."

He said the government owns land rich with oil shale that could be leased to oil companies for development.

Gilligan also said problems usually associated with cities, such as poor transportation and rising crime rates, are growing in the suburbs."

He predicted the deterioration of the suburbs if "we devote all our efforts to the cities without meeting the growing needs of our total metropolitan areas."

Gilligan campaigns today in Columbus and Cleveland.

State Democratic Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady said Wednesday night at a fund-raising dinner in Urbana sponsored by Champaign County Democrats that Nixon "is not the kind of man Americans want to lead them forward."

He said Nixon is trying to create a new image with "phony Madison Avenue public relations."

Humphrey's son Robert said at a news conference in Warren Wednesday night that his father has always "had his own ideas on Vietnam and is now in a position to speak out."

"I know he feels strongly about a systematic and calculated phasing out of the U.S. involvement in Vietnam," he added.

Stokes Sets Up $17 Million Law Enforcement Program

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Mayor Carl B. Stokes, troubled by racial unrest in Cleveland, announced Wednesday a $17 million program to improve law enforcement.

The Negro mayor also relieved Police Chief Michael J. Blackwell, 68, and gave the $22,125-a-year post to Deputy Inspector Patrick L. Gerity, 49.

Blackwell, who was appointed police chief when Stokes took office last November, turned down an offer to become a consultant to the police department and said he would rather go back to being an inspector.

Stokes told a news conference he would ask City Council for funds to overhaul the police communications system and to establish a modern command center to coordinate police response to crime calls.

He said he would fully detail the program later but the immediate aim was to correct the "internal breakdown of police morale and discipline."

Relations between members of the 2,200-man police department and City Hall became strained after the July 23 sniper incident when 10 persons, including three white policemen, were killed after a group of black nationalists opened fire on police.

Stokes withdrew white police and National Guardsmen from the Glenville area the night after the shootings. Black community leaders and Negro policemen patrolled the streets.

Although Stokes' decision was later praised by some persons as having prevented more bloodshed, the Fraternal Order of Police strongly criticized the mayor's actions.

The order demanded the resignation of Safety Director Joseph F. McManamon. A resolution calling for Blackwell's resignation was dropped in view of the police chief's age.

There were reports that patrolmen were broadcasting derogatory remarks about Stokes over the police radio and refusing to answer calls to Negro areas.

Auction Record Set For Painting

NEW YORK (AP) — It took only five minutes of bidding at the Parke-Bernet Galleries Wednesday night to set a world auction record of $1,550,000 for an Impressionist painting.

That price was paid by the Norton Simon Foundation of Fullerton, Calif., for "Le Pont des Arts, Paris," an early work of Pierre Auguste Renoir, painted about 100 years ago.

Simon, a Los Angeles industrialist, was not present. The bidding was done in his behalf by Stephen Hahn, a New York dealer, started at $250,000. Nearly all succeeding bids were in jumps of $50,000.

The previous auction record for an Impressionist work was $1,411,200 paid by the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, at Christie's in London last December for Claude Monet's "La Terrasse a Sainte Adresse."

On Human Relations

Large Crowd Anticipated For Midland's Workshop

More than 150 are expected to attend the Mayor's Human Relations Workshop — the first ever held in Beaver County Saturday at Midland Lincoln High School. The theme is "Do You Care."

The workshop is being sponsored by the Human Relations Commission of the borough, headed by Charles R. Schmitt.

Mayor Eli G. Corak will give the welcome address at 8:30 a.m. and the program will continue through the day to 3:45 p. m.

Rep. K. Leroy Irvis, state minority whip, will be the keynote speaker.

THE EVENT will open with registration from 8:30 to 9 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served by the Busi-C's Business Club, sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Shovlin III.

The opening exercises will follow in the auditorium, where the American Legion Posts 481 and 533 of Midland will present the colors. The national anthem will be played by the Lincoln High School band under the direction of Edward Schor, director. The Explorer Scouts of Midland will lead the flag salute. The Rev. Stephen S. Burdis, pastor of Presentation Catholic Church, will give the invocation.

Schmitt will introduce Rep. Irvis.

From 10:15 to 11:15, discussion groups will meet in separate workshops. Irvis will participate in a question and answer period in the auditorium until 12:15 p.m.. Lunch will follow in the high school forum.

From 1:30 to 2:50, additional discussion groups will be held. Each group will select a discussion leader.

THE SUMMATION will follow at 3 p.m. in the auditorium, when the discussion leaders will present reports of each workshop. Panel members will be on stage to answer questions.

The Rev. J. C. Singleton of the First Baptist Church of Midland will give the benediction at 3:45 p. m.

Various members of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission will aid in conducting the workshops.

Education — Eugene V. Nelson and Miss Dolores Rozzi. Moderators — Dr. Charles P. Henderson, superintendent of Midland Public Schools, and Sister Georgia Mangold, principal of Presentation Catholic School.

Employment — Phil Davidson; Cortez Puryear, a control compliance officer for the U.S. Department of Defense, and John Lester, minority group representative of the Pennsylvania Department of Employment Security. Moderators — Paul McGovern and Rev. Singleton.

Housing — Stuart Shannonhouse, housing specialist, and Miss Dorothy Graves, Operation Equality — Urban League of Pittsburgh. Moderators—Will T. Leavell and Mrs. Ruby Golding.

Youth — Miss Judith Faire and Pennsylvania State Police Trooper Antonio J. Taglienti. Moderators — Mrs. John Nunn and Mrs. James Green.

MRS. FLORENCE Reizenstein of the state commission will be on the afternoon panel. Other panelists are Mayor Corak, William Vinovich Sr., council president, Maurice Newman, school board president, Dr. Henderson, Leavell, Nelson, James Perkins, Joseph Scalise, vice president of employee relations at Crucible Steel Corp., Midland Division, and Rev. Singleton.

Miss Rozzi will be a consultant for the workshop.

Dr. Henderson said tables and chairs will be provided for 300 people. Members of the Busi-C's will take notes for presentation to the Midland Commission. Members of the Student Council sponsored by Raymond Stowitzky will participate in the workshop and distribute programs. Resource personnel from the school will include Joel Carr, high school principal; Ronald Alberta, elementary principal; Stowitzky, guidance counselor, and Victor Martinetti, elementary guidance.

GABE REIGHARD, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reighard of Midland, won the poster contest sponsored by the workshop. His and other posters drawn by students of Lawrence Novak, art teacher, have been placed in Midland business places.

'Relations Day' Set By Mayor Eli Corak

Mayor Eli G. Corak today issued a proclamation declaring Saturday as "Human Relations Day" in Midland in conjunction with the human relations workshop to be held at Lincoln High School auditorium.

Citing the need for better understanding in this field, the mayor urged he attendance of all interested citizens, community leaders, businessmen and service club members.

"Each of us should make an effort to better understand the problems of our neighbors, friends and fellow citizens. Through this individual effort, we can build a stronger, more suitable community in which to live and raise our families," the mayor said.

"It is the duty of all of us to serve the community and we can do this by caring about our relationship with all who have selected Midland as a place to live," he stated.

LeMay

to use nuclear weapons. Where it is I don't knew."

In the same interview he asked what he thought the risks of a full blown military effort in Vietnam.

He answered:

"I think there's a risk. There's a risk in everything. We live in a risky world . . . There is some risk to living. Presumably we looked at the risks when we went in there. So there is some risk—that Red China might come in, maybe the Russians even might come in. Well, we'd just take a look at it. How much risk is there? China? They've got plenty of problems of their own over there right now. They haven't got any weapons capabilities to do us any damage anyway, at least not now. Later on maybe yes. But not now they haven't. So unless we put a big army on the mainland so they could get at it, they can't hurt us. I think we're foolish to put a big army there. Every soldier has recommended against that as long as I can remember."

Meanwhile, Wallace unleashed his oratorical vengeance Wednesday on the national polls.

"I have no inside knowledge of what the next national poll is going to show," Wallace said in an interview.

"But if the next one doesn't show me going down, then the following one will, and if that one doesn't then the one after that. You can count on it. I told you in September it was going to happen, and I think it's about to happen now."

Wallace said he is convinced the polls are "owned by the big money interests who want Nixon to win," and that they will try to start a home-stretch bandwagon rolling for the front runner.

As Wallace told a crowd of 4,000-5,000, mostly college students, in Albany, N.Y., Wednesday:

"These polling outfits in my judgment, ought to have a good congressional investigation involving them because they're trying to control an election by telling you who's going to win. And they don't know as much about whose going to win as you people assembled out here today."

Earlier, in Scranton, Pa., he told 5,000 at a mid-morning rally in the courthouse square:

"They (the polling organizations) had better remember the Literary Digest. The biggest poll is going to be in November."

The Literary Digest was a magazine that went out of business after its poll predicted Alfred M. Landon would win over Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1936.

Coup

A highly reliable government informant who reported a thwarted coup attempt said again, "There have been arrests."

The source, who is in a position to know, said more arrests, both civilian and military, could be expected in the next two days. "The police are still investigating and interrogating," he said.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said, "We still have nothing on why they called the alert, other than that it was a normal precautionary alert."

Vietnamese government spokesmen attributed the alert to a move to counter possible action by "trouble-makers," but they would not identify the "trouble-makers."

The official Vietnam Press reported today that "several defensive measures were built up by security agencies in the Saigon capital and its vicinity Tuesday night.

"Authoritative circles revealed that as the security agencies had discovered several signs concerning the security situation, special defense measures were applied to check in time any events which may be harmful to the living of the Saigon residents."

Normally, in such an announcement, Vietnam Press would identify the precautions as being against the Viet Cong, if that were the case. But the cryptic announcement appeared to back up the coup attempt reports.

South Vietnamese marine spokesmen denied reports that several marine officers had been arrested in connection with a coup attempt. Informed sources within the marines also said there was no information to back up the report. The marine commandant, Lt. Gen. Le Nguyen Khang, was reported working in his headquarters in Saigon.

It was learned that President Thieu earlier this week had sent messages to all military commanders warning them that there might be an atempted coup. The messages ordered the military commanders to break up any "gatherings" by all means necessary.

It was still not clear how extensive the reported coup attempt was or who might have been involved.

The government also announced that the Saigon Post, which had carried a story Wednesday about the military alert and said it was to cope with a possible rebellion, has been "temporarily suspended."

A press office spokesman said the newspaper was suspended for "violating press regulations." He would not be more specific.

ent divisions. The movement involves three brigades of about 5,000 men each.

The latest shift sent the 3rd Brigade of the 101st Airborne Division from the outer ring of defense northwest of Saigon to the Hue area far to the north to join the division's two other brigades.

Earlier, it had been disclosed that the 3rd Brigade of the 82nd Airborne Division had been moved from the Hue area to the capital military district to protect Saigon's western flank against enemy attack. This brigade replaced a brigade of the 25th Infantry Division which in turn took up the positions left vacant by the 101st Airborne's brigade northwest of Saigon.

Elsewhere, South Vietnamese infantrymen killed 44 enemy troops late Wednesday in heavy fighting in the Mekong Delta 54 miles southwest of Saigon. U.S. Army helicopter gunships supporting the South Vietnamese accidentally fired into the allied troops, killing four and wounding six.

U.S. headquarters also reported that American Marines killed 54 enemy troops in fighting Tuesday and Wednesday around the Thungon Duc Special Forces camp, 30 miles southwest of Da Nang. Marine casualties were put at one dead and 13 wounded.

In air raids against North Vietnam, B52s struck today at enemy storage and troop positions on the southern fringes, 8 and 12 miles west and northwest of the allied frontier outpost at Con Thien below the demilitarized zone.

U.S. fighter-bombers flew 115 missions over North Vietnam Wednesday and one Navy A7 Corsair had to dodge an antiaircraft missile, a U.S. spokesman said.

On Human Relations

Large Crowd Anticipated For Midland's Workshop

More than 150 are expected to attend the Mayor's Human Relations Workshop — the first ever held in Beaver County Saturday at Midland Lincoln High School. The theme is "Do You Care."

The workshop is being sponsored by the Human Relations Commission of the borough, headed by Charles R. Schmitt.

Mayor Eli G. Corak will give the welcome address at 8:30 a.m. and the program will continue through the day to 3:45 p. m.

Rep. K. Leroy Irvis, state minority whip, will be the keynote speaker.

THE EVENT will open with registration from 8:30 to 9 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served by the Busi-C's Business Club, sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Shovlin III.

The opening exercises will follow in the auditorium, where the American Legion Posts 481 and 533 of Midland will present the colors. The national anthem will be played by the Lincoln High School band under the direction of Edward Schor, director. The Explorer Scouts of Midland will lead the flag salute. The Rev. Stephen S. Burdis, pastor of Presentation Catholic Church, will give the invocation.

Schmitt will introduce Rep. Irvis.

From 10:15 to 11:15, discussion groups will meet in separate workshops. Irvis will participate in a question and answer period in the auditorium until 12:15 p.m.. Lunch will follow in the high school forum.

From 1:30 to 2:50, additional discussion groups will be held. Each group will select a discussion leader.

THE SUMMATION will follow at 3 p.m. in the auditorium, when the discussion leaders will present reports of each workshop. Panel members will be on stage to answer questions.

The Rev. J. C. Singleton of the First Baptist Church of Midland will give the benediction at 3:45 p. m.

Various members of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission will aid in conducting the workshops.

Employment — Phil Davidson; Cortez Puryear, a control compliance officer for the U.S. Department of Defense, and John Lester, minority group representative of the Pennsylvania Department of Employment Security. Moderators — Paul McGovern and Rev. Singleton.

Housing — Stuart Shannonhouse, housing specialist, and Miss Dorothy Graves, Operation Equality — Urban League of Pittsburgh. Moderators—Will T. Leavell and Mrs. Ruby Golding.

Youth — Miss Judith Faire and Pennsylvania State Police Trooper Antonio J. Taglienti. Moderators — Mrs. John Nunn and Mrs. James Green.

MRS. FLORENCE Reizenstein of the state commission will be on the afternoon panel. Other panelists are Mayor Corak, William Vinovich Sr., council president, Maurice Newman, school board president, Dr. Henderson, Leavell, Nelson, James Perkins, Joseph Scalise, vice president of employee relations at Crucible Steel Corp., Midland Division, and Rev. Singleton.

Miss Rozzi will be a consultant for the workshop.

Dr. Henderson said tables and chairs will be provided for 300 people. Members of the Busi-C's will take notes for presentation to the Midland Commission. Members of the Student Council sponsored by Raymond Stowitzky will participate in the workshop and distribute programs. Resource personnel from the school will include Joel Carr, high school principal; Ronald Alberta, elementary principal; Stowitzky, guidance counselor, and Victor Martinetti, elementary guidance.

GABE REIGHARD, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reighard of Midland, won the poster contest sponsored by the workshop. His and other posters drawn by students of Lawrence Novak, art teacher, have been placed in Midland business places.

'Relations Day' Set By Mayor Eli Corak

Mayor Eli G. Corak today issued a proclamation declaring Saturday as "Human Relations Day" in Midland in conjunction with the human relations workshop to be held at Lincoln High School auditorium.

Citing the need for better understanding in this field, the mayor urged he attendance of all interested citizens, community leaders, businessmen and service club members.

"Each of us should make an effort to better understand the problems of our neighbors, friends and fellow citizens. Through this individual effort, we can build a stronger, more suitable community in which to live and raise our families," the mayor said.

"It is the duty of all of us to serve the community and we can do this by caring about our relationship with all who have selected Midland as a place to live," he stated.

to use nuclear weapons. Where it is I don't know."

In the same interview he asked what he thought the risks of a full blown military effort in Vietnam.

He answered:

"I think there's a risk. There's a risk in everything. We live in a risky world . . . There is some risk to living. Presumably we looked at the risks when we went in there. So there is some risk—that Red China might come in, maybe the Russians even might come in. Well, we'd just take a look at it. How much risk is there? China? They've got plenty of problems of their own over there right now. They haven't got any weapons capabilities to do us any damage anyway, at least not now. Later on maybe yes. But not now they haven't. So unless we put a big army on the mainland so they could get at it, they can't hurt us. I think we're foolish to put a big army there. Every soldier has recommended against that as long as I can remember."

Meanwhile, Wallace unleashed his oratorical vengeance Wednesday on the national polls.

"I have no inside knowledge of what the next national poll is going to show," Wallace said in an interview.

"But if the next one doesn't show me going down, then the following one will, and if that one doesn't then the one after that. You can count on it. I told you in September it was going to happen, and I think it's about to happen now."

Wallace said he is convinced the polls are "owned by the big money interests who want Nixon to win," and that they will try to start a home-stretch bandwagon rolling for the front runner.

As Wallace told a crowd of 4,000-5,000, mostly college students, in Albany, N.Y., Wednesday:

"These polling outfits in my judgment, ought to have a good congressional investigation involving them because they're trying to control an election by telling you who's going to win. And they don't know as much about whose going to win as you people assembled out here today."

Earlier, in Scranton, Pa., he told 5,000 at a mid-morning rally in the courthouse square:

"They (the polling organizations) had better remember the Literary Digest. The biggest poll is going to be in November."

The Literary Digest was a magazine that went out of business after its poll predicted Alfred M. Landon would win over Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1936.

Coup

A highly reliable government informant who reported a thwarted coup attempt said again, "There have been arrests."

The source, who is in a position to know, said more arrests, both civilian and military, could be expected in the next two days. "The police are still investigating and interrogating," he said.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said, "We still have nothing on why they called the alert, other than that it was a normal precautionary alert."

Vietnamese government spokesmen attributed the alert to a move to counter possible action by "trouble-makers," but they would not identify the "trouble-makers."

The official Vietnam Press reported today that "several defensive measures were built up by security agencies in the Saigon capital and its vicinity Tuesday night.

"Authoritative circles revealed that as the security agencies had discovered several signs concerning the security situation, special defense measures were applied to check in time any events which may be harmful to the living of the Saigon residents."

Normally, in such an announcement, Vietnam Press would identify the precautions as being against the Viet Cong, if that were the case. But the cryptic announcement appeared to back up the coup attempt reports.

South Vietnamese marine spokesmen denied reports that several marine officers had been arrested in connection with a coup attempt. Informed sources within the marines also said there was no information to back up the report. The marine commandant, Lt. Gen. Le Nguyen Khang, was reported working in his headquarters in Saigon.

It was learned that President Thieu earlier this week had sent messages to all military commanders warning them that there might be an atempted coup. The messages ordered the military commanders to break up any "gatherings" by all means necessary.

It was still not clear how extensive the reported coup attempt was or who might have been involved.

The government also announced that the Saigon Post, which had carried a story Wednesday about the military alert and said it was to cope with a possible rebellion, has been "temporarily suspended."

A press office spokesman said the newspaper was suspended for "violating press regulations." He would not be more specific.

Girl Ponders 'Yes' Reply

ANN LANDERS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 20 years old, in my second year at college, and I'm the only virgin in our crowd.

I date a lot but never seem to get asked out more than three or four times by the same fellow. I usually get the Big Question on the third or fourth date. When I say "no" they don't call me any more.

Now I've met a guy who intrigues me. He's the only fellow I've ever dated that I would like to marry. We've gone out together four times and he hasn't asked me to go to bed yet but I have a hunch the question will come up soon.

Do you believe that if he does ask me, he's not the hero I've been waiting for? Should I say "yes" and take a chance that he won't drop me? Should I say "no" and hope he will respect me? — A WHITE FLOWER IN WHITE PLAINS.

Dear Flower: When a fellow asks the Big Question it doesn't necessarily mean he is not the hero you have been waiting for. Even heroes ask. If the girl says "yes," however, he may well decide she is not the heroine HE has been waiting for. Read the next letter. This lady has an important message for you.

Wronged

Dear Ann: I'm 19, a sophomore in a Midwestern university and considered good-looking and reasonably bright by my peers. I've been dating since I was 15 and, without boasting, I can truthfully say I've had more than my share of male attention.

All through high school I maintained top grades and top moral standards. Without being a touch-me-not and wearing my purity like a medal, I conveyed the message that I was not available as an outlet for male sexual aggressions. A few fellows let me know they were not interested in future dates unless I gave some tangible evidence that "I cared." (Translated in plain English, this means "If you don't put out I'm not spending any more money on you.")

During the summer, I met my Ideal. We dated several times and I found myself saying "No" to others in the hope he would call: I loved being with him. On Aug. 2 he was leaving for his vacation. We both hated to part and sat in the park for two hours saying good night.

For some mysterious reason all my willpower and good intentions vanished and I gave in. I told myself, "This is love. Why should I deny him a true expression of my feelings?"

He sent a few postcards along the way but did not telephone me as I had hoped he would. Last night he returned — a changed man. He took me to supper and informed me that it probably would be our last date. These were his words:

"You're not the girl I had hoped you were. Our last night together was a nightmare. You made me ashamed of myself. I could never marry you after that. I'd always wonder if there had been others. This has been the greatest disappointment of my life."

So there's my story, Ann. I'm trying to keep my chin up, but it isn't easy. I tell myself no decent man would treat a girl this way, but deep down I know it was my decision, not his—and all the rationalization in the world doesn't make it right.—YESTERDAY'S FOOL.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problesm. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Wellsville VFW Sets Plans For Members' Drive

A committee of James Daniels, chairman, Nick Puch, Chester Schoolcraft, Dohrman Rosenlieb, William Rager and Fred Payne was appointed by Ike Crawford, commander. It will report at the Oct. 22 meeting and outline plans for the campaign.

Ronald Gibson and Sam Giordano were enrolled as new members. The post voted to again sponsor a bowling team. The house committee reported that the exterior sign has been painted and that a new refrigerator has been purchased for the kitchen.

The club endorsed the half-mill recreational levy to be voted on Nov. 5. Keith Hamilton, quartermaster, announced that new dues cards have been received and that 1969 dues are now being accepted.

New opening hours for the post will be 3 p. m. daily during the fall and winter. The social committee headed by James Bailey and Albert O'Rourke served a buffet lunch.

First planet to be discovered in modern times was Uranus, discovered by Sir William Herschel in 1781.

New Zealand's Native Race Is Flourishing

They numbered only 45,549 at the beginning of the century, but 201,479 at the 1966 census. On most recent estimates there are now about 215,000 Maoris in the country's total population of 2,750,000.

The Maori rate of increase, 3.8 per cent a year, is almost double that of other New Zealanders. Their life expectancy is lengthening and infant mortality falling.

The latest report of the Maori and Island Affairs Department says that the Maori life expectancy at birth has risen from 54 years in 1950-52 to 59.09 years for men and 61.37 years for women in 1960-62.

The infant mortality had fallen from 109 per 1,000 live births in 1935 to 28 per 1,000 in 1966.

Trials Are Continued In School Fire Case

CINCINNATI (AP) — The trials of three Millvale juveniles accused of starting the Sept. 1 fire at Heinold Junior High School have been continued — for the fourth time—until Friday afternoon.

In granting the continuances Wednesday, Juvenile Court Judge Benjamin Schwartz said a list of witnesses was incomplete.

Damage to the school was estimated at $35,000.

Surprise Fire Drills Held At Two Schools

The junior high building was evacuated in one minute and 45 seconds and the primary building in 45 seconds.

The first fire truck arrived at the schools with six men in two minutes and 38 seconds after the siren and the second truck was on the scene in three minutes. Fourteen volunteers answered the call.

Former Resident Directs Seminar

Mrs. Jane F. McCullough of Hadley, Mass., former city resident and assistant professor of home economics at the University of Massachusetts, has been named chairman of a food management seminar in January.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McCullough of Forsyth Pl., she will direct the Jan. 22-24 seminar sponsored by the state's Food Service Educational Council and the university.

A graduate of East Liverpool High School and Ohio University, Mrs. McCullough did graduate work at Oklahoma, Cornell and Tulane universities and held food service posts at St. Joseph's College and Douglas Aircraft Co. before joining the University of Massachusetts staff in 1954.

Man Gets 30 More Days In Racial Riot

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hamilton County Municipal Court Judge William Lovelace Wednesday tacked an additional 30 days on to the prison term of Donald Page, now serving one year in the workhouse for sparking last April's racial disturbances in Cincinnati.

The additional prison time was handed down on the 24-year-old Cincinnati man's conviction on a disorderly conduct charge filed June 21. Police said Page cursed them and shouted to bystanders as he was being led from the courtroom after being granted a continuance on the riot charge.

He was convicted Aug. 21 of inciting to riot. In addition to the prison term Page was fined $5,000.

Commemoration Ceremonies Due First Ohio Paper

CINCINNATI (AP) — Commemoration ceremonies for "The Centinel", the first newspaper in Ohio and in the Northwest Territory, are set for today as the National Newspaper Association (NNA) begins its first full day of business of the fall meeting.

A plaque will be presented at a noon luncheon at the Hotel Sheraton - Gibson to Mayor Eugene P. Ruehlmann in honor of the 175th anniversary of the founding of "The Centinel."

Presented by the Ohio branch of the NNA, the plaque will then be placed at the spot where the newspaper once stood, near the intersection of Front and Sycamore Streets. The historic newspaper was founded by William Maxwell in 1793.

Although "The Centinel" served only a few hundred readers, the Ohio Newspaper Association (ONA) said the six-state area is now served by 2,380 daily and weekly newspapers with a circulation of nearly 21 million.

The festive commemorative event is sponsored jointly by The Cincinnati Enquirer, The Cincinnati Post and Times-Star, the Cincinnati chapter of Sigma Delta Chi professional journalism fraternity and the ONA.

Election Postponed

LISBON — John C. Simonds of Leetonia RD, president of the Columbiana County Historical Association, postponed the annual election Wednesday night because of poor attendance. The association meets monthly on the second Wednesday at Village Hall. Simonds said officers and trustees will be elected Nov. 13.

PTA Meeting Attracts 215

Some 215 attended the first meeting of the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday in the multi-purpose room when Miss Elizabeth Coleman, principal, discussed "Quality Education."

Robert Arnold, president pro-tem, presided.

Miss Irene Cross, field director of the Girl Scout Council with headquarters at Wheeling, reviewed the advantages of being a Girl Scout and pointed up the need to form groups in the LaCroft and Glenmoor areas.

It was announced that open house will be observed during the November meeting. The association also decided to hold meetings during February and April. A tentative budget was announced.

Officers introduced were Mary Ellen Wheeler, first vice president; Karla Barrett, second vice president; Peggy Bloor, secretary, and Carol Cunningham, treasurer. Teachers also were recognized.

Committees for the new year include: Ways and Means, Betty Virden and Marge Terussi; membership, Kathy Wolfe and Ione Pierson; hospitality, Beverly Jackson and Norma Mason; publicity, Betty Hutchison and Lois Brown, and program, Verna Thorne.

The attendance banner went to the first grade. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Prayer was led by the Rev. Robert Palisin of the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church.

"Mirror of the World," published about 1481 by William Caxton, was one of the first reference works printed in English and the first to use illustrations.

If the girl says "yes," however, he may well decide she is not the heroine HE has been waiting for. Read the next letter. This lady has an important message for you.

Wronged

Dear Ann: I'm 19, a sophomore in a Midwestern university and considered good-looking and reasonably bright by my peers. I've been dating since I was 15 and, without boasting, I can truthfully say I've had more than my share of male attention.

All through high school I maintained top grades and top moral standards. Without being a touch-me-not and wearing my purity like a medal, I conveyed the message that I was not available as an outlet for male sexual aggressions. A few fellows let me know they were not interested in future dates unless I gave some tangible evidence that "I cared." (Translated in plain English, this means "If you don't put out I'm not spending any more money on you.")

During the summer, I met my Ideal. We dated several times and I found myself saying "No" to others in the hope he would call: I loved being with him. On Aug. 2 he was leaving for his vacation. We both hated to part and sat in the park for two hours saying good night.

For some mysterious reason all my willpower and good intentions vanished and I gave in. I told myself, "This is love. Why should I deny him a true expression of my feelings?"

He sent a few postcards along the way but did not telephone me as I had hoped he would. Last night he returned — a changed man. He took me to supper and informed me that it probably would be our last date. These were his words:

"You're not the girl I had hoped you were. Our last night together was a nightmare. You made me ashamed of myself. I could never marry you after that. I'd always wonder if there had been others. This has been the greatest disappointment of my life."

So there's my story, Ann. I'm trying to keep my chin up, but it isn't easy. I tell myself no decent man would treat a girl this way, but deep down I know it was my decision, not his—and all the rationalization in the world doesn't make it right.—YESTERDAY'S FOOL.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problesm. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Commemoration Ceremonies Due First Ohio Paper

CINCINNATI (AP) — Commemoration ceremonies for "The Centinel", the first newspaper in Ohio and in the Northwest Territory, are set for today as the National Newspaper Association (NNA) begins its first full day of business of the fall meeting.

A plaque will be presented at a noon luncheon at the Hotel Sheraton - Gibson to Mayor Eugene P. Ruehlmann in honor of the 175th anniversary of the founding of "The Centinel."

Presented by the Ohio branch of the NNA, the plaque will then be placed at the spot where the newspaper once stood, near the intersection of Front and Sycamore Streets. The historic newspaper was founded by William Maxwell in 1793.

Although "The Centinel" served only a few hundred readers, the Ohio Newspaper Association (ONA) said the six-state area is now served by 2,380 daily and weekly newspapers with a circulation of nearly 21 million.

The festive commemorative event is sponsored jointly by The Cincinnati Enquirer, The Cincinnati Post and Times-Star, the Cincinnati chapter of Sigma Delta Chi professional journalism fraternity and the ONA.

Election Postponed

LISBON — John C. Simonds of Leetonia RD, president of the Columbiana County Historical Association, postponed the annual election Wednesday night because of poor attendance. The association meets monthly on the second Wednesday at Village Hall. Simonds said officers and trustees will be elected Nov. 13.

PTA Meeting Attracts 215

Some 215 attended the first meeting of the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday in the multi-purpose room when Miss Elizabeth Coleman, principal, discussed "Quality Education."

Robert Arnold, president protem, presided.

Miss Irene Cross, field director of the Girl Scout Council with headquarters at Wheeling, reviewed the advantages of being a Girl Scout and pointed up the need to form groups in the LaCroft and Glenmoor areas.

It was announced that open house will be observed during the November meeting. The association also decided to hold meetings during February and April. A tentative budget was announced.

Officers introduced were Mary Ellen Wheeler, first vice president; Karla Barrett, second vice president; Peggy Bloor, secretary, and Carol Cunningham, treasurer. Teachers also were recognized.

Committees for the new year include: Ways and Means, Betty Virden and Marge Terussi; membership, Kathy Wolfe and Ione Pierson; hospitality, Beverly Jackson and Norma Mason; publicity, Betty Hutchison and Lois Brown, and program, Verna Thorne.

The attendance banner went to the first grade. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Prayer was led by the Rev. Robert Palisin of the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church.

Wellsville VFW Sets Plans For Members' Drive

A committee of James Daniels, chairman, Nick Puch, Chester Schoolcraft, Dohrman Rosenlieb, William Rager and Fred Payne was appointed by Ike Crawford, commander. It will report at the Oct. 22 meeting and outline plans for the campaign.

Ronald Gibson and Sam Giordano were enrolled as new members. The post voted to again sponsor a bowling team. The house committee reported that the exterior sign has been painted and that a new refrigerator has been purchased for the kitchen.

The club endorsed the half-mill recreational levy to be voted on Nov. 5. Keith Hamilton, quartermaster, announced that new dues cards have been received and that 1969 dues are now being accepted.

New opening hours for the post will be 3 p. m. daily during the fall and winter. The social committee headed by James Bailey and Albert O'Rourke served a buffet lunch.

First planet to be discovered in modern times was Uranus, discovered by Sir William Herschel in 1781.

New Zealand's Native Race Is Flourishing

They numbered only 45,549 at the beginning of the century, but 201,479 at the 1966 census. On most recent estimates there are now about 215,000 Maoris in the country's total population of 2,750,000.

The Maori rate of increase, 3.8 per cent a year, is almost double that of other New Zealanders. Their life expectancy is lengthening and infant mortality falling.

The latest report of the Maori and Island Affairs Department says that the Maori life expectancy at birth has risen from 54 years in 1950-52 to 59.09 years for men and 61.37 years for women in 1960-62.

The infant mortality had fallen from 109 per 1,000 live births in 1935 to 28 per 1,000 in 1966.

Trials Are Continued In School Fire Case

CINCINNATI (AP) — The trials of three Millvale juveniles accused of starting the Sept. 1 fire at Heinold Junior High School have been continued — for the fourth time—until Friday afternoon.

In granting the continuances Wednesday, Juvenile Court Judge Benjamin Schwartz said a list of witnesses was incomplete.

Damage to the school was estimated at $35,000.

Surprise Fire Drills Held At Two Schools

The junior high building was evacuated in one minute and 45 seconds and the primary building in 45 seconds.

The first fire truck arrived at the schools with six men in two minutes and 38 seconds after the siren and the second truck was on the scene in three minutes. Fourteen volunteers answered the call.

Former Resident Directs Seminar

Mrs. Jane F. McCullough of Hadley, Mass., former city resident and assistant professor of home economics at the University of Massachusetts, has been named chairman of a food management seminar in January.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McCullough of Forsyth Pl., she will direct the Jan. 22-24 seminar sponsored by the state's Food Service Educational Council and the university.

A graduate of East Liverpool High School and Ohio University, Mrs. McCullough did graduate work at Oklahoma, Cornell and Tulane universities and held food service posts at St. Joseph's College and Douglas Aircraft Co. before joining the University of Massachusetts staff in 1954.

Man Gets 30 More Days In Racial Riot

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hamilton County Municipal Court Judge William Lovelace Wednesday tacked an additional 30 days on to the prison term of Donald Page, now serving one year in the workhouse for sparking last April's racial disturbances in Cincinnati.

The additional prison time was handed down on the 24-year-old Cincinnati man's conviction on a disorderly conduct charge filed June 21. Police said Page cursed them and shouted to bystanders as he was being led from the courtroom after being granted a continuance on the riot charge.

He was convicted Aug. 21 of inciting to riot. In addition to the prison term Page was fined $5,000.

The DOCTOR Says

Face-Lifting Is A Costly Luxury

A—This operation is admittedly expensive (roughly $1,000) because it is regarded as something of a luxury item. You would have to learn the exact amount from the surgeon. He will be glad to discuss his fee and hospital costs with you before you make any commitment. It is best to have this type of operation performed by a plastic surgeon.

Dr. Brandstadt

Q—How long must a person stay in the hospital after a face-lifting operation? Is there any danger involved?

A—The usual stay in the hospital is about a week. There is some danger associated with any operation but barring an infection or some unforeseen complication things should go well.

Q—Is it too late to have a plastic operation on my nose after the age of 50?

A—No, nor after the age of 70 or 90.

Q—What causes Peyronie's disease? Is it true that the only cure for this disease is an operation?

A—The cause of Peyronie's disease or fibrous cavernitis is unknown. In this disease a rigid curvature of the penis occurs and intercourse is painful or impossible. Vitamin E with potassium iodide or potassium para-aminobenzoate by mouth are highly favored in the treatment. The results of operation have not been satisfactory.

Q—A specialist says my husband has Peyronie's disease. He prescribed Potaba but he says there is not much chance for a cure. Will this condition become cancerous?

A—Potaba is a combination of potassium aminobenzoate and pyridoxine. Some authorities believe it to be the best drug for this disease The condition is not a forerunner of cancer.

Q—I have had cortisone shots and X-ray therapy for Peyronie's disease but neither has helped me. What do you recommend?

A—That leaves vitamin E and Potaba still untried. One of them may help you.

Q—A doctor says that my wife has neurocirculatory asthenia. Is there any cure for it?

A—This condition may be caused by an emotional disturbance, chronic low - grade infection, hookworm infestation, nutritional deficiency or a hormonal imbalance. The cause must be determined before any treatment can be prescribed.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Republican Has Edge

Voters' Interest Grows In Gilligan-Saxbe Race

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The U. S. Senate race in Ohio has developed into a hot battle between Democrat John J. Gilligan a former congressman, and Republican William B. Saxbe, state attorney general.

Gilligan won the right to face Saxbe, winning the nomination in the May primary by toppling an institution in Ohio politics, incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche.

Saxbe is using computer analysis of voting trends in the state to help in his campaign with hopes of becoming the first Republican senator from Ohio in 14 years.

Both candidates are similar in some respects. Both have taken dovish stands on Vietnam. Both have labor support in varying degrees and both have scored smashing successes at the polls.

Saxbe is 52 and Gilligan 47. Both were in World War II, Saxbe as a bomber pilot and Gilligan as a Naval officer who won the Silver Star.

The race is close, and observers predict it will be a neck and neck struggle down to the wire on Nov. 5, although some polls currently show Saxbe with a slight edge.

Six months ago, Gilligan was given little chance of being in this election. But with the help and financial backing of labor, he won the Democratic nomination with his stunning upset over Lausche, 72-year-old former five-term governor who was seeking his third Senate term.

Gilligan campaigned then as a "real Democrat," lashing away at the independent-minded Lausche who was assailed by his own party of voting more often along Republican lines than Democratic.

Saxbe faced only nominal opposition in the Republican primary. His aides admit they believe he'll have a better chance against Gilligan than he would have had against Lausche, who always drew strong support from Republicans.

Gun control has been a sharp division between the candidates. Saxbe, who has campaigned heavily on the "law and order" theme, is against registration of guns, while Gilligan favors registration.

Saxbe is in his third term as attorney general. He has served four terms in the Ohio House, including two terms as speaker. He lives at Mechanicsburg, a small town near Columbus, is a graduate of Ohio State University, and has three children.

Gilligan served in Congress in 1965-66 and was defeated for re-election by Rep. Robert Taft Jr. He has served five terms on City Council at Cincinnati, his hometown, where he formerly taught literature at Xavier University. He is a graduate of Notre Dame, and has two daughters and two sons.

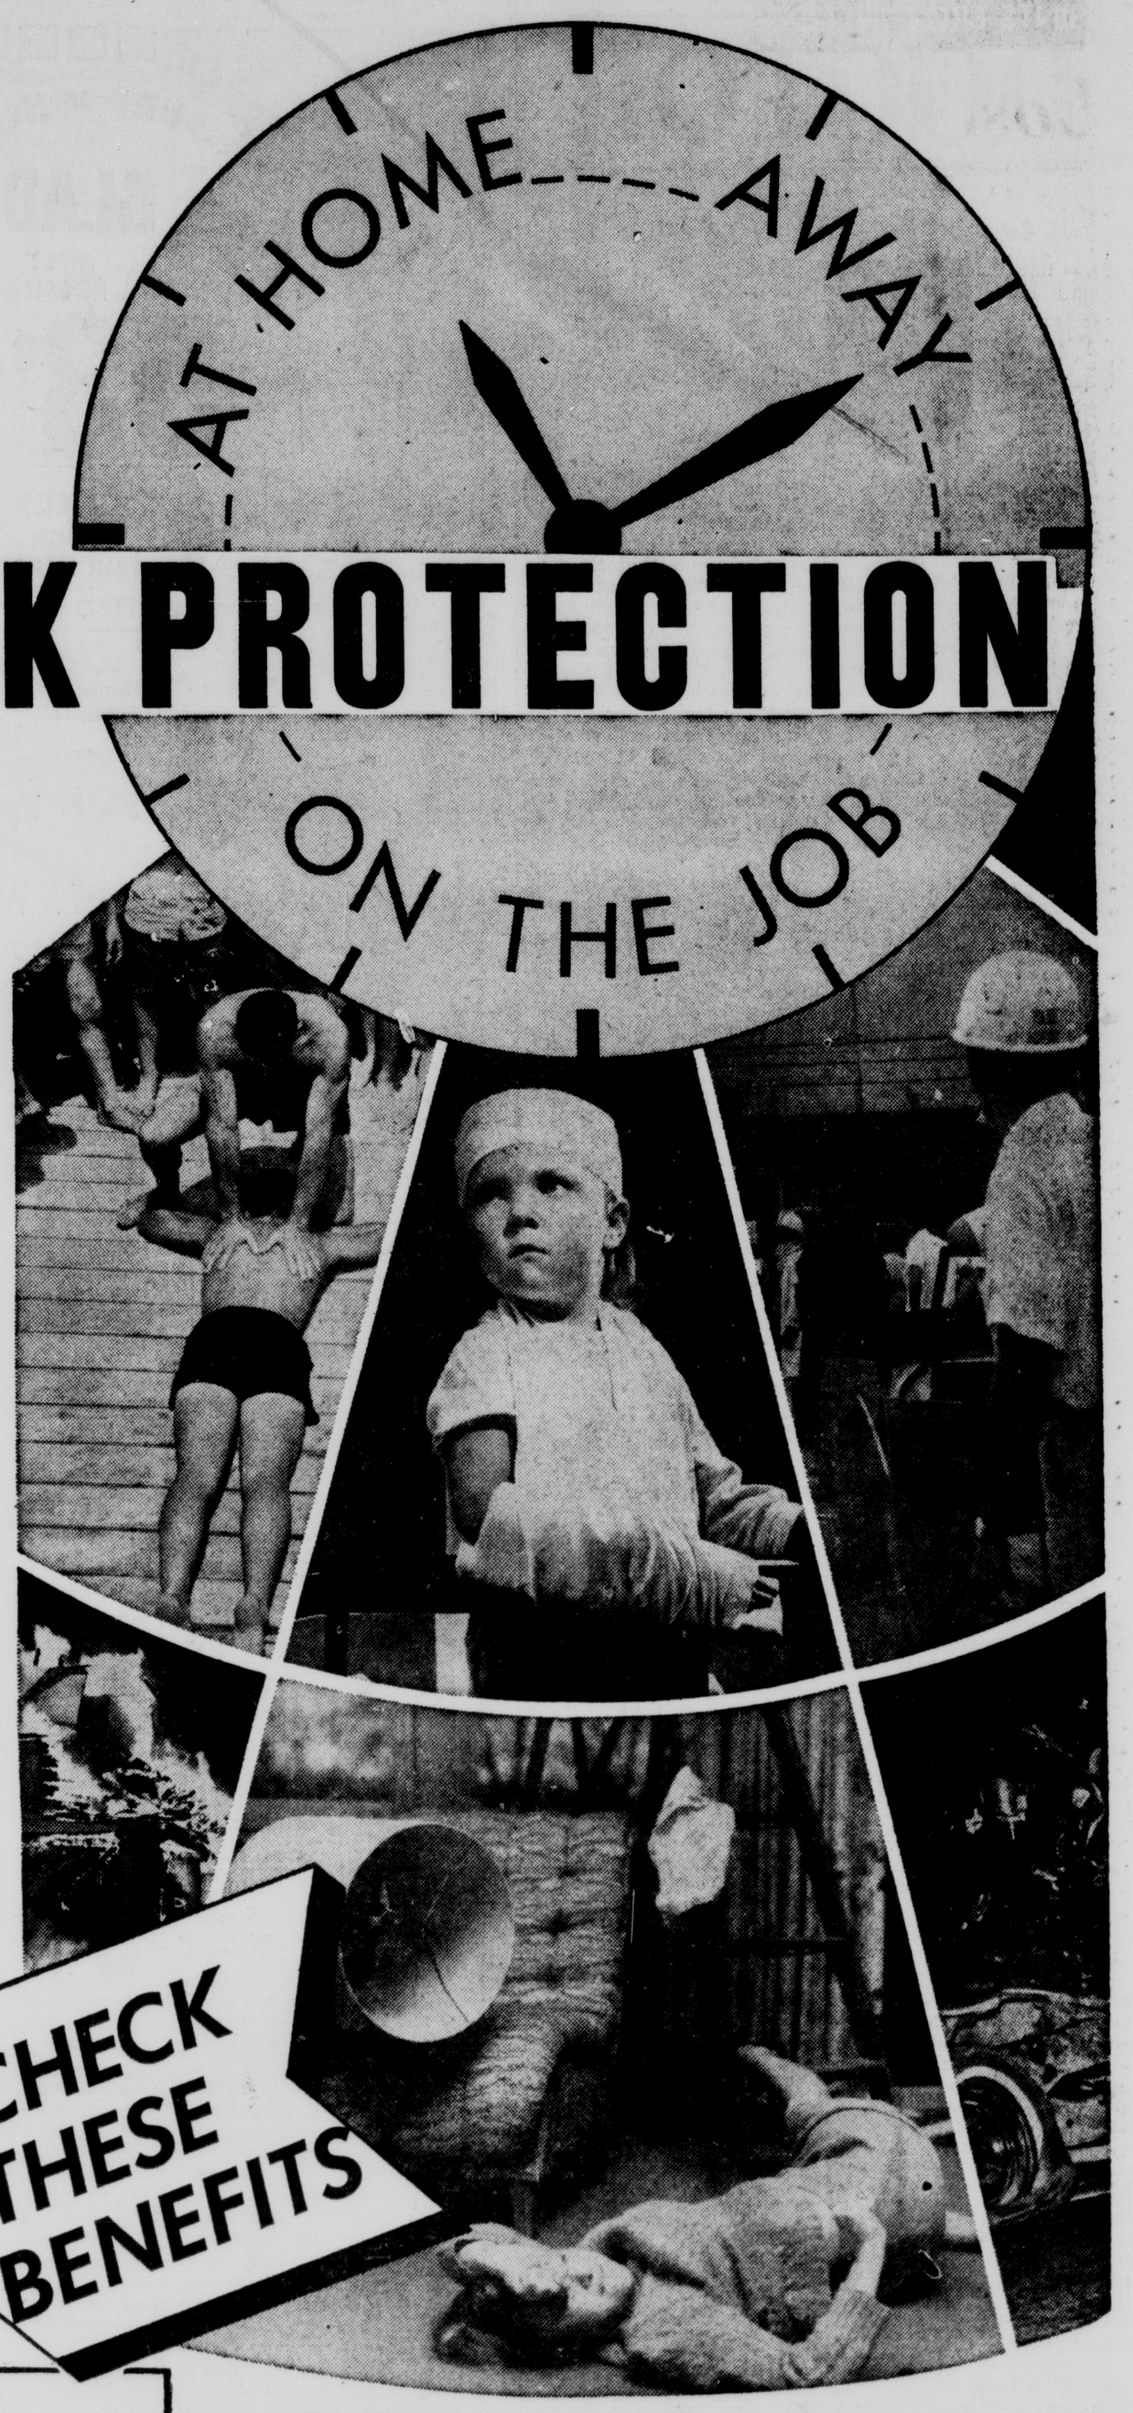
Don't Gamble with accidents!

10c A WEEK BUYS YOU

'ROUND-THE-CLOCK PROTECTION



More than 50,000,000 people are injured each year according to the National Health Survey conducted by the U.S. Public Health Service. In a single year there were 10,400,000 disabling injuries . . . 107,000 deaths. Wage losses alone from these accidents totaled over five billion dollars. Medical fees and hospital expenses cost another $1,800,000,000.

THIS COULD HAPPEN TO YOU OR A MEMBER OF YOUR FAMILY ANY TIME— ANY PLACE . . . in your own home, at work, on the road traveling or at play. If so, HOW WILL YOU PAY THE BILLS.

INSURANCE IS YOUR BEST ANSWER! As a special service to its readers, this newspaper offers such protection for less than 2c a day to readers from 1 to 90 years of age. The policy, issued by Columbus Mutual Life Insurance Company of Columbus, Ohio, won't pay all the bills but it will be an important help should an accident occur.

THIS POLICY WILL PAY YOU benefits for loss of life, limb or sight and for disability caused by accidental injury (the amount depending on how the accident is sustained).

*$7.00 daily up to 60 days in the hospital if injuries require hospital confinement.

*Ambulance expense up to $10.00.

*X-ray examination costs up to $10.00.

*Medical treatment of non-disabling injuries at the rate of $6.00 for the first treatment and $3.00 for subsequent treatments up to $21.00.

The only accidents not covered by this valuable policy are those sustained while outside the United States, Canada or Mexico; in a mine; or while riding or driving in a race or speed contest. It does not cover suicide; injuries resulting from act of war or asphyxiation from gas or poison vapor. Riding in or driving a motorcycle, any type of hernia, accidental or otherwise.

THIS PROTECTION COSTS YOU ONLY 10c A WEEK!

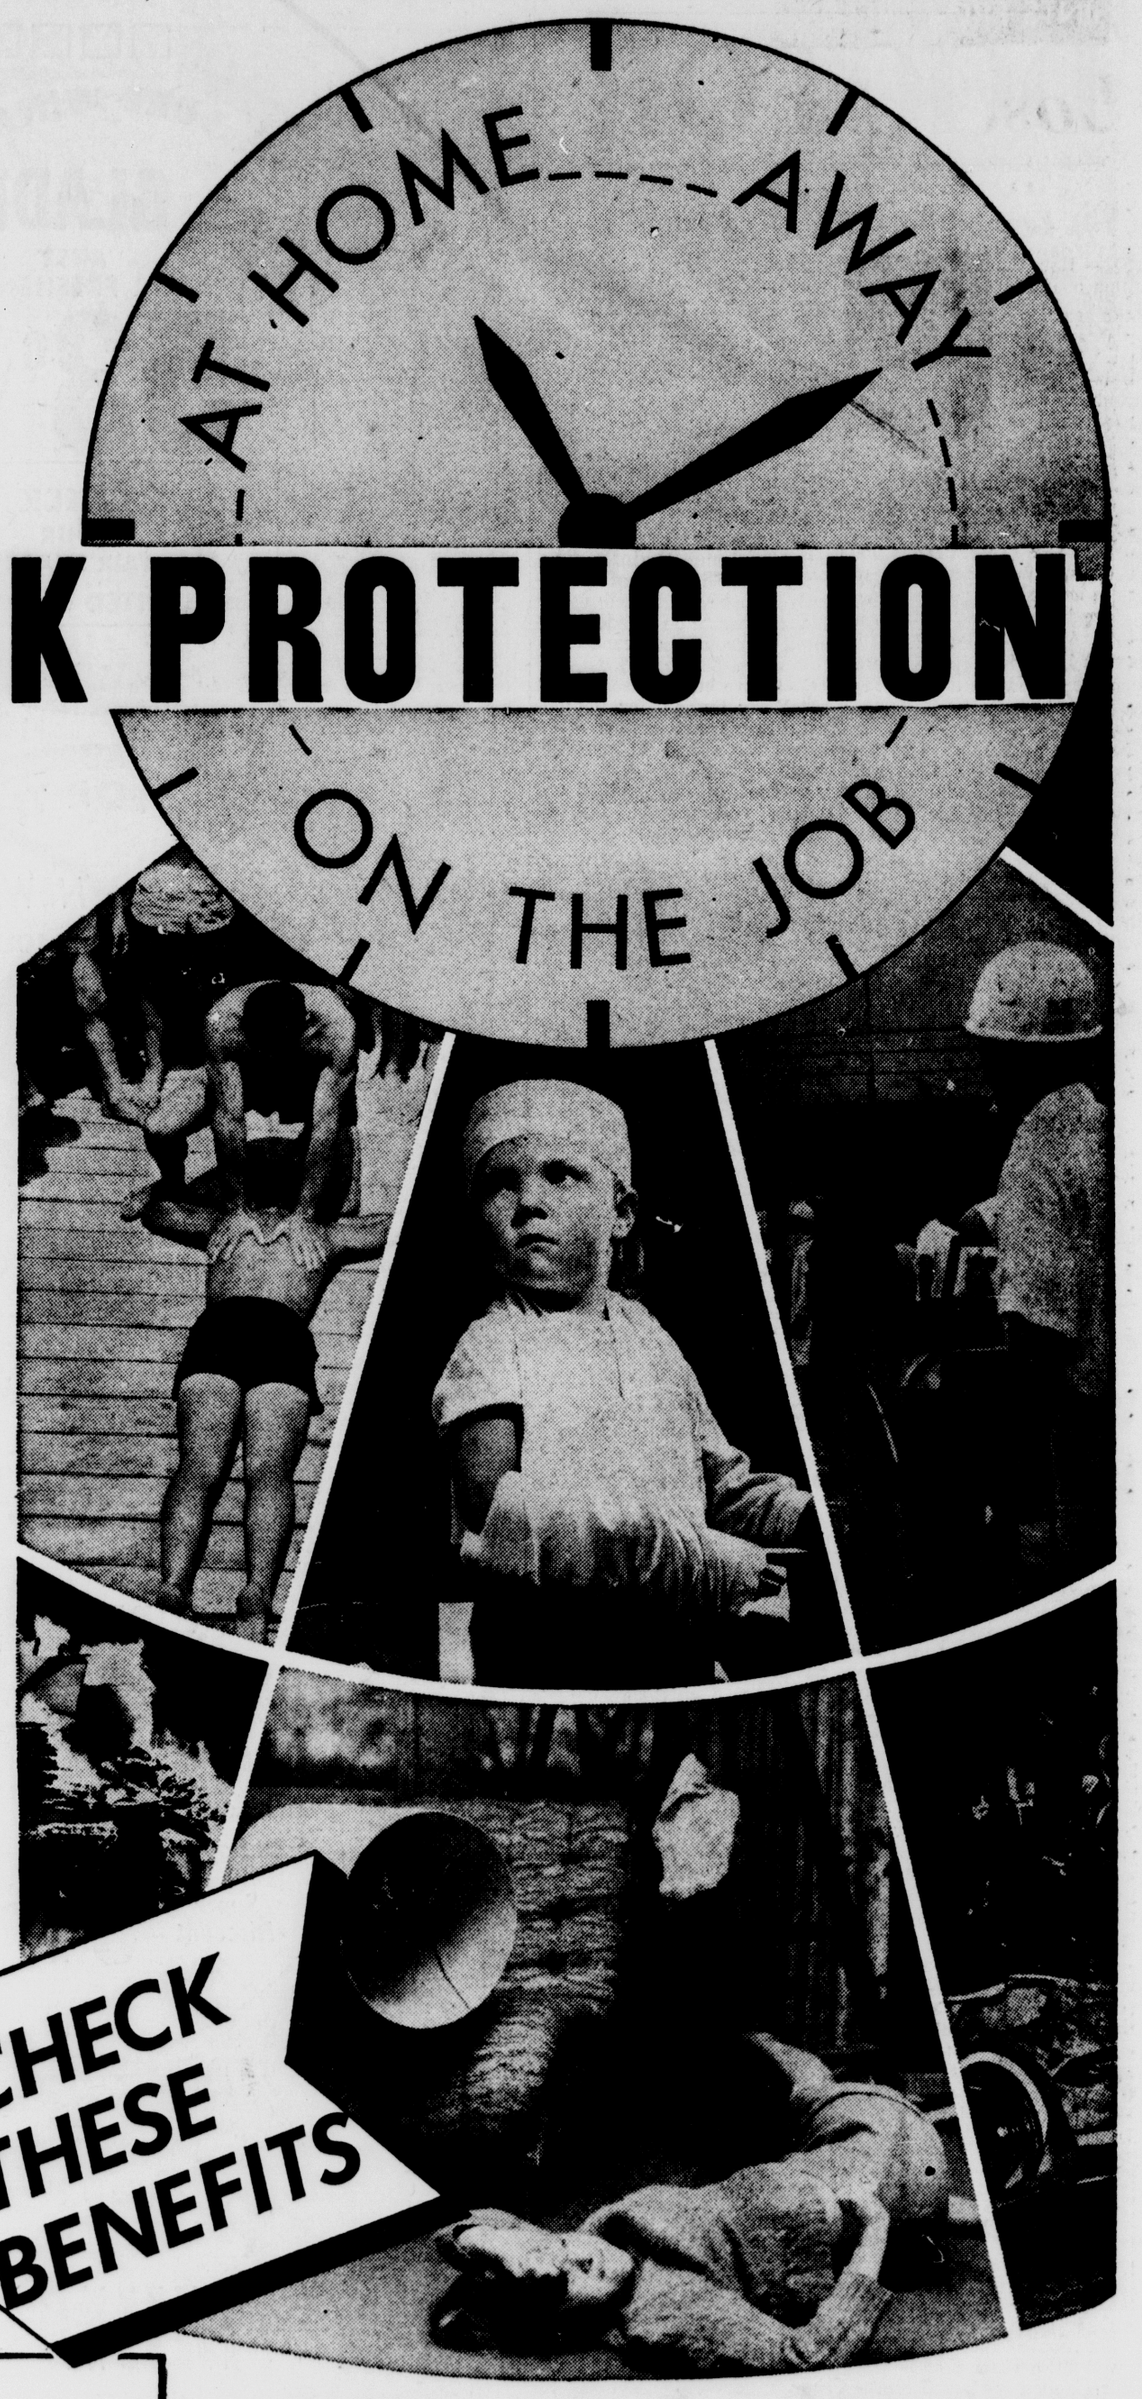
Don't Gamble with accidents!

10c A WEEK BUYS YOU

'ROUND-THE-CLOCK PROTECTION



More than 50,000,000 people are injured each year according to the National Health Survey conducted by the U.S. Public Health Service. In a single year there were 10,400,000 disabling injuries . . . 107,000 deaths. Wage losses alone from these accidents totaled over five billion dollars. Medical fees and hospital expenses cost another $1,800,000,000.

THIS COULD HAPPEN TO YOU OR A MEMBER OF YOUR FAMILY ANY TIME—ANY PLACE . . . in your own home, at work, on the road traveling or at play. If so, HOW WILL YOU PAY THE BILLS.

INSURANCE IS YOUR BEST ANSWER! As a special service to its readers, this newspaper offers such protection for less than 2c a day to readers from 1 to 90 years of age. The policy, issued by Columbus Mutual Life Insurance Company of Columbus, Ohio, won't pay all the bills but it will be an important help should an accident occur.

THIS POLICY WILL PAY YOU benefits for loss of life, limb or sight and for disability caused by accidental injury (the amount depending on how the accident is sustained).

*$7.00 daily up to 60 days in the hospital if injuries require hospital confinement.

*Ambulance expense up to $10.00.

*X-ray examination costs up to $10.00.

*Medical treatment of non-disabling injuries at the rate of $6.00 for the first treatment and $3.00 for subsequent treatments up to $21.00.

The only accidents not covered by this valuable policy are those sustained while outside the United States, Canada or Mexico; in a mine; or while riding or driving in a race or speed contest. It does not cover suicide; injuries resulting from act of war or asphyxiation from gas or poison vapor. Riding in or driving a motorcycle, any type of hernia, accidental or otherwise.

THIS PROTECTION COSTS YOU ONLY 10c A WEEK!

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Loses Lashes In Curler

DEAR LADIES: Take it from me. . .I learned the hard way. . .

If you use eyelash curlers every day or even once in awhile, LOOK and see if the mascara you put on your lashes before you curl them has caked on the rubber strip of the curler. . .

Heloise

I just pulled out some of my eyelashes and I look awful! Not using these curlers for a long time and there being no cautions on the label, I goofed.

Keep that caked residue off the rubber strip and save your eyelashes.

This can usually be scraped off with your fingernail or washed off. Every now and then test those little rubber strips to see if they are rotten or sticky. If so, replace them. The rubber strips are inexpensive.

This is the time NOT to save money, but to save something more important. . .YOUR eyelashes.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: A friend of mine recently mashed in the door of her car when it skidded and bumped into a guard rail.

Her husband took their "plumbers friend," and using the suction it provided against the dent was able to pull the metal back into shape. Of course, this wouldn't work on a small deep dent, but her's was a shallow dent over a large area of the door.

It didn't look exactly professional but surely helped until they could get to the repair shop.

MRS. V. E. WILCOCK.

DEAR HELOISE: Detachable bows made for different dresses can be held firmly and neatly in place by sewing military ribbon bars to the back of the bow.

The pin-like prongs slip easily through the fabric, with detachable clips holding the bow in place.

Since military ribbon bars come in a variety of lengths, any size detachable bow can have a neat, unsagging appearance using this method.

FAYE HODNETT.

DEAR HELOISE: Every now and then comes a morning when nothing goes right and by the time I take my four children to school, I'm tense as a tightly wound spring. And it's only the beginning of the day!

Know what I do?

When I'm headed home after dropping off the last one, I stop in a lovely gift shop on the way and just browse for 10 to 15 minutes.

Beside calming me down, I have a chance to see what's new and perhaps pick up some ideas for our home or even a little gift or two.

MRS. R. K. E.

DEAR FOLKS: If you have anybody using a crutch in your house, warn them NOT to lean it against the wall with the point down. Turn it UPSIDE DOWN!

Then if anyone should trip on it, the heavy top won't hit them in the head, nose, teeth, eyes, etc.

Also it will stand up better resting on the wider arm part.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: If you don't have a shoe buffing brush, try slipping a heavy cotton sock over an old hair brush. (Not nylon.)

The bristles come through just enough to do a good job of buffing. The handle on the brush makes it easy to grasp, too.

READER.

DEAR HELOISE: I have five girls. When their dresses are not really soiled after one wearing, but just wrinkled, I spray with starch and reiron. Makes them good for another day without laundering. This is really a time saver for me.

MRS. H. C. PARNELL.

National Ruritan Official Visits Clubs In District

LISBON — Thomas V. Downing of Franktown, Va., secretary of Ruritan National for over 20 years, is visiting area Ruritan clubs this week.

He was guest of honor at the West Township Club's 15th anniversary program Monday and at the Lisbon club's 16th anniversary dinner Tuesday night.

He will go to Jefferson County tonight to greet members of the New Pleasant Hill Club. Last night at the First Christian Church here, Downing met with citizenship and patriotism committee chairmen from clubs in Zone 4.

Downing and George Kelch of Lisbon, governor of Zone 4, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in efforts to reactivate the Salineville club.

Floyd Lower of Lisbon, past president of Ruritan National, met Downing at Pittsburgh Airport Monday and will take him to the airport Friday. Lower said Downing helped organize the first Ruritan Club at Holland, Va.

Brotherhood Sets Service At Bethany

The annual Brooke - Hancock Christian Men's Brotherhood will hold its annual communion service in the historic Bethany Church of Christ Sunday at 3 p.m..

The speaker will be the Rev. H. Dean Warren of the First Christian Church of Martins Ferry. He received his A. B. degree from Kentucky Christian College and his master's of religious education degree from Christian Theological Seminary in Indianapolis.

For the last five years, Rev. Warren has served as pastor in Martins Ferry, where a new edifice was constructed under his leadership.

His topic will be "Unity Through Restoration."

Area ministers who will participate include the Rev. Robert Schondelmayer of the First Christian Church, Wellsville; the Rev. Robert Rowe of the Christian Church, New Manchester, and the Rev. Allen Fields of the First Church, New Cumberland.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

A.—You can often do a good job of refitting this tightly by applying colorless fingernail polish around the edge of the crystal—as many coats of polish as necessary to increase the diameter of the crystal to the necessary size. After the last coat has dried, sand the edge lightly for a smooth fit.

Board To Study Offer On Power

The Board of Public Utilities took under advisement Wednesday noon a bid filed by the Ohio Power Co. to supply electricity under a 10-year contract for operation of the city's sewage treatment plant and four lift stations.

The bid specified a minimum monthly charge of $240 for power at the main treatment plant in West End. It listed these minimum charges for the lift stations: Korkus Alley, $84; Keene St., $36; Central Ave., $21.60, and Lisbon St., $9.

The bid specified a rate of 1.66 cents per kilowatt hour for the first 10,000 used monthly; 1.16 cents for the next 90,000 and .86 cents for all over 100,000.

The board indicated it expects to act on the bid shortly. The present contract will run out Oct. 31. Although the Ohio Power Co. was the only firm which could bid, state law required the board to call for sealed offers.

Odd Facts

The world's food problem would be greatly alleviaed if there were more vegetarians. There is in the world about one acre per person of land capable of producing food and it takes two acres per person to produce food required by meat eaters, according to the Encyclopaedia Briatnnica.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

A.—You can often do a good job of refitting this tightly by applying colorless fingernail polish around the edge of the crystal—as many coats of polish as necessary to increase the diameter of the crystal to the necessary size. After the last coat has dried, sand the edge lightly for a smooth fit.

Board To Study Offer On Power

The Board of Public Utilities took under advisement Wednesday noon a bid filed by the Ohio Power Co. to supply electricity under a 10-year contract for operation of the city's sewage treatment plant and four lift stations.

The bid specified a minimum monthly charge of $240 for power at the main treatment plant in West End. It listed these minimum charges for the lift stations: Korkus Alley, $84; Keene St., $36; Central Ave., $21.60, and Lisbon St., $9.

The bid specified a rate of 1.66 cents per kilowatt hour for the first 10,000 used monthly; 1.16 cents for the next 90,000 and .86 cents for all over 100,000.

The board indicated it expects to act on the bid shortly. The present contract will run out Oct. 31. Although the Ohio Power Co. was the only firm which could bid, state law required the board to call for sealed offers.

Won't Relax Opposition

No Debates For Nixon, Republican Sources Say

MOLINE, Ill. (AP) — There aren't going to be any presidential campaign debates this year involving Richard M. Nixon, Republican sources made clear today.

Aides to the GOP presidential nominee said Nixon is not going to relax his opposition to any confrontation including third-party candidate George C. Wallace. Nor, they said, will Nixon agree to any arrangement raising the prospect that Wallace might win separate but equal television treatment.

They acknowledge that these Nixon reservations eliminate any prospect that the Republican nominee will meet Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, his Democratic rival, in debate before the election on Nov. 5.

The Nixon camp insists that there must be assurances Wallace would have no claim of free television time as a result of any Nixon-Humphrey debate.

The Nixon rationale: It would not be in the public interest to provide Wallace with an avenue to more national attention than his third-party campaign now commands.

"Our position remains firmly the same on the debates," said Ron Ziegler, Nixon's travel and campaign spokesman.

The Republican nominee said nothing after the House, stalled by GOP parliamentary tactics, passed in a 27-hour session a bill to facilitate televised meetings of Nixon, Humphrey and Wallace.

The Senate has passed a measure suspending equal time requirements, which could otherwise bring demands upon the networks from minor presidential candidates. The Senate left up to the broadcasters to invite whom they want.

But as the Nixon camp sees it, even the Senate version of the legislation could open the way for Wallace to obtain a national television forum.

Ziegler said Nixon was in no way involved in the GOP delaying tactics. The Republicans who did the stalling said they were trying to use the debate bill to force action on congressional reorganization and election reform measures.

Robert Ellsworth, Nixon's political director, countered with a charge that Humphrey lobbied for legislation to "give him and George Wallace a million dollars worth of free TV time."

Ellsworth accused the Democrats of trying to enhance Wallace's standing in hopes of denying Nixon an Electoral College majority. If there is no majority, the House would choose the next president with each state casting one vote.

Sale Of Jets To Israel Gets Johnson OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has given the go-ahead for negotiations on sale of 50 F4 Phantom jetfighters to Israel to help rebuild her deterrent force.

Johnson announced Wednesday he is asking Secretary of State Dean Rusk to start the negotiations in line with a "sense of Congress" appeal added to its $1.97 billion foreign aid authorization.

Gun Control Measure Gets Senate Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — After months of congressional fighting, a bill to ban the mail-order sale of rifles, shotguns and ammunition faces only one major obstacle—a House eager to adjourn.

The Senate passed by voice vote Wednesday a compromise measure recommended by a joint conference committee and sent it to the House for probable action today.

Although the House is expected to approve the gun control bill, Rep. Clark MacGregor, R-Minn., said he would lead a fight against the conference committee's compromise because it deleted an amendment exempting most ammunition from the mail-order sales ban.

MacGregor successfully sponsored an amendment exempting rifle and shtogun ammunition as well as 22-caliber rimfire bullets from the mail-order prohibition when the bill was originally passed by the House during the summer.

The bill as first passed on the Senate did not exempt ammunition. The conference committee accepted the Senate provision on that matter.

Another roadblock to easy passage was the possible absence of many members already back home campaigning for re-election or planning to leave early.

Another possible GOP tactic would be to try to prevent the bill from being considered immediately by employing the parliamentary procedures that forced the House to remain in session for 27 hours and 37 minutes before completing action Wednesday on a measure to allow for network debates between the major presidential candidates.

They forced a reading of the previous day's journal, then asked quorum calls to make sure the necessary 217 members were present to conduct business.

The House showdown climaxes months of battle over stiffer gun controls. Once doomed, the measure was revived by the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

—Forbid over-the-counter sales of pistols to anyone under 21 and rifles and shotguns to those under 18. Similar age limits would apply to the sale of ammunition.

—Prohibit gun sales to mental incompetents, felons, fugitives, drug addicts and persons under criminal indictment.

—Ban most over-the-counter sales of pistols to nonresidents of the involved state.

—Require a record be kept of the identity of persons making over-the-counter purchases of guns and ammunition.

—Require an affidavit of eligibility by purchsers of guns by mail inside a state and provide a seven - day waiting period to allow a police check.

—Provide stiff prison terms for use of a firearm in committing federal crimes.

At Dinner Meeting

District Leader Addresses BPW

Encouragement to maintain the state status was voiced by Mrs. Jeanne Neighbor of Dennison, director of District 3 of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, when she paid her official visit during the dinner meeting of the local BPW Club Wednesday night at the Travelers Hotel.

Mrs. Neighbor

She pointed out the state clubs are known as the "Ohio Bombers" group "for inciting action on many worthy projects." She also reviewed plans for the fall district meeting Oct. 27 at Alliance.

Mrs. Neighbor is purchasing director with Uhrden, Inc., of Sugarcreek, a manufacturer of material handling equipment. She also served as president of the Claymont School Board, a consolidated group.

Mrs. Betty Reed, chairman of the personal development committee in charge of the meeting, introduced a "sing along," with Mrs. Ruth Wakefield leader and Mrs. Gertrude Lowe accompanist.

MISS JOAN WITT, state personal development chairman, discussed "Building A Better You," urging members "to be aware of their capabilities and their limitations, but not to sell themselves short."

In remarking that "we must accentuate the positive and eliminate the negative," Miss Witt said "we should see ourselves as others do and not through rose-colored glasses." She advised the club to be a part of the group which solves problems and not among those who create them.

Plans to observe "National Business Women's Week" were outlined by the chairman, Mrs. Faye Wright, who said the event will begin with a "Prayer Breakfast" Oct. 20 at 9 a.m. at the Pancake House in Wellsville. The group will attend services at the Wellsville United Methodist Church, where Miss Bibbee is a member.

Mrs. Wright, federation chairman, announced she is taking orders for the available BPW emblems and other items. She also is handling reservations for the Alliance conference.

In reporting on the "WRAP" program, Mrs. Mary Ruth Beebout, chairman of the civic participation committee, announced advancement of the work to stimulate "women's responsibilities for accident prevention." She named her assisting committee — Miss Karole Kapp, Mrs. Wakefield, Mrs. Mary Lou Springer, Mrs. Margaret Thompson and Miss Witt.

MISS KAPP announced the world affairs committee will meet Monday in the conference room at The Review. She requested any type of foreign apparel to be used for the November program.

Mrs. Doris McKinnon, coordinator of the Nike Club, announced a delegation from the local high school attended the dinner meeting of the newly-organized Steubenville Club Tuesday night and heard the message of the state president, Mrs. Marianne Campbell.

Progress in the organization of a Nike Club at Beaver Local High School was outlined by Mrs. Martha Blatchford, chairman. She said Edna Robinson has been named temporary chairman.

A reminder was given of the "Young Career Girl" contest to be conducted throughout the districts and state. Eligible girls must be between 18 and 27 and hold steady employment or at least for one year for those who have enrolled at colleges.

Mrs. Charlotte Cole, corresponding secretary, read an invitation from the Lisbon Club to a demonstration of Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations to be presented Nov. 7 at the Lisbon United Methodist Church.

RESERVATIONS were taken for the fall meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs Oct. 23 at Mary Patterson Memorial when the annual awards program will be featured.

Mrs. Mary McCullough, child health clinic, and Mrs. Mildred McKim, mutual service, also submitted reports.

Mrs. Eva Mills, who was named recording secretary to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Angie Frank, read the minutes. Miss Helen Auld, treasurer, gave the financial report.

Covers were arranged for 52 at tables decorated with fall flower arrangements and various color candles placed in goblets. Halloween candy cups were favors. Those who assisted Mrs. Reed with arrangements were Mrs. Dorothy Evans, Mrs. Mae Hartt, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Patricia Kapp.

"The World Around Us" will be the theme for the Nov. 13 session at the hotel.

Beter Will Announce Write-In Candidacy

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Defeated Republican gubernatorial candidate Peter D. Beter was expected to announce as a write-in candidate for governor at a news conference today.

Beter declined comment on the matter until the news conference.

The Huntington native, who registered as a Republican after deciding against filing for the Democratic nomination, sought earlier this week to get on the November ballot as the American Independent party gubernatorial candidate.

However, Secretary of State Robert Bailey told Beter the filing deadline had passed and he could only run as a write-in candidate.

Beter ran third in the May primary behind Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. and former Gov. Cecil Underwood.

Gosney Asks Sign Removal

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, said he will write a letter today to the Ohio Highway Department's Division 11 office in New Philadelphia demanding that its employes remove "all advertising signs along highway rights-of-way, not just political signs."

Gosney said an informal survey he made Wednesday in parts of the county indicates there are 2,000 to 3,000 advertising signs in the highway rights-of-way, including large billboards.

"I want them to treat everybody alike," Gosney said. "If signs are illegal inside a right-of-way, then the law applies to business signs as well as political advertising."

Gosney's hassle with the Highway Department erupted Wednesday, when he charged that county employes of the department were removing political signs on the allegation they were within the right-of-way, but allowing signs of private business to remain.

Gosney mentioned two other complaints to the New Philadelphia office that he said resulted from his sign - inspecting tour. He said he will ask the Highway Department what it intends to do "with junk cars parked within the right-of-way, some of them for the last two years," and "when are they going to stop measuring signs and begin fixing the berms?" Gosney said he made measurements yesterday along Routes 164 and 45 that showed the berm at points a foot below the level of the pavement. "That's very dangerous," he commented.

Gosney also complained Wednesday that Highway Department employes were at the Election Board office making copies of voters' names. The employes replied they were on vacation, working on their own time. Gosney asserted they were using state - owned cars and asked in his letter today: "How can these people use state cars when they are on vacation?"

East Palestine Chief On Nominating Unit

Frank Frederick, chief at East Palestine, has been named to the nominating committee to select a slate of officers for the Mahoning Valley Firemen's Association.

The committee also includes Herman McLaughlin of Cortland and William Dalrymple of Struthers.

Lew Bascom, legal adviser of the Ohio State Firemen's Association, spoke. He was introduced by John Sinkovich, president of the area group.

Midland Driver Faces Charges In Local Mishap

A Midland driver was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance as the aftermath of a collision Wednesday at 11:53 p.m. on Pennsylvania Ave. 50 feet west of Boyce St. that damaged another Midland auto, police reported.

James T. Mullen of 57-B, Midland Heights, was cited by Patrolman Charles Coen after the crash that damaged the left rear of a parked 1963 sedan owned by Pedro Lopez of Midland RD 1. Officers said Mullen was driving a 1962 model auto registered to Arthur F. Petrosky of 761 Midland Ave., Midland.

Coen said he was dispatched to the scene on a report of a hit-skip crash. A witness furnished a license number and description of the second car and it was located a short time later, parked on Washington St., he said. Mullen reported he did not stop because there was no one at the scene and added he was en route to the police station to report the crash, the officer said.

Meanwhile, Charles W. Martin, 57, of 219 Jackson St., identified himself Wednesday as the driver of a car that was involved in a collision Monday at Pennsylvania Ave. and Vine Sts. with a car operated by Doras Laine Turner, 26, of Weston, W. Va. Martin said when he backed in a traffic lane and bumped Turner's car he did not realize any damage had occurred, officers said.

Democrats Plan Dinner On Nov. 2

The annual Jefferson - Jackson Day dinner of the Columbiana County Democratic party will be held Saturday Nov. 2, at St. Paul's School in Salem, Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, chairman, said today.

Gosney said a "big name" Democrat will be the principal speaker. Details of the program will be announced within 10 days, he added.

Tickets are available from any Democratic candidate or officeholder, Gosney said. County Auditor Kenneth Bell is finance chairman for the event and Sharon Quigley is general chairman.

As the party's city chairman, James Aldon of Salem will be host chairman of the event.

Inmates Will Repeat Christmas Program

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — A program that proved to be a success last Christmas will be repeated this year by inmates of the Chillicothe Correctional Institution.

The inmates will fix up old bicycles as presents for needy Columbus children. The bicycles will be collected by the Columbus Jaycees, who delivered 289 to the prison for renovation last year.

4-H News

Officers were elected during the meeting of the Fashionettes 4-H Club Monday night at the Township Hall in Summitville.

They include: Mary Besse Carter, president; Barbara McPherson, vice president - treasurer; Pam Danner, secretary-reporter; Jackie Kireta, devotion and recreation leader, and Judie Jackson and Barbara Danner, health and safety leaders. Advisers are Mrs. George McPherson and Mrs. Roy Tolley.

The group will meet at the Township Hall Sunday afternoon at 3:45 to leave for roller skating in Minerva. The club also voted to send any member who has been in 4-H Club for eight years or longer to the advisers' banquet, with expenses paid.

Roll call was answered by a favorite 4-H project. The club will present a skit at the Franklin School Parent-Teacher Organization Monday night.

The next meeting will be Oct. 21.

2 Men Indicted In Murder, Rape Of Ohio Girl, 13

NEW YORK (AP) — Indictments were filed Wednesday against two men accused of raping and murdering a 13-year-old girl who hitchhiked from Ohio to New York wearing hippie love beads, and met her death last July in a lower East Side tenement.

The girl, Deborah Neil, had told her parents by telephone July 14 that she planned to abandon her runaway venture. The next day her body was found at the bottom of an air shaft in a Mott Street tenement. Police said she had been raped and hurled alive from a fifth-floor window.

Her body lay unidentified for two weeks, until her father, Charles B. Neil, a crane operator from Vickery, Ohio, identified the body as his daughter.

Indictments for murder, rape in the first degree, rape in the second degree and assault in the first degree were returned by a New York County grand jury against Ronald Alfo, 26, a commercial artist, and David Thomas Jr., 30, a porter. They will be arraigned later.

District Leader Addresses BPW

Encouragement to maintain the state status was voiced by Mrs. Jeanne Neighbor of Dennison, director of District 3 of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, when she paid her official visit during the dinner meeting of the local BPW Club Wednesday night at the Travelers Hotel.

Mrs. Neighbor

She pointed out the state clubs are known as the "Ohio Bombers" group "for inciting action on many worthy projects." She also reviewed plans for the fall district meeting Oct. 27 at Alliance.

Mrs. Neighbor is purchasing director with Uhrden, Inc., of Sugarcreek, a manufacturer of material handling equipment. She also served as president of the Claymont School Board, a consolidated group.

Mrs. Betty Reed, chairman of the personal development committee in charge of the meeting, introduced a "sing along," with Mrs. Ruth Wakefield leader and Mrs. Gertrude Lowe accompanist.

MISS JOAN WITT, state personal development chairman, discussed "Building A Better You," urging members "to be aware of their capabilities and their limitations, but not to sell themselves short."

In remarking that "we must accentuate the positive and eliminate the negative," Miss Witt said "we should see ourselves as others do and not through rose-colored glasses." She advised the club to be a part of the group which solves problems and not among those who create them.

Plans to observe "National Business Women's Week" were outlined by the chairman, Mrs. Faye Wright, who said the event will begin with a "Prayer Breakfast" Oct. 20 at 9 a.m. at the Pancake House in Wellsville. The group will attend services at the Wellsville United Methodist Church, where Miss Bibbee is a member.

Mrs. Wright, federation chairman, announced she is taking orders for the available BPW emblems and other items. She also is handling reservations for the Alliance conference.

In reporting on the "WRAP" program, Mrs. Mary Ruth Beebout, chairman of the civic participation committee, announced advancement of the work to stimulate "women's responsibilities for accident prevention." She named her assisting committee — Miss Karole Kapp, Mrs. Wakefield, Mrs. Mary Lou Springer, Mrs. Margaret Thompson and Miss Witt.

MISS KAPP announced the world affairs committee will meet Monday in the conference room at The Review. She requested any type of foreign apparel to be used for the November program.

Mrs. Doris McKinnon, coordinator of the Nike Club, announced a delegation from the local high school attended the dinner meeting of the newly-organized Steubenville Club Tuesday night and heard the message of the state president, Mrs. Marianne Campbell.

Progress in the organization of a Nike Club at Beaver Local High School was outlined by Mrs. Martha Blatchford, chairman. She said Edna Robinson has been named temporary chairman.

A reminder was given of the "Young Career Girl" contest to be conducted throughout the districts and state. Eligible girls must be between 18 and 27 and hold steady employment or at least for one year for those who have enrolled at colleges.

Mrs. Charlotte Cole, corresponding secretary, read an invitation from the Lisbon Club to a demonstration of Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations to be presented Nov. 7 at the Lisbon United Methodist Church.

RESERVATIONS were taken for the fall meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs Oct. 23 at Mary Patterson Memorial when the annual awards program will be featured.

Mrs. Mary McCullough, child health clinic, and Mrs. Mildred McKim, mutual service, also submitted reports.

Mrs. Eva Mills, who was named recording secretary to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Angie Frank, read the minutes. Miss Helen Auld, treasurer, gave the financial report.

Covers were arranged for 52 at tables decorated with fall flower arrangements and various color candles placed in goblets. Halloween candy cups were favors. Those who assisted Mrs. Reed with arrangements were Mrs. Dorothy Evans, Mrs. Mae Hartt, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Patricia Kapp.

"The World Around Us" will be the theme for the Nov. 13 session at the hotel.

Beter Will Announce Write-In Candidacy

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Defeated Republican gubernatorial candidate Peter D. Beter was expected to announce as a write-in candidate for governor at a news conference today.

Beter declined comment on the matter until the news conference.

The Huntington native, who registered as a Republican after deciding against filing for the Democratic nomination, sought earlier this week to get on the November ballot as the American Independent party gubernatorial candidate.

However, Secretary of State Robert Bailey told Beter the filing deadline had passed and he could only run as a write-in candidate.

Beter ran third in the May primary behind Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. and former Gov. Cecil Underwood.

Gosney Asks Sign Removal

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, said he will write a letter today to the Ohio Highway Department's Division 11 office in New Philadelphia demanding that its employes remove "all advertising signs along highway rights-of-way, not just political signs."

Gosney said an informal survey he made Wednesday in parts of the county indicates there are 2,000 to 3,000 advertising signs in the highway rights-of-way, including large billboards.

"I want them to treat everybody alike," Gosney said. "If signs are illegal inside a right-of-way, then the law applies to business signs as well as political advertising."

Gosney's hassle with the Highway Department erupted Wednesday, when he charged that county employes of the department were removing political signs on the allegation they were within the right-of-way, but allowing signs of private business to remain.

Gosney mentioned two other complaints to the New Philadelphia office that he said resulted from his sign - inspecting tour. He said he will ask the Highway Department what it intends to do "with junk cars parked within the right-of-way, some of them for the last two years," and "when are they going to stop measuring signs and begin fixing the berms?" Gosney said he made measurements yesterday along Routes 164 and 45 that showed the berm at points a foot below the level of the pavement. "That's very dangerous," he commented.

Gosney also complained Wednesday that Highway Department employes were at the Election Board office making copies of voters' names. The employes replied they were on vacation, working on their own time. Gosney asserted they were using state - owned cars and asked in his letter today: "How can these people use state cars when they are on vacation?"

East Palestine Chief On Nominating Unit

Frank Frederick, chief at East Palestine, has been named to the nominating committee to select a slate of officers for the Mahoning Valley Firemen's Association.

The committee also includes Herman McLaughlin of Cortland and William Dalrymple of Struthers.

Lew Bascom, legal adviser of the Ohio State Firemen's Association, spoke. He was introduced by John Sinkovich, president of the area group.

Midland, Wellsville, Beaver Local At Home Friday

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Midland, Wellsville and Beaver Local are all at home Friday night, while Oak Glen is away.

Midland, 3-2, hosts Burgettstown, 1-4. It's "Senior Night" at Midland. The Leopards are looking to bounce back from a 23-13 loss to Trafford last week. Safetyman Ken Williams will miss the game due to a sprained knee suffered in the loss. The Leopards starting backfield, weakened by flu last week, is ready to go this week.

The Leopards have gone 3-1 against Class B competition and lost to Beaver 13-0 in their only game against Class A opposition. Burgettstown, though Class A, shouldn't be as formidible as Beaver. Burgettstown lost to Weirton Madonna 27-14, Waynesburg 21-7, West Allegheny 20-13 and Freedom 38-20 before beating Carnegie last week 14-0. Midland coach Ivan Dye notes that Burgettstown is big and passes well. Burgettstown beat Midland last year 21-6.

Wellsville hosts Southern Local in a homecoming game. The Tigers of Howard Gilger, hampered by injuries, are 1-4 so far. The running of John Weeda has been the bright spot for Wellsville. Jerry Winstead's Southern Local team, 4-1 after a forfeit from Greenford last week, is ranked 19th among Ohio Class A teams. The Indians are led by Rich Rose, who has scored 102 points, and have veterans at almost all positions. The only common foe has been Lisbon, trounced 40-14 by Southern but a 20-12 winner over Wellsville.

11 Games In Area

Beaver Local, 3-2 after three straight shutout wins, hosts rugged East Palestine, 4-1. The Bulldogs have only a 22-21 loss to Leetonia to mar their record, while the Beavers fell 40-6 to the Bears and also dropped an 18-12 nod to Columbiana.

To add to the Beavers' problems, ace runner Jim Bowersock turned an ankle in the 12-0 win over United last week, but he is expected to be ready Friday night. Dick Bryan reports his squad in good physical shape otherwise. Slippery Joe Lewis leads the Bulldogs of Bill Offenbacker.

Oak Glen, 0-6 on the year, travels to Philippi to meet Philip Barbour, 3-2. Oak Glen beat PB at Newell last season. The Golden Bears have scored only twice all year long, and have been shut out the last four games in a row. Greg Hobbs is the leading rusher for Alan Hoover's injury-plagued team.

Tri-County League action finds Leetonia at Columbiana and Lisbon at Sebring. The Bears of Dick Hartzell suffered their first loss after four wins when they fell 24-0 to Minerva last week. Hartzell is counting on the passing combination of Ed Casey and Tim Trombitas to get Leetonia back on the winning track. Columbiana is 1-3 and was idle last week. The Clippers have not won since the season's opener.

Lisbon, 1-4, has a tough opponent in Sebring, 4-1. The Trojans have knocked off two unbeaten teams in a row, edging Poland 19-18 last week after surprising Southern 34-32 the week before. Poland handled Lisbon 20-3. East Palestine handed Sebring its lone loss, 25-8, and the Bulldogs whipped Lisbon 40-14 last week.

Crestview, 1-4, entertains powerful Jackson-Milton, 4-1, in an Inter-County League game. The Rebels' lone win was over Southington. Jackson - Milton handed North Lima its first loss last week 42-12, and is the only team to defeat Mineral Ridge. Jackson-Milton's lone loss was 20-2 to McDonald, the team that trounced Crestview 42-6 last week.

Western Beaver, 1-4, tackles Homestead, 2-3. Homestead, a Class B school, has beaten East Deer and Turtle Creek while losing to West Mifflin South, Brentwood and Oakmont.

Saturday afternoon finds South Side Beaver traveling to the Oakdale Boys Home. South Side is 2-3 after winning their last two contests by shutouts.

United, 1-4, is at Poland, 4-1, in another Saturday affair. Tony Sonagere is still sidelined for the Golden Eagles. The only common foe has been Sebring, which edged Poland 19-18 and topped United 27-20.

Tigers Get 10 In Third, Rout Cards 13-1, Force 7th Game

Gibson, Lolich Pitch Finale Today

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Mickey Lolich and Bob Gibson went into the seventh game World Series date today with a bit of apprehension and without their accustomed rest.

Gibson, ace of the St. Louis pitching staff, was to work the deciding game with three days rest instead of his usual four. Detroit's Lolich was coming back with only two days off—one less than he is used to.

Both were going for their third Series' victory and were less than delighted to be working with short rest.

"Anytime you break a routine . . . do something out of the ordinary, or something you're not used to, it will affect you somewhat," said Gibson, who beat the Tigers in the fourth game with just three days of rest.

Lolich, who won the second and fifth games, said he was surprised to be working again.

"I figured the fifth game was it," he said after the Tigers had tied the Series with a 13-1 romp behind Denny McLain Wednesday.

"I'll be able to go out there and throw," Lolich continued, "but I won't be as strong as with three days of rest.

They exploded for a record-tying 10-run third inning and McLain coasted to his first Series victory after two losses.

Jim Northrup walloped a grand slam homer—the 11th in World Series history—and Al Kaline stroked two singles, driving in three runs in the big inning. Kaline later added a homer, lifting his average in his first World Series to .440.

Kaline, with 11 hits, and Lou Brock of St. Louis with 12 both had a shot at the record for most hits in a series—13 held by Bobby Richardson of the New York Yankees, and Gibson was after a record-shattering eighth straight Series victory.

It was Kaline's first hit that drove in the Tigers' initial run in the third and knocked out starter Ray Washburn. Dick McAuliff had opened with a walk and Mickey Stanley singled him to third. After Kaline's hit brought McAuliffe home, Norm Cash, who had three hits, singled Stanley across.

Willie Horton walked, loading the bases and Northrup, who had four grand slams during the regular season, unloaded them.

Two walks and a hit batsman loaded the bases again and three straight singles by Kaline, Cash and Horton brought four more runs across.

After that, it was all downhill for McLain.

Slump-Breaking Hit Gives Freehan Lift

ST. LOUIS (AP) — One of the happiest players in the Detroit dressing room after the Tigers' 13-1 World Series romp over St. Louis Wednesday was Bill Freehan.

The big catcher didn't knock in four runs, as did both Jim Northrup and Al Kaline. But he did get a hit to end an 0-for-16 hitting slump through the first five Series games.

How did it feel? "Great!" said the burly catcher.

His locker had letters and telegrams taped all around it with advice from fans on how to come out of his batting slump.

"One guy had me move six inches closer to the plate," Freehan added with a grin. "That would put me right in the middle of it. I think he was trying to tell me something."

"It sure gave him a big lift," said Manager Mayo Smith of Freehan's drive, a single in the second inning that drove in a run.

Ace St. Louis pitcher Bob Gibson was scheduled to face Mickey Lolich. Both have won two Series games.

Denny McLain, Wednesday's winner, who received a shot of cortisone to relieve the pain in his aching right shoulder Monday, was not named to start until just prior to game time.

"I think he got better as he went along," said Freehan, "but I think his arm was still stiff."

Norm Cash, who was 3-for-4 with two runs batted in, was hitting .333 in the Series before Wednesday's performance.

One of the few problems encountered by the Tigers was the infield. McAuliffe appeared to have easy plays on two grounders, only to have them bounce over his head at the last minute for singles.

"They played football on it Sunday," said Smith, referring to the St. Louis Cardinals football team.

The Series closely resembles last year's match between St. Louis and Boston. Boston was down 3-1 and came back to win the next two games, only to lose the finale to Gibson.

The Tigers were down three games to one and were to meet Gibson for the last match.

Cardinals Confident With Gibson Pitching

By CHARLIE BAROUH

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals seemed pretty happy in their dressing room Wednesday although they had lost.

Manager Red Schoendienst even managed to laugh about the World Series-record 10 runs the Detroit Tigers scored in the third inning on their way to a 13-1 victory.

"Everything happened out there," Schoendienst said. "Every time they (the Tigers) swung a bat there was a hit. Or else we walked them or hit them. We hit two guys, geez."

"After they score 12 or 13 runs you just say to yourself let's get it over before somebody gets hurt," Maxvill said.

One reason for the lack of gloom in the clubhouse was that most of the luckless relief pitchers had dressed and gone while the game was delayed by rain in the eighth inning.

"Listen, nobody has told me I'm going to pitch," said Bob Gibson, who has won two games for the Cardinals and was due to start today.

Bowersock Beaver Local Back Of Week

Jim Bowersock, who made an amazing return of a punt for a touchdown, was named offensive back of the week by Beaver Local coaches after they viewed the films of the United Local game.

End Gary Klembara was named offensive lineman of the week for his blocking. Dave Doak was named defensive back of the week for tackling from his halfback position and Lew Brown was named defensive lineman of the week for tackling from his linebacker position.

Midland, Wellsville, Beaver Local At Home Friday

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Midland, Wellsville and Beaver Local are all at home Friday night, while Oak Glen is away.

Midland, 3-2, hosts Burgettstown, 1-4. It's "Senior Night" at Midland. The Leopards are looking to bounce back from a 23-13 loss to Trafford last week. Safetyman Ken Williams will miss the game due to a sprained knee suffered in the loss. The Leopards starting backfield, weakened by flu last week, is ready to go this week.

The Leopards have gone 3-1 against Class B competition and lost to Beaver 13-0 in their only game against Class A opposition. Burgettstown, though Class A, shouldn't be as formidible as Beaver. Burgettstown lost to Weirton Madonna 27-14, Waynesburg 21-7, West Allegheny 20-13 and Freedom 38-20 before beating Carnegie last week 14-0. Midland coach Ivan Dye notes that Burgettstown is big and passes well. Burgettstown beat Midland last year 21-6.

Wellsville hosts Southern Local in a homecoming game. The Tigers of Howard Gilger, hampered by injuries, are 1-4 so far. The running of John Weeda has been the bright spot for Wellsville. Jerry Winstead's Southern Local team, 4-1 after a forfeit from Greenford last week, is ranked 19th among Ohio Class A teams. The Indians are led by Rich Rose, who has scored 102 points, and have veterans at almost all positions. The only common foe has been Lisbon, trounced 40-14 by Southern but a 20-12 winner over Wellsville.

11 Games In Area

Beaver Local, 3-2 after three straight shutout wins, hosts rugged East Palestine, 4-1. The Bulldogs have only a 22-21 loss to Leetonia to mar their record, while the Beavers fell 40-6 to the Bears and also dropped an 18-12 nod to Columbiana.

To add to the Beavers' problems, ace runner Jim Bowersock turned an ankle in the 12-0 win over United last week, but he is expected to be ready Friday night. Dick Bryan reports his squad in good physical shape otherwise. Slippery Joe Lewis leads the Bulldogs of Bill Offenbacker.

Oak Glen, 0-6 on the year, travels to Philippi to meet Philip Barbour, 3-2. Oak Glen beat PB at Newell last season. The Golden Bears have scored only twice all year long, and have been shut out the last four games in a row. Greg Hobbs is the leading rusher for Alan Hoover's injury-plagued team.

Tri-County League action finds Leetonia at Columbiana and Lisbon at Sebring. The Bears of Dick Hartzell suffered their first loss after four wins when they fell 24-0 to Minerva last week. Hartzell is counting on the passing combination of Ed Casey and Tim Trombitas to get Leetonia back on the winning track. Columbiana is 1-3 and was idle last week. The Clippers have not won since the season's opener.

Lisbon, 1-4, has a tough opponent in Sebring, 4-1. The Trojans have knocked off two unbeaten teams in a row, edging Poland 19-18 last week after surprising Southern 34-32 the week before. Poland handled Lisbon 20-3. East Palestine handed Sebring its lone loss, 25-8, and the Bulldogs whipped Lisbon 40-14 last week.

Crestview, 1-4, entertains powerful Jackson-Milton, 4-1, in an Inter-County League game. The Rebels' lone win was over Southington. Jackson - Milton handed North Lima its first loss last week 42-12, and is the only team to defeat Mineral Ridge. Jackson-Milton's lone loss was 20-2 to McDonald, the team that trounced Crestview 42-6 last week.

Western Beaver, 1-4, tackles Homestead, 2-3. Homestead, a Class B school, has beaten East Deer and Turtle Creek while losing to West Mifflin South, Brentwood and Oakmont.

Saturday afternoon finds South Side Beaver traveling to the Oakdale Boys Home. South Side is 2-3 after winning their last two contests by shutouts.

United, 1-4, is at Poland, 4-1, in another Saturday affair. Tony Sonagere is still sidelined for the Golden Eagles. The only common foe has been Sebring, which edged Poland 19-18 and topped United 27-20.

Gibson, Lolich Pitch Finale Today

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Mickey Lolich and Bob Gibson went into the seventh game World Series date today with a bit of apprehension and without their accustomed rest.

Gibson, ace of the St. Louis pitching staff, was to work the deciding game with three days rest instead of his usual four. Detroit's Lolich was coming back with only two days off—one less than he is used to.

Both were going for their third Series' victory and were less than delighted to be working with short rest.

"Anytime you break a routine . . . do something out of the ordinary, or something you're not used to, it will affect you somewhat," said Gibson, who beat the Tigers in the fourth game with just three days of rest.

Lolich, who won the second and fifth games, said he was surprised to be working again.

"I figured the fifth game was it," he said after the Tigers had tied the Series with a 13-1 romp behind Denny McLain Wednesday.

"I'll be able to go out there and throw," Lolich continued, "but I won't be as strong as with three days of rest.

They exploded for a record-tying 10-run third inning and McLain coasted to his first Series victory after two losses.

Jim Northrup walloped a grand slam homer—the 11th in World Series history—and Al Kaline stroked two singles, driving in three runs in the big inning. Kaline later added a homer, lifting his average in his first World Series to .440.

Kaline, with 11 hits, and Lou Brock of St. Louis with 12 both had a shot at the record for most hits in a series—13 held by Bobby Richardson of the New York Yankees, and Gibson was after a record-shattering eighth straight Series victory.

It was Kaline's first hit that drove in the Tigers' initial run in the third and knocked out starter Ray Washburn. Dick McAuliff had opened with a walk and Mickey Stanley singled him to third. After Kaline's hit brought McAuliffe home, Norm Cash, who had three hits, singled Stanley across.

Willie Horton walked, loading the bases and Northrup, who had four grand slams during the regular season, unloaded them.

Two walks and a hit batsman loaded the bases again and three straight singles by Kaline, Cash and Horton brought four more runs across.

After that, it was all downhill for McLain.

Warren WR's Strahm Cited For Coaching Job

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — When you're handing out accolades for a superb coaching job, don't forget to include the name of Dick Strahm.

Strahm, who learned his football at the University of Toledo, where he earned B.A. and M.A. degrees, is head coach of Warren Western Reserve High School.

When Western Reserve started football only three years ago, Strahm took over the reins, literally from scratch. The Raiders had a surprisingly good 5-5 season and last year gave strong indications of becoming a state high school power with a 9-1 record.

When the Raiders whipped sister public school Warren Harding last Friday, 14-6, it was evident that Western Reserve had arrived.

The Raiders vaulted into the No. 6 slot in The Associated Press weekly poll, the first time the school had ever broken into the charmed circle.

Strahm has his club going at a 5-0 clip but knows his team's lofty position won't be easy to retain.

Once - beaten East Liverpool is Western's challenge on Saturday and then the Warren club must face potent Niles McKinley the following week.

But Strahm already has made an impressive mark and Western Reserve lucky to have him.

N. Dakota St. Gaining On San Diego St.

By The Associated Press

Unbeaten San Diego State held on to first place today in The Associated Press' small college football poll, but North Dakota State made a dent in the Aztecs' once big lead.

San Diego State, 3-0, idle last weekend, nailed down nine of the 15 first-place votes in picking up 278 points in the balloting by a regional panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

North Dakota State, 4-0 after whipping South Dakota 35-13, had only one top vote, but used second ballot strength to amass 208 points. A week ago, the Aztecs held a 112-point advantage over the Bison.

Eastern Kentucky, which nipped Austin Peay 21-20 for its third straight, remained third while idle Northern Michigan 4-0, held on to fourth.

New Mexico Highlands, 4-0, moved from eighth to fifth after stopping Adams State 28-6. No. 6 Texas A&I, 3-0, and No. 7 Weber State, 3-0, traded places from a week ago and Lenoir Rhyne slipped from fifth to eighth despite a 67-29 blasting of Newberry.

Morgan State 2-0, moved from 13th to ninth and Western Kentucky 3-0, advanced from 16th to 10th.

Rounding out the Top 20 in order are Arkansas State, Louisiana Tech, Tennessee, A&I State, Trinity, Tex., and Indiana, Pa., in a 14th-place tie, Tampa, Chattanooga, Illinois State, Wittenburg and Fairmont, W.Va.

Chattanooga, Illinois State and Wittenburg are newcomers to the rankings this week, replacing dropouts Akron, Eastern Washington and Texas-Arlington.

The top 20, with first-place votes, records and total points (Points awarded for first 15 picks on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-etc.):

1.	San Diego State (9)	278
2.	No. Dakota State (1)	208
3.	Eastern Kentucky	151
4.	Northern Michigan (1)	115
5.	New Mexico Highlands	114
6.	Texas A&I (1)	112
7.	Weber State	104
8.	Lenoir Rhyne (1)	100
9.	Morgan State	67
10.	Western Kentucky (1)	66
11.	Arkansas State	50
12.	Louisiana Tech	48
13.	Tennessee A&I State	47
14.	(tie) Trinity, Tex. Indiana, Pa. (1)	44
16.	Tampa	34
17.	Chattanooga	29
18.	Illinois State	27
19.	Wittenburg	26
20.	Fairmont, W.Va.	25

YOUR CAR

By Al Green

HEAR ABOUT THE MAN WHO LOCKED HIS KEYS inside his brand new car. He called the local dealership to bring down a set of master keys to open the car. "And hurry," he said. "It's going to rain and I left the top down!"

ALL 1969 CARS PUT OUT BY ONE BIG THREE maker has new one-way odometers. They can't be turned backwards to reduce the number of miles showing. Several states do have laws supporting this.

HAVE YOU DRIVEN THE 1969 MERCURY YET? If not, stop by very soon here at AL GREEN LINCOLN-MERCURY, PENN. AVE., EAST END and test drive the model of your choice. You'll love all of them for 1969, so take one out on a quick driving date, you may decide to go steady. Stop by very soon and drive Mercury!

WHAT CAR SELLS BEST IN CANADA? Here's the list for the first eight months of 1968: Ford first, Chevrolet second, Pontiac third, Dodge fourth and Plymouth fifth. Then came Buick, Oldsmobile, Volkswagen, Mercury and Chrysler in that order.

WANT A "TOO HOT" INDICATOR ON YOUR CAR besides the idiot light! There's one out. It's a solid-state heat sensor that triggers a buzzer when your car's engine reaches the heat danger point. We don't stock them, but they cost about $10 and attach to a head bolt to pick up heat measurement. Reliable, easy to install.

Doc Blanchard Flying Planes In Viet Nam

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP) — On and off the football field, North Carolinas sophomore end Tony Blanchard has people ask him about his father, the famed Doc Blanchard of Army football.

"He's still piloting planes in Vietnam, says Tony. "The last word I got was that my father will return home in January.

Warren Favored 4-3

Yogis Go Against Potters, Rams, Browns Picked 4-3

For the first time this season, the Review Grid Yogis had numerous differences of opinion among themselves.

On three games, there were 4-3 splits, including the East Liverpool - Warren Western Reserve game, where the group went against the Potters. Co-leaders Turk Pierce and Chuck Campbell had a difference of opinion on this contest, with Pierce sticking with the shaky consensus and Campbell, along with Ed Clutter and Pete Weaver, taking East Liverpool.

The other 4-3 splits saw the Rams picked over the Packers and the Browns taken over the Cards. Clutter, Weaver and Rose Nuzzo took the Packers and Nuzzo, Bob Duffy and Bob Shaffer took the Cards.

Clutter went out on a limb with Oak Glen against Philip Barbour and Ohio Sate against Purdue. Duffy was alone in taking UCLA against Penn State.

In unanimous choices, Midland was selected over Burgettstown, Southern Local over Wellsville, East Palestine over Beaver Local and Leetonia over Columbiana.

Cuozzo, Kapp Share NFL Honors

By PAT THOMPSON

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (AP) — Gary Cuozzo and Joe Kapp talked about team play Wednesday when informed they were named by The Associated Press as National Football League Offensive Players of the Week.

The Minnesota Vikings' quarterbacks spearheaded a 24-10 victory over the Detroit Lions Sunday. The win boosted the Vikings into sole possession of first place of the Central Division with a 3-1 record.

"These things honors are nice to get," Kapp said after being told of the award. "The only thing we're concerned about is winning the football game."

Kapp was knocked dizzy in the first half by Detroit tacklers but returned in the second half to spark the Vikings to two fourth-quarter touchdowns.

Cuozzo said he stayed in after his injury because Minnesota "had some momentum going... we were starting to move. I didn't want to break up the drive and, besides, I knew Joe was pretty rocky on the sidelines."

Kapp said after the game he remembered little of his play during the game. But he said Wednesday, the victory was well in his mind.

Vikings' Coach Bud Grant has singled out Cuozzo's courage as providing an inspiration for the other Minnesota players at half-time.

Red Wings Get Goalie Sawchuk

DETROIT (AP) — Former All-Star goalie Terry Sawchuk is returning to the Detroit Red Wings for the third time in his 18-year National Hockey League career.

The 38-year-old Sawchuk was obtained by the Wings Wednesday from the Los Angeles Kings in a trade for forward Jimmy Peters, 24, who scored five goals in 45 games for Detroit last year.

The Wings already have two goalies on the club—Roger Crozier, himself an All-Star goaltender, and Roy Edwards.

It was not immdiately known how Sawchuk would fit into the club's plans. The NHL allows a team to have three goalies on the roster, but it can dress only two.

He began his NHL career with the Red Wings in 1950 and was named Rookie of the Year. In 1955 Sawchuk was traded to Boston but after two seasons came back to Detroit in another trade. After seven more seasons with Detroit, he was drafted by Toronto in 1964.

End Runs 5:14 Mile

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Ron Lowry, a former trackman from Chesapeake, Va., showed early that he was in shape for the football season at North Carolina.

The defensive end ran the fastest mile the first day of fall practice. He was timed in 5:14. Guard Mike Working of McDonough, Md., was the second fastest.

Sports Quiz

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answers may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesdays.

Jack Vodrey of Park Blvd. returned to form this week, missing only part of one question. Vodrey knew that Gil Hodges of the 1952 Dodgers went 0-21 in the World Series, but didn't note that Jack Murray of the 1911 Giants also went 0-21.

Vodrey knew Grover Cleveland Alexander fanned Lazzeri, that Mordecai Brown of the 1906-07 Cubs was known as "Three-Finger", that Bobby Brown of the Yankees was the hitting doctor, that 92,706 in the LA Coliseum on Oct 5, 1959 to see the White Sox and Dodgers is the all-time series record crowd, that St. Louis in 1944 and Chicago in 1906 held "subway series", that Roger Peckinbaugh, Washington shortstop in 1925, made a series record eight errors and that Freddie Lindstrom of the Giants, playing third base, had two balls hit pebbles and bounce over his head Oct. 10, 1924 in a loss to Washington. Vodrey also specified correctly that the last time a series was played without a travel day was in 1956 and the last time a series was played in four days was 1954. Question 10 was obliterated by a typographical error.

This week's questions:

1. What was the longest game by innings in World Series history?
2. Who hit into the only unassisted triple play in World Series history?
3. Who was once disqualified from the Olympic marathon race by getting a 10-mile lift in a car?
4. When were the Olympics celebrated in the Southern Hemisphere?
5. A statue of what Olympic figure stands outside the stadium in Helsinki, Finland, where the 1952 Olympics were held?
6. What city was once awarded the Olympics but then voluntarily forfeited the privilege?
7. What U.S. Olympic basketball player once high-jumped 6-9¼?
8. What three players performed for the U.S. basketball team in two different Olympics?
9. What was the score of the final game for the first Olympic basketball championship?
10. Who was the last U.S. fighter to win the Olympic flyweight title?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — When you're handing out accolades for a superb coaching job, don't forget to include the name of Dick Strahm.

Strahm, who learned his football at the University of Toledo, where he earned B.A. and M.A. degrees, is head coach of Warren Western Reserve High School.

When Western Reserve started football only three years ago, Strahm took over the reins, literally from scratch. The Raiders had a surprisingly good 5-5 season and last year gave strong indications of becoming a state high school power with a 9-1 record.

When the Raiders whipped sister public school Warren Harding last Friday, 14-6, it was evident that Western Reserve had arrived.

The Raiders vaulted into the No. 6 slot in The Associated Press weekly poll, the first time the school had ever broken into the charmed circle.

Strahm has his club going at a 5-0 clip but knows his team's lofty position won't be easy to retain.

Once - beaten East Liverpool is Western's challenge on Saturday and then the Warren club must face potent Niles McKinley the following week.

But Strahm already has made an impressive mark and Western Reserve lucky to have him.

N. Dakota St. Gaining On San Diego St.

By The Associated Press

Unbeaten San Diego State held on to first place today in The Associated Press' small college football poll, but North Dakota State made a dent in the Aztecs' once big lead.

San Diego State, 3-0, idle last weekend, nailed down nine of the 15 first-place votes in picking up 278 points in the balloting by a regional panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

North Dakota State, 4-0 after whipping South Dakota 35-13, had only one top vote, but used second ballot strength to amass 208 points. A week ago, the Aztecs held a 112-point advantage over the Bison.

Eastern Kentucky, which nipped Austin Peay 21-20 for its third straight, remained third while idle Northern Michigan 4-0, held on to fourth.

New Mexico Highlands, 4-0, moved from eighth to fifth after stopping Adams State 28-6. No. 6 Texas A&I, 3-0, and No. 7 Weber State, 3-0, traded places from a week ago and Lenoir Rhyne slipped from fifth to eighth despite a 67-29 blasting of Newberry.

Morgan State 2-0, moved from 13th to ninth and Western Kentucky 3-0, advanced from 16th to 10th.

Rounding out the Top 20 in order are Arkansas State, Louisiana Tech, Tennessee, A&I State, Trinity, Tex., and Indiana, Pa., in a 14th-place tie. Tampa, Chattanooga, Illinois State, Wittenburg and Fairmont, W.Va.

Chattanooga, Illinois State and Wittenburg are newcomers to the rankings this week, replacing dropouts Akron, Eastern Washington and Texas-Arlington.

The top 20, with first-place votes, records and total points (Points awarded for first 15 picks on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-etc.):

1.	San Diego State (9)	278
2.	No. Dakota State (1)	208
3.	Eastern Kentucky	151
4.	Northern Michigan (1)	115
5.	New Mexico Highlands	114
6.	Texas A&I (1)	112
7.	Weber State	104
8.	Lenoir Rhyne (1)	100
9.	Morgan State	67
10.	Western Kentucky (1)	66
11.	Arkansas State	50
12.	Louisiana Tech	48
13.	Tennessee A&I State	47
14.	(tie) Trinity, Tex.	44
	Indiana, Pa. (1)	44
16.	Tampa	34
17.	Chattanooga	29
18.	Illinois State	27
19.	Wittenburg	26
20.	Fairmont, W.Va.	25

YOUR CAR

By Al Green

HEAR ABOUT THE MAN WHO LOCKED HIS KEYS inside his brand new car. He called the local dealership to bring down a set of master keys to open the car. "And hurry," he said. "It's going to rain and I left the top down!"

ALL 1969 CARS PUT OUT BY ONE BIG THREE maker has new one-way odometers. They can't be turned backwards to reduce the number of miles showing. Several states do have laws supporting this.

HAVE YOU DRIVEN THE 1969 MERCURY YET? If not, stop by very soon here at AL GREEN LINCOLN-MERCURY, PENN. AVE., EAST END and test drive the model of your choice. You'll love all of them for 1969, so take one out on a quick driving date, you may decide to go steady. Stop by very soon and drive Mercury!

WHAT CAR SELLS BEST IN CANADA? Here's the list for the first eight months of 1968: Ford first, Chevrolet second, Pontiac third, Dodge fourth and Plymouth fifth. Then came Buick, Oldsmobile, Volkswagen, Mercury and Chrysler in that order.

WANT A "TOO HOT" INDICATOR ON YOUR CAR besides the idiot light! There's one out. It's a solid-state heat sensor that triggers a buzzer when your car's engine reaches the heat danger point. We don't stock them, but they cost about $10 and attach to a head bolt to pick up heat measurement. Reliable, easy to install.

Doc Blanchard Flying Planes In Viet Nam

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP) — On and off the football field, North Carolinas sophomore end Tony Blanchard has people ask him about his father, the famed Doc Blanchard of Army football.

"He's still piloting planes in Vietnam, says Tony. "The last word I got was that my father will return home in January.

Warren Favored 4-3

Yogis Go Against Potters, Rams, Browns Picked 4-3

For the first time this season, the Review Grid Yogis had numerous differences of opinion among themselves.

On three games, there were 4-3 splits, including the East Liverpool - Warren Western Reserve game, where the group went against the Potters. Co-leaders Turk Pierce and Chuck Campbell had a difference of opinion on this contest, with Pierce sticking with the shaky consensus and Campbell, along with Ed Clutter and Pete Weaver, taking East Liverpool.

The other 4-3 splits saw the Rams picked over the Packers and the Browns taken over the Cards. Clutter, Weaver and Rose Nuzzo took the Packers and Nuzzo, Bob Duffy and Bob Shaffer took the Cards.

Clutter went out on a limb with Oak Glen against Philip Barbour and Ohio Sate against Purdue. Duffy was alone in taking UCLA against Penn State.

In unanimous choices, Midland was selected over Burgettstown, Southern Local over Wellsville, East Palestine over Beaver Local and Leetonia over Columbiana.

Cuozzo, Kapp Share NFL Honors

By PAT THOMPSON

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (AP) — Gary Cuozzo and Joe Kapp talked about team play Wednesday when informed they were named by The Associated Press as National Football League Offensive Players of the Week.

The Minnesota Vikings' quarterbacks spearheaded a 24-10 victory over the Detroit Lions Sunday. The win boosted the Vikings into sole possession of first place of the Central Division with a 3-1 record.

"These things honors are nice to get," Kapp said after being told of the award. "The only thing we're concerned about is winning the football game."

Kapp was knocked dizzy in the first half by Detroit tacklers but returned in the second half to spark the Vikings to two fourth-quarter touchdowns.

Cuozzo's clavicle snapped at the start of a 79-yard TD drive in the second period, but he remained in the game for 15 plays.

They are the only two quarterbacks on the Vikings team.

Cuozzo said he stayed in after his injury because Minnesota "had some momentum going... we were starting to move. I didn't want to break up the drive and, besides, I knew Joe was pretty rocky on the sidelines."

Kapp said after the game he remembered little of his play during the game. But he said Wednesday, the victory was well in his mind.

Vikings' Coach Bud Grant has singled out Cuozzo's courage as providing an inspiration for the other Minnesota players at half-time.

Red Wings Get Goalie Sawchuk

DETROIT (AP) — Former All-Star goalie Terry Sawchuk is returning to the Detroit Red Wings for the third time in his 18-year National Hockey League career.

The 38-year-old Sawchuk was obtained by the Wings Wednesday from the Los Angeles Kings in a trade for forward Jimmy Peters, 24, who scored five goals in 45 games for Detroit last year.

The Wings already have two goalies on the club—Roger Crozier, himself an All-Star goaltender, and Roy Edwards.

It was not immdiately known how Sawchuk would fit into the club's plans. The NHL allows a team to have three goalies on the roster, but it can dress only two.

He began his NHL career with the Red Wings in 1950 and was named Rookie of the Year. In 1955 Sawchuk was traded to Boston but after two seasons came back to Detroit in another trade. After seven more seasons with Detroit, he was drafted by Toronto in 1964.

End Runs 5:14 Mile

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Ron Lowry, a former trackman from Chesapeake, Va., showed early that he was in shape for the football season at North Carolina.

The defensive end ran the fastest mile the first day of fall practice. He was timed in 5:14. Guard Mike Working of McDonough, Md., was the second fastest.

Sports Quiz

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answers may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesdays.

Jack Vodrey of Park Blvd. returned to form this week, missing only part of one question. Vodrey knew that Gil Hodges of the 1952 Dodgers went 0-21 in the World Series, but didn't note that Jack Murray of the 1911 Giants also went 0-21.

Vodrey knew Grover Cleveland Alexander fanned Lazzeri, that Mordecai Brown of the 1906-07 Cubs was known as "Three-Finger", that Bobby Brown of the Yankees was the hitting doctor, that 92,706 in the LA Coliseum on Oct 5, 1959 to see the White Sox and Dodgers is the all-time series record crowd, that St. Louis in 1944 and Chicago in 1906 held "subway series", that Roger Peckinbaugh, Washington shortstop in 1925, made a series record eight errors and that Freddie Lindstrom of the Giants, playing third base, had two balls hit pebbles and bounce over his head Oct. 10, 1924 in a loss to Washington. Vodrey also specified correctly that the last time a series was played without a travel day was in 1956 and the last time a series was played in four days was 1954. Question 10 was obliterated by a typographical error.

This week's questions:

1. What was the longest game by innings in World Series history?
2. Who hit into the only unassisted triple play in World Series history?
3. Who was once disqualified from the Olympic marathon race by getting a 10-mile lift in a car?
4. When were the Olympics celebrated in the Southern Hemisphere?
5. A statue of what Olympic figure stands outside the stadium in Helsinki, Finland, where the 1952 Olympics were held?
6. What city was once awarded the Olympics but then voluntarily forfeited the privilege?
7. What U.S. Olympic basketball player once high-jumped 6-9¼?
8. What three players performed for the U.S. basketball team in two different Olympics?
9. What was the score of the final game for the first Olympic basketball championship?
10. Who was the last U.S. fighter to win the Olympic flyweight title?

Jumping To Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

You can always tell a newly made millionaire by his willingness to tell one and all how to get rich. He is free with his advice. But the people who have old money simply cluch their wealth silently and keep their money secrets to themselves.

In a world where everything seems to be flying apart, simply holding things together would appear to be a highly necessary function. But it is a job that gets small credit. No one yet has built a monument to the paper clip.

It is usually a good idea to take along a couple of antacid pills for your stomach if you've been invited to dinner in a home where the husband does the cooking while the wife entertains the guests with her views on politics.

Whoever set the date for the national election had a great sense of timing—it's too late for a Halloween prank and too early for Thanksgiving.

It's fashionable now among Greenwich Village oddballs to buy police dogs to protect them. This assignment must be hard on a police dog's self-respect. Probably most of them, given a choice, would rather pound a beat on Staten Island.

Hollywood is a place where the marriages are so brief that, if one partner gets a cold, the divorce comes before the other person can catch it.

A fellow's opinion of whether a girl should wear miniskirts generally depends on whether he feels she has the right flagpoles to fly them.

We pay lip-service to good sports, but actually we all rather admire good haters, too. The best hater I know is one who is trying to get revenge on a waiter who snooted him. Once a week he goes to the restaurant and orders a flaming dish. "Sooner or later that waiter is going to set himself on fire," he says. "And when it happens I want to be there—and decide whether to throw cold water on him or not. It'll be a tough decision."

The taxpayer feels he is the forgotten man of our times, but at least there's one guy who never forgets him. Unfortunately, he's the tax collector.

Autumn has its blessings to the palate as well as to the eye. At last we can put away the portable outdoor charcoal grill, come indoors and find out again what real food tastes like.

The curved tail of the sea horse is used for holding onto narrow blades of turtle grass or seaweed, which they do most of the time.

10-Day Term Given Driver

Charles L. Leslie, 40, of the Sprucevale Rd. was sentenced to a 10-day term in County Jail when he pleaded guilty today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of driving without an operator's permit.

Questioned by the court, Leslie said he has tried unsuccessfully to pass the driver's exam, but added: "I can't read or write." He said he needed to drive to get to his job at a junk yard. He said he has been driving about a year.

Police said Leslie was arrested Wednesday at 5:36 p. m. on Pennsylvania Ave.

Meanwhile, Larry R. Jackson, 20, of 824 Pennsylvania Ave. was ordered to pay court costs on a charge of driving an auto without a muffler. Jackson pleaded guilty to the charge Monday and was granted a continuance until today to junk the car. He presented written confirmation of the sale of the car.

Jackson was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Sunday at 12:55 p.m. on Route 7. The patrol said the car also had four bald tires, no turn signals, no rear bumper, defective tail lights and windshield wipers and no license plate light.

James T. Mullen of 57-B, Midland Heights, Midland, forfeited a $32.50 bond on a charge of failure to stop within the assured clear distance. He was cited late Wednesday night after his car struck a parked auto on Pennsylvania Ave. near Boyce St.

'Apple Bombers' Break Windows At Lisbon High

LISBON — "Apple bombers" broke 11 windows at David Anderson High School Wednesday night, Principal George M. Nace Jr. has reported.

He also told Chief of Police Leon T. Zahrndt someone in a light-colored car threw apples at his house about 2 a.m.

Ten of the broken windows are on the west side of the school and the other on the north side.

Local police were alerted about 1 a.m. by the sheriff's department to be on the lookout for a dark-colored car. Paul Vincent of Miller Rd. notified the sheriff minutes before that a dark convertible stopped in front of his house and a youth threw an apple through his window.

Clarence Frantz of 436 W. Washington St. notified police at 4:22 a.m. that he was awakened by a noise and looked outside to see two youths load his daughter's new bicycle into a light-colored car. He said the car went east on Washington without lights.

Ohio Firm Cited On Price Fixing And Rigging Bids

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Hobart Manufacturing Co. of Troy, Ohio and the Bensinger Co. of St. Louis were indicted by a federal grand jury Wednesday for conspiring to fix prices and rig bids on the sale of dishwashing equipment to a St. Louis restaurant.

Hobart, a worldwide supplier of kitchen machinery, had sales of nearly $200 million is 1967 through franchised dealers. Bensinger holds a Hobart franchise.

U. S. Atty. Very Riddle said Hobart and Bensinger combined to exclude Almar Interior Design and Equipment, Inc. of St. Louis, from submitting a competitive bid to Trader Vic's restaurant in the Bel Air East motel.

Riddle said the Bel Air invited bids from Bensinger. Almar and Southern Equipment Co. in August, 1967.

Riddle said the indictment charges that Bensinger gave Almar figures for its bid, inspected the bid and forwarded it to the Bel Air.

1 Killed, 1 Injured As Antenna Hits Line

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — A television antenna touched a high voltage power line here Wednesday, killing one worker and injuring another.

William R. Vencill, 24, of Ironton was electrocuted. Floyd Roe, 22, of Portsmouth, who was helping install the antenna at a house, was reported in fair condition at Mercy Hospital later.

175 At Dedication Of 'Mill Creek Room'

More than 175 attended a dedication of the Mill Creek Valley Historical Society room at the Pennsylvania State University campus at Monaca Wednesday.

The room will be opened to the public Wednesdays from 2 to 4 p.m. and by appointment.

Jumping To Conclusions

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

You can always tell a newly made millionaire by his willingness to tell one and all how to get rich. He is free with his advice. But the people who have old money simply cluch their wealth silently and keep their money secrets to themselves.

In a world where everything seems to be flying apart, simply holding things together would appear to be a highly necessary function. But it is a job that gets small credit. No one yet has built a monument to the paper clip.

Whoever set the date for the national election had a great sense of timing—it's too late for a Halloween prank and too early for Thanksgiving.

It's fashionable now among Greenwich Village oddballs to buy police dogs to protect them. This assignment must be hard on a police dog's self-respect. Probably most of them, given a choice, would rather pound a beat on Staten Island.

Hollywood is a place where the marriages are so brief that, if one partner gets a cold, the divorce comes before the other person can catch it.

A fellow's opinion of whether a girl should wear miniskirts generally depends on whether he feels she has the right flagpoles to fly them.

We pay lip-service to good sports, but actually we all rather admire good haters, too. The best hater I know is one who is trying to get revenge on a waiter who snooted him. Once a week he goes to the restaurant and orders a flaming dish. "Sooner or later that waiter is going to set himself on fire," he says. "And when it happens I want to be there—and decide whether to throw cold water on him or not. It'll be a tough decision."

The taxpayer feels he is the forgotten man of our times, but at least there's one guy who never forgets him. Unfortunately, he's the tax collector.

10-Day Term Given Driver

Charles L. Leslie, 40, of the Sprucevale Rd. was sentenced to a 10-day term in County Jail when he pleaded guilty today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of driving without an operator's permit.

Questioned by the court, Leslie said he has tried unsuccessfully to pass the driver's exam, but added: "I can't read or write." He said he needed to drive to get to his job at a junk yard. He said he has been driving about a year.

Imposing the sentence, the judge told Leslie: "You know you shouldn't drive. You took a chance and you lost."

Police said Leslie was arrested Wednesday at 5:36 p. m. on Pennsylvania Ave.

Meanwhile, Larry R. Jackson, 20, of 824 Pennsylvania Ave. was ordered to pay court costs on a charge of driving an auto without a muffler. Jackson pleaded guilty to the charge Monday and was granted a continuance until today to junk the car. He presented written confirmation of the sale of the car.

Jackson was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Sunday at 12:55 p.m. on Route 7. The patrol said the car also had four bald tires, no turn signals, no rear bumper, defective tail lights and windshield wipers and no license plate light.

James T. Mullen of 57-B, Midland Heights, Midland, forfeited a $32.50 bond on a charge of failure to stop within the assured clear distance. He was cited late Wednesday night after his car struck a parked auto on Pennsylvania Ave. near Boyce St.

'Apple Bombers' Break Windows At Lisbon High

LISBON — "Apple bombers" broke 11 windows at David Anderson High School Wednesday night, Principal George M. Nace Jr. has reported.

He also told Chief of Police Leon T. Zahrndt someone in a light-colored car threw apples at his house about 2 a.m.

Ten of the broken windows are on the west side of the school and the other on the north side.

Local police were alerted about 1 a.m. by the sheriff's department to be on the lookout for a dark-colored car. Paul Vincent of Miller Rd. notified the sheriff minutes before that a dark convertible stopped in front of his house and a youth threw an apple through his window.

Clarence Frantz of 436 W. Washington St. notified police at 4:22 a.m. that he was awakened by a noise and looked outside to see two youths load his daughter's new bicycle into a light-colored car. He said the car went east on Washington without lights.

Ohio Firm Cited On Price Fixing And Rigging Bids

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Hobart Manufacturing Co. of Troy, Ohio and the Bensinger Co. of St. Louis were indicted by a federal grand jury Wednesday for conspiring to fix prices and rig bids on the sale of dishwashing equipment to a St. Louis restaurant.

The indictment alleged Hobart "coerced and forced" a small dealer to submit a higher bid dictated by Bensinger.

Hobart, a worldwide supplier of kitchen machinery, had sales of nearly $200 million is 1967 through franchised dealers. Bensinger holds a Hobart franchise.

U. S. Atty. Very Riddle said Hobart and Bensinger combined to exclude Almar Interior Design and Equipment, Inc. of St. Louis, from submitting a competitive bid to Trader Vic's restaurant in the Bel Air East motel.

Riddle said the Bel Air invited bids from Bensinger, Almar and Southern Equipment Co. in August, 1967.

Riddle said the indictment charges that Bensinger gave Almar figures for its bid, inspected the bid and forwarded it to the Bel Air.

1 Killed, 1 Injured As Antenna Hits Line

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — A television antenna touched a high voltage power line here Wednesday, killing one worker and injuring another.

William R. Vencill, 24, of Ironton was electrocuted. Floyd Roe, 22, of Portsmouth, who was helping install the antenna at a house, was reported in fair condition at Mercy Hospital later.

BOYS 8 through 13!
WIN YOURSELF A TROPHY!

SIGN UP TODAY IN OUR BIG PUNT, PASS & KICK COMPETITION!

Registration now going on for our PUNT, PASS & KICK Competition. You could win one of these 18 handsome, all-metal trophies we're presenting as our local PP&K Competition awards. We're very proud of these trophies and you will be, too, if you win in our local competition. And you could go on to win all-expense trips to NFL games and the NFL Play-Off game in Miami, and a "Tour of Champions" to Washington, D.C., with your mom and dad!

In PP&K you compete against boys your own age, so your chances of winning are all the better! Our 18 trophies, for instance, go to the top three boys in each age group in our local PP&K Competition.

When you enroll we give you a FREE Tips Book on punting, passing and kicking, written by NFL stars. And you get a free official PP&K Contestant's Pin! So come in with your mom, dad or your legal guardian to register.

ENTER NOW! IT'S FREE!

(Competition Will be Sat., Oct 12th, 1 P. M. at Nicholson Stadium, Wellsville)

BOYS 8 through 13! WIN YOURSELF A TROPHY!

FORD PP&K COMPETITION

SIGN UP TODAY IN OUR BIG PUNT, PASS & KICK COMPETITION!

Registration now going on for our PUNT, PASS & KICK Competition. You could win one of these 18 handsome, all-metal trophies we're presenting as our local PP&K Competition awards. We're very proud of these trophies and you will be, too, if you win in our local competition. And you could go on to win all-expense trips to NFL games and the NFL Play-Off game in Miami, and a "Tour of Champions" to Washington, D.C., with your mom and dad!

In PP&K you compete against boys your own age, so your chances of winning are all the better! Our 18 trophies, for instance, go to the top three boys in each age group in our local PP&K Competition.

When you enroll we give you a FREE Tips Book on punting, passing and kicking, written by NFL stars. And you get a free official PP&K Contestant's Pin! So come in with your mom, dad or your legal guardian to register.

ENTER NOW! IT'S FREE!

Registration Ends Oct. 11. HURRY! Sign up at . . .
(Competition Will be Sat., Oct 12th, 1 P. M. at Nicholson Stadium, Wellsville)

Junior Editors Quiz on BIRTHSTONES

QUESTION: How did each month gets its birthstone?

* * *

ANSWER: In ancient days, there were many beliefs about forces or things which might bring good or bad luck. Most of us nowadays call these superstitions and refuse to consider them seriously. The idea of birthstones was one such superstition originated by fortune tellers in the Middle Ages. They selected and gradually agreed on 12 stones to stand for the 12 months of the year. Wear the right stone for your month, said these people, and it would bring you good luck (many, no doubt, were ready to supply you with the right stone, at a good price). It is said that the selection of birthstones as now in use was further developed in Poland in the 1700's. Although modern people have little faith in birthstones as good luck charms, they do appreciate them for their own interest and beauty. People tend to act and look alike in our standardized modern worth, and it is refreshing to find something which makes one stand out as an individual. So, many of us still enjoy buying birthstones and wearing them set in brooches, rings or other types of jewelry.

(Paul Zink of Auburn, N.Y., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, Oct. 10, the 284th day of 1968. There are 82 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date:

In 1845, the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. opened.

In 1913, the last obstruction in the Panama Canal, the Gamboa Dam, was blown up. The waters of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans were united.

In 1933, an antiwar treaty was signed at Rio de Janeiro by Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Paraguay, Uruguay and Mexico.

In 1944, during World War II, American forces delivered a surrender ultimatum to Nazi troops at Aachen, Germany.

Ten years ago — The United States offered to halt nuclear tests for one year if the Soviet Union would take the same action.

One year ago—Bolivian armed forces say they had confirmed that the Cuban revolutionary, Ernesto (Che) Guevara, had been killed in a jungle fight with army troops.

Junior Editors Quiz on BIRTHSTONES

QUESTION: How did each month gets its birthstone?

* * *

ANSWER: In ancient days, there were many beliefs about forces or things which might bring good or bad luck. Most of us nowadays call these superstitions and refuse to consider them seriously. The idea of birthstones was one such superstition originated by fortune tellers in the Middle Ages. They selected and gradually agreed on 12 stones to stand for the 12 months of the year. Wear the right stone for your month, said these people, and it would bring you good luck (many, no doubt, were ready to supply you with the right stone, at a good price). It is said that the selection of birthstones as now in use was further developed in Poland in the 1700's. Although modern people have little faith in birthstones as good luck charms, they do appreciate them for their own interest and beauty. People tend to act and look alike in our standardized modern worth, and it is refreshing to find something which makes one stand out as an individual. So, many of us still enjoy buying birthstones and wearing them set in brooches, rings or other types of jewelry.

(Paul Zink of Auburn, N.Y., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today's highlight in history:

On this date:

In 1845, the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. opened.

In 1913, the last obstruction in the Panama Canal, the Gamboa Dam, was blown up. The waters of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans were united.

In 1933, an antiwar treaty was signed at Rio de Janeiro by Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Paraguay, Uruguay and Mexico.

In 1944, during World War II, American forces delivered a surrender ultimatum to Nazi troops at Aachen, Germany.

Ten years ago — The United States offered to halt nuclear tests for one year if the Soviet Union would take the same action.

One year ago—Bolivian armed forces say they had confirmed that the Cuban revolutionary, Ernesto (Che) Guevara, had been killed in a jungle fight with army troops.
